Part 1 (ss 1-6) Education functions of local authorities

Section 1 places a general duty on local education authorities to promote high standards and requires them to exercise their functions with a view to promoting the fulfilment by every child of his educational potential. Local education authorities are required to exercise their functions on the provision of schools in their area with a view to securing diversity and increasing opportunities for parental choice: s 2. Local education authorities in England are required, under s 3, to respond to parental representations in relation to the exercise of the provision of primary and secondary schools. Section 4 requires all local education authorities to make arrangements to enable them to establish, so far as it is possible, the identities of children in their area who are not receiving a suitable education, with regard to statutory guidance. Local education authorities in England are required under s 5 to appoint school improvement partners to each of the maintained schools, excluding maintained nursery schools, in their area, who will act on behalf of the local education authority, providing challenge and support to a school in order to help improve the attainment and outcomes of pupils. Local education authorities have a duty to promote the well-being of persons aged 13-19, and of persons aged up to 25 with learning difficulties, by securing access for them to sufficient educational and recreational leisure-time activities and facilities, so far as is reasonably practicable, by providing activities and facilities, assisting others to do so, or by making other arrangements to facilitate access, which can include the provision of transport, financial assistance or information, and must supply and keep up to date information regarding those leisure-time activities and facilities that are available locally: s 6, Sch 1.

Part 2 (ss 7-32) Establishment, discontinuance or alteration of schools

Section 7 provides that a local education authority in England may publish a notice inviting proposals, other than from local education authorities, for the establishment of a new foundation, voluntary, or foundation special school, or Academy. Provision is made in relation to such proposals: Sch 2. The circumstances in which local education authorities are permitted to publish proposals for a community school or community special school are set out in s 8, and in general such proposals may be published only where prescribed conditions are met and only, subject to certain conditions, with the consent of the Secretary of State. Before publishing a notice local education authorities in England must consult such persons as they consider appropriate, and in discharging this duty they must have regard to any guidance given by the Secretary of State and regulations may require local education authorities to take further steps to promote public awareness of the proposals brought forward: s 9. Section 10 provides for the publishing of proposals with the consent of the Secretary of State for a new community, foundation, community special or foundation special school by local education authorities in England and other persons ('proposers'). Section 20 provides that certain schools may only publish certain proposals with the consent of the school's existing trustees, and of anyone by whom the foundation governors are appointed. Regulations may make provision about the publication and determination of such proposals: s 21. Such regulations in relation to proposals by a governing body of a community or voluntary controlled school to change category to a foundation school, must provide, under s 22, for the proposals to be determined by the governing body, and not be referred to the adjudicator, subject to certain conditions, and similar provision is made in respect of proposals for a change of category from community special school to foundation special school. Regulations made in relation to the publication and determination of proposals must make provision in connection with the referral of certain proposals to the adjudicator in certain circumstances: s 23. Sections 135-142 make provision for the Chief Inspector to undertake inspections and annual reviews of the performance of local authorities' functions, and sets out which of those functions are within the Chief Inspector's remit for these purposes.

Chapter 5 (ss 143-145) Inspection of CAFCASS functions

Sections 143-145 provide for powers of the Chief Inspector and that it is a duty for the Chief Inspector to inspect the performance of the Children and Family Court Advisory and Support Service ('CAFCASS') and is required to produce a written report of any inspection and send copies to the Secretary of State and CAFCASS.

Chapter 6 (ss 146-153) Further provision relating to the functions of Chief Inspector

Section 146 makes provision for the Secretary of State and the Chief Inspector to make arrangements for the inspection of secure training centres. The Secretary of State has the power to make regulations requiring the Chief Inspector to inspect adoption and fostering functions of a local authority on such occasions or at such intervals as the regulations specify: s 147. Functions of the Commission for Social Care Inspection as to the registration of children's homes, residential family centres, fostering agencies, voluntary adoption agencies, and adoption support agencies, are to be transferred, under s 148, to the Chief Inspector. Section 149, Sch 13 provide for the interaction between the Chief Inspector and other authorities. Any person who is authorised to exercise a power of entry or inspection on behalf of the Chief Inspector must, if required to do so, produce evidence of his authority to exercise the power: s 150. For the purposes of the law of defamation, under s 151, a report made by the Chief Inspector is privileged unless shown to have been made with malice. By virtue of s 152, the Chief Inspector may combine the reports of inspections carried out under two or more of his inspection functions, and to produce them as a combined report. Section 153 enables information obtained in connection with one of the Chief Inspector's functions to be used in connection with any other of his functions.

Chapter 7 (ss 154-159) Miscellaneous and supplementary

Section 154 provides new elements covering community cohesion which must be covered by inspection reports for schools. The Secretary of State may make regulations requiring a local authority in England to pay a fee to the Office in respect of its relevant functions and the Chief Inspector may make a scheme setting the fee level for periods when no regulations made by the Secretary of State are in force: s 155. Under s 156, the Chief Inspector no longer has the duty to inspect and report on the carrying out of the functions of the National Assembly in respect of family proceedings. Section 157 introduces Sch 14 which provides for minor and consequential amendments, and s 158 introduces Sch 15 which provides for transitional provision, while s 159 provides for interpretation.

Part 9 (ss 160-177) Miscellaneous

Section 160 makes provision in relation to the Chief Inspector's power to investigate complaints made by parents about schools. Provision is made in relation to innovation orders made by the Secretary of State or National Assembly: s 161, Sch 16. Under s 162 the Secretary of State and National Assembly, subject to specified conditions, have the power to repeal references in primary and secondary legislation to the terms 'local education authority' and 'children's services authority'. Section 163 makes provision in relation to the advice on such matters relating to the admission of pupils to relevant schools that an adjudicator is required to provide on request by the Secretary of State. The Department for Education and Skills is enabled to collect individual information about children receiving education funded by the local education authority otherwise than at a school: s 164. Members of staff, under s 165, have the power to use reasonable force in order to prevent a student at the institution from committing an offence, causing personal injury, damaging property or doing something that prejudices discipline at the institution. Section 166 provides for regulations that enable the governing bodies of maintained schools to make collaboration arrangements with further education bodies, and further education bodies to make collaboration arrangements with schools and with other further education bodies. Local authorities and governing bodies of maintained nursery schools must have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State about consultation with pupils on decisions affecting them: s167. Under s 168, the Secretary of State or the National Assembly may issue a direction or make an order if the governing bodies of maintained nursery schools are unreasonably exercising, or are in default with regard to, their functions. Sections 169-171 make provision in relation to the prohibition or restriction of unsuitable persons from taking part in the management of independent schools. Provision is made in relation to offences committed in connection with independent schools: s 172. By virtue of s 173, the governing bodies of community, foundation or voluntary schools, as well as maintained nursery schools, have a duty to designate a member of the school staff as the person responsible for co-ordinating provision for children with special educational needs at the school, and the Secretary of State has the power to make regulations requiring governing bodies to ensure the special educational needs co-ordinators have certain experience or qualifications or both, and to confer other functions on these governing bodies relating to special educational needs co-ordinators. Section 174 makes further provision about the circumstances in which regulations may prescribe time-limits within which local education authorities must take certain steps in connection with assessments and statements of special educational needs. Provision is made for minor amendments relating to schools in Wales: s 175, Sch 17. The Learning and Skills Council, under s 175, has a power to manage and fund particular types of support for learners aged between 10 and 15, for the purpose of encouraging them to undergo education and training. Section 177 enables university bodies who are landlords, on the acquisition of the freehold by, or the granting of an extended lease to, a tenant, to impose with the consent of the Secretary of State or the National Assembly, restrictive covenants on tenants for the purpose of reserving the relevant land for possible development by that body or a related university body.

Part 1 (ss 1-13) The Learning and Skills Council for England

Section 1 reduces, from 12 to 10 members, the size of the Learning and Skills Council for England ('LSC'). The LSC is under a duty to establish a regional learning and skills council for each area of England specified by the Secretary of State: s 2. The local learning and skills councils are abolished by s 3. Section 4 amends the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 24 to allow the Secretary of State to specify a body to formulate a strategy in relation to specified functions of the LSC for either the whole of England or part of it, and to require the Secretary of State to provide for the establishment of a body to formulate a strategy setting out how the functions of the LSC are to be carried out in Greater London. Under the 2007 Act s 5, the LSC's duty to establish a young people's learning committee and an adult learning committee is removed. Section 6 provides that the LSC, when performing its duty to secure the provision of facilities for education and training in relation to persons aged 16 to 19, and 19 years and over, must act with a view to encouraging diversity in education and training, and to increasing opportunities for individuals to exercise choice. The 2000 Act s 14 is amended by the 2007 Act s 7 to require the LSC to have regard to guidance from the Secretary of State concerning consultations with persons receiving or proposing to receive post-16 education or training, with employers or with other persons as may be specified in such guidance on the funding and provision of learning. Section 8 amends the 2000 Act s 15 to provide that the LSC must make and publish a plan for each academic year. The LSC can form any type of company with the consent of the Secretary of State: 2007 Act s 9. Section 10 amends the 2000 Act s 25 so that the Secretary of State may exercise the power to direct the LSC in relation to the establishment and dissolution of further education corporations. The powers of the LSC to design, develop and operate support services for persons and bodies exercising education and training functions are extended by the 2007 Act s 11. Section 12 allows the LSC to take part in arrangements for assisting persons to select, train for, obtain and retain employment. Section 13 deals with Northern Ireland.

Part 2 (ss 14-23) Further education institutions

Section 14 transfers to the LSC the power under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 16 to incorporate further education institutions in England. The Secretary of State's power under s 27 to dissolve further education corporations in England is transferred to the LSC by the 2007 Act s 15. Section 16 amends the 1992 Act s 51 to reflect the transfer, from the Secretary of State to the LSC, of the power to establish and dissolve further education corporations. The Secretary of State's intervention powers are transferred to the LSC: 2007 Act s 17. Section 18 provides that Welsh ministers must prepare a statement of their policy with respect to the exercise of their intervention powers, keep the statement under review and, if they consider it appropriate, prepare a revised statement. The 1992 Act s 76 is amended by the 2007 Act s 19 to enable the Privy Council to make orders granting further education institutions in England the power to award only foundation degrees. The Secretary of State is required, within a specified time period, to lay before Parliament a report on the effect of the grant of powers to award foundations degrees: s 20. Section 21 amends the 1992 Act s 19 to clarify the power of further education corporations to form or invest in all types of company. The 2007 Act s 22 imposes a duty on the governing bodies of further education institutions in England to have regard to guidance from the Secretary of State, and for the governing bodies in Wales to have regard to guidance from Welsh Ministers, in relation to consultations with persons who are, or who are likely to become, students of the institution, or with employers in connection with decisions which will affect them. Section 23 amends the Education Act 2002 s 137 to provide that a person appointed as the principal of a further education institution in England before the commencement of s 137 is not exempt from the requirement that he must have achieved, or be working towards, a specified leadership qualification.

Part 3 (ss 24, 25) Industrial training levies

The 2007 Act s 24 amends the Industrial Training Act 1982 s 11 to allow support for levy proposals to be demonstrated by consulting more widely with employers. Industrial training boards are required by the 2007 Act s 25 to submit proposals for three-year levy orders to the Secretary of State, specifying up to three levy periods for each three-year period.

Part 4 (ss 26-34) Miscellaneous and general

Section 26 clarifies the power of higher education corporations to form or invest in companies, and provides that higher education corporations can form or become members of charitable organisations. The Government of Wales Act 2006 Sch 5 Pt I is amended by the 2007 Act s 27 to confer enhanced legislative competence on the National Assembly for Wales in specific areas. Section 28 provides that any power to make an order or regulations under the 2007 Act is exercisable by statutory instrument. Section 29 gives effect to Sch 1, which makes various amendments, and s 30 gives effect to the repeals made in Sch 2. Section 31 deals with interpretation, s 32 with commencement, s 33 with extent and s 34 with the short title.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(1) THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK/(i) The Legislation/1. Outline of the legislative framework.

1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK

(1) THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK

(i) The Legislation

1. Outline of the legislative framework.

Education law is contained largely in statute<sup>1</sup>, and includes a significant element of secondary legislative provision. For many years, the principal statute was the Education Act 1944, which contained many of the key elements of the modern law of education. It set out the basic statutory system of education based upon the three progressive stages of primary, secondary and further education<sup>2</sup>. It also established the main duties in relation to the provision of education including: (1) the duty of local education authorities<sup>3</sup> to ensure that they contribute to the spiritual, moral, mental and physical development of the community by providing efficient primary and secondary education<sup>4</sup>, and to ensure that sufficient schools<sup>5</sup> are provided for their areas<sup>6</sup>; (2) the duty of the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup> and the local education authorities to adhere to the general principle that pupils are to be educated in accordance with the wishes of their parents<sup>8</sup>; and (3) the general duty of parents to ensure that their children<sup>9</sup> who are of compulsory school age<sup>10</sup> receive efficient full-time education<sup>11</sup>. It also contained the system for registration of independent schools<sup>12</sup>. The Education Act 1944 remained largely untouched by reform but in 1996 it was consolidated with much of the then-existing legislation relating to education<sup>13</sup> and, although most of its key elements survived the consolidation, the 1944 Act is now of historical importance only.

Today, the Education Act 1996<sup>14</sup>, together with the Education Act 1997, the Education (Schools) Act 1997 and the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, as amended and supplemented by the Education Act 2002<sup>15</sup> and the Education Act 2005, establish the current framework for the law governing the provision of nursery education for pre-compulsory school age children<sup>16</sup>, and primary and secondary education for children and young persons. In particular, provision is made in relation to school organisation<sup>17</sup>, governance, staffing and funding<sup>18</sup>, as well as admissions<sup>19</sup>, registration and school attendance<sup>20</sup>. The inspection regime introduced by the School Inspections Act 1996, and the provisions regarding intervention in maintained schools, are superseded by the Education Act 2005 (the relevant provisions of which have not yet been brought into force in Wales)<sup>21</sup>.

Provision is made in relation to pupils with special educational needs<sup>22</sup>, and the Special Educational Needs and Disability Rights Act 2001 has, among other things, amended the provisions of the Education Act 1996 relating to special educational needs and extended provisions of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 to schools<sup>23</sup>.

The consolidation of the earlier legislation in 1996<sup>24</sup> did not affect the provisions on further and higher education<sup>25</sup> in the Education Reform Act 1988 and the Further and Higher Education Act 1992. In relation to further education and training, the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 established a framework for the funding and governance of institutions, including sixth form colleges. This framework has been substantially reformed by the Learning and Skills Act 2000, which established the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>26</sup> and the National Council for Education and Training in Wales<sup>27</sup>, and introduced provisions relating to support services<sup>28</sup>. The Education Reform Act 1988 and the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 are the principal enactments relating to higher education; they established a single framework for higher education, by removing many of the distinctions between universities, polytechnics and higher education colleges. These Acts also introduced a single funding structure<sup>29</sup>. The Higher Education Act 2004, amongst other things<sup>30</sup>, sets out a mechanism imposing conditions for the charging of tuition fees and, if certain requirements relating to 'fair access' are complied with<sup>31</sup>, for authorising fees of more than the basic amount<sup>32</sup>. Despite these reforms, many universities have retained distinct structures of governance, and parts of some of the original statutes relating to the oldest established universities remain in force<sup>33</sup>.

The Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998, the Education Act 2002 and the Education Act 2005 provide a statutory regime for the registration and qualification requirements for teachers<sup>34</sup>, their training and discipline<sup>35</sup>, including the establishment of the Training and Development Agency for Schools<sup>36</sup> and the General Teaching Council for England and the General Teaching Council for Wales<sup>37</sup>. Provision is made for teachers' pay and conditions<sup>38</sup>, and in relation to teachers' pensions<sup>39</sup>.

Increasingly, separate provision is being made in legislation to reflect the different education policies operating in England and in Wales<sup>40</sup>. In this title, where separate provisions exist for England and for Wales they have generally been set out separately but unless otherwise indicated the provisions set out apply to both England and Wales.

Whilst the domestic legislation outlined above provides the main framework for the law of education, there are also important rights and principles that derive from international and European law<sup>41</sup>.

13 The consolidation was recommended by the Law Commission in its report entitled Education Bill: School Inspection Bill: Report on the Consolidation of Certain Enactments Relating to Education (Law Com no 240) (Cm 3251) (1996). In response to this, the Education Act 1996 and the School Inspections Act 1996 were passed.

The Education Act 1996 consolidated the Education Act 1944, the Education Act 1946, the Education Act (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1948, the Education Act (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1953, the Education Act 1959, the Education Act 1964, the Education Act 1968, the Education (Handicapped Children) Act 1970, the Education (Work Experience) Act 1973, the Education Act 1975, the Education (School-leaving Dates) Act 1976, the Education Act 1976, the Education Act 1979, the Education Act 1981, the Education (Grants and Awards) Act 1984, and many provisions of various other Acts including the Education Act 1980, the Education (No 2) Act 1986, the Education Reform Act 1988, the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 and the Education Act 1993.

Several of these Acts (eg the Education Act 1967, the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 and the School Inspections Act 1996) are repealed in relation to England and prospectively repealed in relation to Wales; the amendments removing references to these Acts from the definition of 'the Education Acts' are not yet fully in force.

The Audit Commission Act 1998 s 36 is to be construed as one with the Education Act 1996, and references in any enactment to the Education Acts include a reference to the Audit Commission Act 1998 s 36: s 36(6). ## (ii) The Common Law

2. Common law.

The law relating to education is substantially statutory<sup>1</sup>, but the common law still bears upon some areas of educational practice<sup>2</sup>, notably the common law duty of care owed by local education authorities and their employees in relation to the care and supervision of pupils<sup>3</sup>. In particular, the standard of care expected of a teacher in supervising pupils at school and protecting them from harm has been extensively considered by the courts<sup>4</sup>. Judicial consideration has also been given to the extent of a teacher's disciplinary authority under statute<sup>5</sup>, including the degree to which a teacher may legally detain<sup>6</sup> or restrain a pupil, or administer corporal punishment<sup>7</sup>. The question of vicarious liability (including liability for intentional assaults) has received detailed consideration<sup>8</sup>.

The definition of statutory duties and powers by the courts has become increasingly important as a very wide range of such powers and duties underscores educational provision and administration. There have been successful attempts to extend common law negligence to the performance of the statutory duties of teachers, educational psychologists and other professionals employed in the sphere of education<sup>9</sup>.

The extent to which decisions made within the education system have a public law dimension has also been considered by the courts. As such decisions have important consequences for parents, children and other interested parties, education has become one of the most active areas of public law, with numerous judicial review judgments, accumulating into a large body of case law<sup>10</sup>. Most such decisions do fall within the realm of public law, but there are exceptions. For example, decisions of independent schools, being bodies whose authority is derived solely from contract or consent of the parties, are not subject to judicial review<sup>11</sup> (save in very limited circumstances<sup>12</sup>).

1 For an outline of the legislative framework see PARA 1 ante.

2 Many cases are in amplification of particular statutory provisions and, accordingly, are cited in the paragraphs containing the relevant legislation.

3 See PARAS 872-873 post. Certain statutory duties imposed on teachers are also discussed in PARAS 872-873 post.

4 See eg the cases relating to teachers' duties cited in PARAS 872-873 post.

5 As to the statutory responsibility of the governing body and head teacher for discipline and the statutory power of the head teacher to exclude pupils see PARAS 559, 562 post.

6 See eg the cases considering the legality of detention cited in PARA 578 post.

7 See eg the cases on the legality of corporal punishment cited in PARAS 3, 577 post.

8 See PARA 472 post.

9 This has most notably been considered in the context of the identification of children with special educational needs and the provision of suitable education for them (see PARA 1025 post), but could equally extend to other areas of education (see PARA 39 post).

For cases considering various aspects of the provision of education for children with special educational needs see PARA 984 et seq post.

10 As to judicial review generally see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARA 601 et seq.

11 See PARA 495 post.

12 For example, it has been held that the decisions of city technology colleges are potentially subject to judicial review (see PARA 496 post). See also decisions relating to a pupil whose attendance at an independent school depends on the assisted places scheme (now repealed) (see PARA 475 post).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(1) THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK/(iii) Rights and Freedoms/3. Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms.

(iii) Rights and Freedoms

3. Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms.

The Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms<sup>1</sup> which guarantees basic rights and freedoms is given effect in the United Kingdom by the Human Rights Act 1998<sup>2</sup>.

Under the First Protocol to the Convention<sup>3</sup>, no one may be denied the right to education<sup>4</sup>. However, the right to education calls for regulation by the state, and such regulation will vary in time and place according to particular circumstances<sup>5</sup>. In the exercise of any functions which it assumes in relation to education and to teaching, the state must respect the right of parents to ensure that such education and teaching conforms with their own religious and philosophical convictions<sup>6</sup>. The United Kingdom only accepts this right in so far as it is compatible with the provision of efficient instruction and training, and the avoidance of unreasonable public expenditure<sup>7</sup>.

The Convention contains other rights and freedoms which may be capable of application in relation to education. The prohibition of torture or inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment<sup>8</sup> has been held not to outlaw the use of corporal punishment<sup>9</sup>. The right to a fair and public hearing in the determination of civil rights and obligations<sup>10</sup> has been held inapplicable to certain decisions relating to education, on the basis that no civil right is in issue<sup>11</sup>. The right to respect for a person's private and family life, his home and his correspondence<sup>12</sup> may also be applicable to certain areas of educational decision-making and practice, but has not been successfully invoked in cases concerning corporal punishment<sup>13</sup>, compulsory sex education<sup>14</sup>, choice of school<sup>15</sup>, exclusion from school<sup>16</sup> or teaching in the language of a parent's choice<sup>17</sup>. Since religious education is part of the curriculum of maintained schools<sup>18</sup>, the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion<sup>19</sup> may be relevant<sup>20</sup>. The right to freedom of expression is also of relevance in relation to education<sup>21</sup>.

The rights and fundamental freedoms enshrined in the Convention must be secured without discrimination on any ground such as sex, race, colour, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, association with a national minority, property, birth or other status<sup>22</sup>.

2 See the Human Rights Act 1998 s 1(2). See also CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS.

3 The Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol (Paris, 20 March 1952; TS 46 (1954); Cmd 9221).

4 Ibid art 2. See CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 166. Although the right to education in art 2 is positive, its negative formulation indicates that the contracting states did not see themselves as required to establish at their own expense, or to subsidise, education of any particular type or at any particular level: Belgian Linguistics Case (No 2) (1968) 1 EHRR 252, ECtHR. However, in domestic law, there is no doubt that, at least in theory, the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol art 2 applies to tertiary education because education is a continuing process and any divisions between primary, secondary, and tertiary are, in a sense, artificial: R (on the application of Douglas) v North Tyneside Metropolitan Borough Council [2003] EWCA Civ 1847, [2004] 1 All ER 709, [2004] 1 WLR 2363.

The right to education includes the right to draw the full benefit from the education received: Belgian Linguistics Case (No 2) supra. However, the European Commission on Human Rights has commented that it would not be contrary to the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol art 2 for pupils to be suspended or expelled, provided that the national regulations did not prevent them from enrolling in another establishment to pursue their studies: Application 14524/89 Yanasik v Turkey 74 DR 14 (1993) at 27, EComHR. See also R (on the application of S) v Brent London Borough Council, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of P) v Oxfordshire County Council Exclusion Appeals Panel [2002] EWCA Civ 693 at [9], [2002] ELR 556 at [9]. In domestic law, the unlawful exclusion of a pupil from school may give rise to a claim for damages for denial of a Convention right: A v Head Teacher and Governors of Lord Grey School [2004] EWCA Civ 382, [2004] QB 1231, [2004] 4 All ER 628 (child's indefinite exclusion from school, without due regard to the statutory safeguards and without provision of some adequate or appropriate substitute education, was an unequivocal denial of his right to education under the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol art 2).

The general right to education has been held to consist of separate rights (none of which is absolute) which include: (1) right of access to such educational establishments as exist; (2) a right to effective education; and (3) a right to official recognition of academic qualifications: R (on the application of Holub) v Secretary of State for the Home Department [2001] 1 WLR 1359 at 1367, sub nom Holub v Secretary of State for the Home Department [2001] ELR 401 at 408-409, CA, per Tuckey LJ. Effective education need not be the most effective possible but must reach a minimum standard: R (on the application of Holub) v Secretary of State for the Home Department supra. The right to education does not guarantee the right to an assisted place at an independent school where public education is available: R v Secretary of State for Education and Employment, ex p Begbie [2000] 1 WLR 1115, [2000] ELR 445, CA. See also Valsamis v Greece [1998] ELR 430, ECtHR.

5 Belgian Linguistics Case (No 2) (1968) 1 EHRR 252 at 281, ECtHR. Provided such regulation does not injure the substance of the right to education and is 'reasonable', it will not breach the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol art 2: Belgian Linguistics Case (No 2) supra; Campbell and Cosans v United Kingdom (1982) 4 EHRR 293 at 307, ECtHR. This carries the necessary corollary that any question as to whether there has been a violation of the right has to be answered initially in terms of the applicable domestic law: A v Head Teacher and Governors of Lord Grey School [2004] EWCA Civ 382 at [45], [2004] QB 1231 at [45], [2004] 4 All ER 628 at [45] per Sedley LJ. Where the breach of domestic law is sufficiently serious, the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol art 2 will be contravened regardless of the quality of provision put in place by the school or by the local education authority (see the Education Act 1996 s 19; and PARA 457 post): A v Head Teacher and Governors of Lord Grey School supra.

6 Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol art 2. The views of parents of children with special educational needs should be taken into account, but such children have no absolute right to parity of access with other pupils: Application 14135/88 PD and LD v United Kingdom 62 DR 292 (1989), EComHR; Application 14688/89 Simpson v United Kingdom 64 DR 188 (1989), EComHR; Application 13887/88 Graeme v United Kingdom 64 DR 158 (1990), EComHR. There is no requirement to provide special facilities to accommodate a particular conviction, although the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol art 2 may affect the use of existing facilities: Application 25212/94 Klerks v Netherlands 82 DR 129 (1995), EComHR. See also Application 10476/83 W and KL v Sweden 45 DR 143 (1983), EComHR; Application 14688/89 Simpson v United Kingdom supra; Application 25959/94 Cohen v United Kingdom (1996) 21 EHRR CD 104; L v Hereford and Worcester County Council and Hughes [2000] ELR 375. The duty to uphold religious and philosophical convictions does not extend to upholding linguistic preferences (Belgian Linguistics Case (No 2) (1968) 1 EHRR 252, ECtHR) or to the exemption of pupils from sex education (Kjeldsen, Busk Masden and Pedersen (1976) 1 EHRR 711, ECtHR). Philosophical convictions can include the conviction that corporal punishment should not be used with respect to a child: see Campbell and Cosans v United Kingdom (1982) 4 EHRR 293, ECtHR; and PARA 577 post.

7 See the Human Rights Act 1998 s 15, Sch 3 Pt II. This mirrors the conditions attached to the duty under the Education Act 1996 to educate pupils in accordance with the wishes of their parents: see s 9 (as amended); and PARA 13 post.

8 See the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 3. See also CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 124.

9 If provided the corporal punishment is administered within strict limitations concerned with factors such as the nature and context of the punishment, the manner and method of its execution, its duration, its physical and mental effects, and the pupil's age, sex and state of health: see Costello-Roberts v United Kingdom [1994] ELR 1, ECtHR; Tyrer v United Kingdom (1978) 2 EHRR 1, ECtHR.

10 See the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 6. See also CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 134-148.

11 See Application 14688/89 Simpson v United Kingdom 64 DR 188 (1989), EComHR. See also R v Richmond upon Thames London Borough Council, ex p JC [2001] ELR 21, CA; Hanuman v United Kingdom [2000] ELR 685, ECtHR. Neither admission appeal panels nor exclusion appeal panels were considered to be subject to the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 6 in R (on the application of B) v Head Teacher of Alperton Community School, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of C) v Governing Body of Cardinal Newman High School [2001] EWHC Admin 229, [2001] ELR 359. However, on appeal, sub nom R (on the application of S) v Brent London Borough Council, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of P) v Oxfordshire County Council Exclusion Appeals Panel [2002] EWCA Civ 693, [2002] ELR 556, it was considered tenable to assume (at [30]) that domestic human rights law would regard permanent exclusion (without good reason) as breach of a civil right for the purposes of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 6. See further PARA 567 post.

12 See the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 8. See also CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 149-155.

16 R (on the application of B) v Head Teacher of Alperton Community School, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of C) v Governing Body of Cardinal Newman High School [2001] EWHC Admin 229, [2001] ELR 359, where it was argued that the exclusion of a child from a mainstream school gave rise to a breach of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 8, as the child was deprived of the right to develop a personality in conjunction with others. However, the court did not recognise the existence of such a right in the field of education, and held that a child was not denied the opportunity to develop his personality in conjunction with others simply because he was not in a mainstream school. The point was not pursued on appeal sub nom R (on the application of S) v Brent London Borough Council, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of P) v Oxfordshire County Council Exclusion Appeals Panel [2002] EWCA Civ 693, [2002] ELR 556.

17 See Belgian Linguistics Case (No 2) (1968) 1 EHRR 252, ECtHR.

18 See Valsamis v Greece [1998] ELR 430, ECtHR. If a court's determination of any question arising under the Human Rights Act 1998 might affect the exercise by a religious organisation (itself or its members collectively) of the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion, the court must have particular regard to the importance of that right: s 13(1). For these purposes, 'court' includes a tribunal: s 13(2). As to maintained schools see PARA 94 et seq post.

19 See the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 9; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 156-157.

Where a school policy potentially conflicts with a pupil's right to manifest his religion or beliefs, the school must consider firstly whether the pupil has a right under the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 9(1), and then must consider whether interference with that right is justified under art 9(2): R (on the application of SB) v Governors of Denbigh High School [2005] EWCA Civ 199, [2005] 2 All ER 396, [2005] 1 FCR 530 (compliance with school uniform code). A local education authority must take into account the religious convictions of parents when formulating its admissions policy (see PARA 396 post): R (on the application of K) v Newham London Borough Council [2002] EWHC 405 (Admin), (2002) Times, 28 February.

See Application 8010/77 X v United Kingdom 16 DR 101 (1979), EComHR, where a teacher forbidden from wearing religious and anti-abortion stickers to work failed in arguing that his rights under the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms art 10 had been violated, and it was held that the school was justified in its ban in view of the need for non-denominational schools to have regard to parents' rights to have their religious and philosophical convictions upheld. #### 4. Development of quality education under European Community law.

The European Community must contribute to the development of quality education by encouraging co-operation between member states and, if necessary, by supporting and supplementing their action, while fully respecting the responsibility of the member states for the content of teaching and the organisation of education systems and their cultural and linguistic diversity<sup>1</sup>. European Community action must be aimed at: (1) developing the European dimension in education, particularly through the teaching and dissemination of the languages of the member states; (2) encouraging mobility of students and teachers, inter alia by encouraging the academic recognition of diplomas and periods of study; (3) promoting co-operation between educational establishments; (4) developing exchanges of information and experience on issues common to the education systems of the member states; (5) encouraging the development of youth exchanges and of exchanges of socio-educational instructors; and (6) encouraging the development of distance education<sup>2</sup>. The European Community and the member states must foster co-operation with other countries and the competent international organisations in the field of education, in particular the Council of Europe<sup>3</sup>.

The European Community must implement a vocational training policy which supports and supplements the action of the member states, while fully respecting the responsibility of the member states for the content and organisation of vocational training<sup>4</sup>. European Community action must aim to: (a) facilitate adaptation to industrial changes, in particular through vocational training and retraining; (b) improve initial and continuing vocational training in order to facilitate vocational integration and re-integration into the labour market; (c) facilitate access to vocational training and encourage mobility of instructors and trainees and, in particular, of young people; (d) stimulate co-operation on training between educational or training establishments and firms; and (e) develop exchanges of information and experience on issues common to the training systems of the member states<sup>5</sup>. The European Community and the member states must foster co-operation with other countries and the competent international organisations in the sphere of vocational training<sup>6</sup>.

There are other provisions which have application to education. A person exercising the right under European Community law to freedom of movement for workers must have access to training in vocational schools and retraining centres, and the resident children of such a person have a right to be admitted to the host state's general educational and vocational training courses, under the same conditions as nationals<sup>7</sup>. Under the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, everyone has the right to education and the right of access to vocational and continuing training<sup>8</sup>. This includes the possibility to receive free compulsory education<sup>9</sup>. The freedom to found educational establishments with due respect for democratic principles and the right of parents to ensure education and teaching of their children in conformity with their religious, philosophical and pedagogical convictions must be respected in accordance with the national laws governing the exercise of that freedom and right<sup>10</sup>.

NOTE 7--A national law that precludes tax relief on the payment of school fees to schools in other member states only is contrary to the right to freedom of movement under EC law: Cases C-76/05 Schwarz v Finanzamt Bergisch Gladbach; C-318/05 EC Commission v Germany [2008] All ER (EC) 556, ECJ.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(1) THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK/(iii) Rights and Freedoms/5. Rights under international treaties.

5. Rights under international treaties.

There are various international treaties which are of relevance to education. These include the United Nations' Universal Declaration of Human Rights<sup>1</sup>, the United Nations' Convention on the Rights of the Child<sup>2</sup>, the United Nations' International Covenant on Economic, Social and Political Rights<sup>3</sup> and the Council of Europe's European Social Charter<sup>4</sup>.

Under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, everyone has the right to education<sup>5</sup>, and education must be directed to the full development of the human personality and to the strengthening of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms<sup>6</sup>. It must promote understanding, tolerance and friendship among all nations and racial or religious groups, and it must further the activities of the United Nations for the maintenance of peace<sup>7</sup>. Parents have a right to choose the kind of education that is given to their children<sup>8</sup>.

Under the Convention on the Rights of the Child, the right of the child to education is recognised, and with a view to achieving this right progressively and on the basis of equal opportunity, states must: (1) make primary education compulsory and available to all; (2) encourage the development of different forms of secondary education (including general and vocational education), make them available and accessible to every child, and take appropriate measures such as introducing free education and offering financial assistance in case of need; (3) make higher education accessible to all on the basis of capacity by every appropriate means; (4) make educational and vocational guidance available and accessible to all children; and (5) take measures to encourage regular attendance at schools and the reduction of drop-out rates<sup>9</sup>. The education of the child must be directed towards: (a) the development of the child's personality, talents and mental and physical abilities to their fullest potential; (b) the development of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, and for the principles enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations; (c) the development of respect for the child's parents, for his or her own cultural identity, language and values, for the national values of the country in which the child is living and of the country from which he or she may originate, and for civilisations different from his or her own; (d) the preparation of the child for responsible life in a free society, in the spirit of understanding, peace, tolerance, equality of sexes, and friendship among all peoples and ethnic, national and religious groups and persons of indigenous origin; and (e) the development of respect for the natural environment<sup>10</sup>.

The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Political Rights recognises the right of everyone to education<sup>11</sup>. The parties to the Covenant agree that education must be directed to the full development of the human personality and the sense of its dignity, and must strengthen the respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms<sup>12</sup>. They further agree that education must enable all persons to participate effectively in a free society, promote understanding, tolerance and friendship among all nations and all racial, ethnic or religious groups, and further the activities of the United Nations for the maintenance of peace<sup>13</sup>. With a view to achieving the full realisation of that right: (i) primary education must be compulsory and available free to all; (ii) secondary education in its different forms, including technical and vocational secondary education, must be made generally available and accessible to all by every appropriate means, and in particular by the progressive introduction of free education; (iii) higher education must be made equally accessible to all, on the basis of capacity, by every appropriate means, and in particular by the progressive introduction of free education; (iv) fundamental education must be encouraged or intensified as far as possible for those persons who have not received or completed the whole period of their primary education; and (v) the development of a system of schools at all levels must be actively pursued, an adequate fellowship system must be established and the material conditions of teaching staff must be continuously improved<sup>14</sup>.

The European Social Charter provides for the right to protection against poverty and social exclusion<sup>15</sup>. With a view to ensuring the effective exercise of this right, the parties, being members of the Council of Europe, undertake: (A) to take measures within the framework of an overall and co-ordinated approach to promote effective access to employment, housing, training, education, culture, and social and medical assistance for persons who live or risk living in a situation of social exclusion or poverty, as well as their families; and (B) to review these measures with a view to their adaptation if necessary<sup>16</sup>.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights also provides that: (1) education must be free, at least in the elementary and fundamental stages; (2) elementary education must be compulsory; (3) technical and professional education must be made generally available; and (4) higher education must be accessible to all on the basis of merit: art 26(1).

10   Ibid art 29(1). No part of art 29 or art 28 (see the text and note 9 supra) may be construed so as to interfere with the liberty of individuals and bodies to establish and direct educational institutions, subject always to the observance of the principles set out in art 29(1) and to the requirements that the education given in such institutions must conform to such minimum standards as may be laid down by the state: art 29(2).

No part of art 13 is to be construed so as to interfere with the liberty of individuals and bodies to establish and direct educational institutions, subject always to the observance of the principles set out in art 13(1) (see the text and notes 11-13 supra) and to the requirement that the education given in such institutions must conform to such minimum standards as may be laid down by the state: art 13(4).

15   I.e. the European Social Charter art 30. The Charter also provides for a right to vocational guidance (art 9) and training (art 10), which is to be without discrimination on the grounds of sex (art 20). All rights guaranteed by the Charter are to be enjoyed without discrimination on any ground (art E). There is also a programme to encourage co-operation between member states to combat social exclusion which pays particular attention to relevant policy developments on education (amongst other things): see European Parliament and EC Council Decision 50/2002 (OJ L10, 12.1.2002, p 1).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(1) THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK/(iii) Rights and Freedoms/6. Facilities for education to be provided without sex discrimination.

6. Facilities for education to be provided without sex discrimination.

It is unlawful, in relation to certain educational establishments, for a responsible body to discriminate<sup>1</sup> against a woman<sup>2</sup>: (1) in the terms on which it offers to admit her to the establishment as a pupil<sup>3</sup>; or (2) by refusing or deliberately omitting to accept an application for her admission to the establishment as a pupil<sup>4</sup>; or (3) where she is a pupil of the establishment, in the way it affords her access to any benefits, facilities or services, or by refusing or deliberately omitting to afford her access to them<sup>5</sup>, or by excluding her from the establishment or subjecting her to any other detriment<sup>6</sup>. Where the educational establishment is maintained by a local education authority<sup>7</sup>, the responsible body is the local education authority or governing body, according to which of them has the function in question<sup>8</sup>. The proprietor<sup>9</sup> is the responsible body in relation to educational establishments which are independent schools<sup>10</sup> not being special schools, and special schools not maintained by a local education authority<sup>11</sup>. The governing body is the responsible body in relation to educational establishments which are institutions within the further education sector<sup>12</sup>, universities<sup>13</sup>, institutions (other than universities) within the higher education sector<sup>14</sup> and other establishments<sup>15</sup> providing full-time or part-time education, being designated<sup>16</sup> establishments<sup>17</sup>.

It is unlawful for a local education authority, in carrying out such of its functions under the Education Acts<sup>18</sup> as do not fall under the above provisions<sup>19</sup>, to do any act which constitutes sex discrimination<sup>20</sup>. It is also unlawful for the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>21</sup>, the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>22</sup>, the Higher Education Funding Council for England or the Higher Education Funding Council for Wales<sup>23</sup> in carrying out their functions under the Education Acts and the Learning and Skills Act 2000 to do any act which constitutes sex discrimination<sup>24</sup>. It is similarly unlawful for the Training and Development Agency for Schools<sup>25</sup> in carrying out its functions under any enactment to do any act which constitutes sex discrimination<sup>26</sup>.

In addition, there is a general duty on local education authorities and other educational bodies in the public sector to secure that facilities provided for education, and any ancillary benefits or services, are provided without sex discrimination<sup>27</sup>. The Learning and Skills Council for England and the National Council for Education and Training for Wales are under a general duty to secure that facilities for education, training and organised leisure-time occupation connected with such education or training, and any ancillary benefits or services, are provided without sex discrimination<sup>28</sup>.

The provisions relating to the prevention of sex discrimination in education<sup>29</sup> do not apply to any course in physical education which is a further education course<sup>30</sup> or a higher education course<sup>31</sup>. There is an exemption for discrimination in connection with certain educational appointments<sup>32</sup>, and in relation to educational charities<sup>33</sup>.

1 For these purposes, references to discrimination refer to any discrimination falling within the Sex Discrimination Act 1975 s 1 (as substituted), s 2, s 2A (as added), s 3 (as substituted) or s 4 (as amended); and related expressions are to be construed accordingly: see s 5(1)(a); and DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 344 et seq.

2 'Woman' includes a female of any age: ibid ss 5(2), 82(1). The provisions of s 1 (direct and indirect discrimination against women: see DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 344 et seq), Pt II (ss 6-20A) (as amended) (sex discrimination against women in the employment field: see DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue)

PARA 360 et seq) and Pt III (ss 22-36) (as amended) (education and goods, facilities, services and premises: see DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 378 et seq) are to be read as applying equally to the treatment of men, with the requisite modifications: see s 2(1); and DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 357.

3 Ibid s 22(a). See also DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 378. For these purposes, 'pupil' includes any person who receives education at a school or institution to which s 22 applies: s 22A (added by the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 93, Sch 8 Pt II paras 75, 77). 'Education' includes any form of training or instruction: Sex Discrimination Act 1975 s 82(1). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 post; definition applied by s 82(1) (definition amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 para 36).

As to the exception from the duty under the Sex Discrimination Act 1975 s 22(a) in the case of single-sex establishments, and exceptions for single-sex establishments turning co-educational, see ss 26, 27 (both as amended); para 404 post; and DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 381.

Nothing in the statutes or charter of any university may be deemed to preclude the authorities of the university from making such provision as they think fit for the admission of women to membership of the university, or to any of its degrees, rights, or privileges (see the Sex Disqualification (Removal) Act 1919 s 3); and any enactment, Order in Council, Royal Charter, or provision, so far as inconsistent with this requirement, ceases to have effect (see s 4(2) (amended by the Statute Law Revision Act 1927; and the Criminal Justice Act 1972 s 64(2), Sch 6 Pt I)). See further PARA 659 post.

In R v South Bank University, ex p Coggeran [2001] ELR 42, [2000] ICR 1342, CA, the decision of a university leading to the exclusion of a pregnant student on academic grounds could not be equated with the dismissal of a pregnant employee for the purposes of the Sex Discrimination Act 1975.

Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 12 Pt III para 73, Sch 13 Pt II; and the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 paras 34, 137). Such a designation remains in force until revoked notwithstanding that the establishment ceases to be within the Sex Discrimination Act 1975 s 24(2) (as amended): s 24(3).

The local education authority's duty under the Education Act 1996 s 14 (as amended) (see PARA 26 post) to provide sufficient schools for its area must be carried out in a way that does not bring it into conflict with the Sex Discrimination Act 1975 s 23 (as amended): see PARA 26 note 5 post.

7. Unlawful discrimination or harassment on grounds of sexual orientation by the governing bodies of institutions within the higher and further education sectors or by providers of vocational training.

It is unlawful, in relation to specified educational establishments<sup>1</sup>, for the governing body<sup>2</sup> of that establishment to discriminate on grounds of sexual orientation or by way of victimisation<sup>3</sup> against a person<sup>4</sup>:

- 1 (1) in the terms on which it offers to admit him to the establishment as a student<sup>5</sup>;
- 2 (2) by refusing or deliberately not accepting an application for his admission to the establishment as a student<sup>6</sup>; or

The Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1661, reg 20 applies to the following educational establishments, namely: (1) an institution within the further education sector within the meaning of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 91(3) (see PARA 579 post); (2) a university; and (3) an institution, other than a university, within the higher education sector within the meaning of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 91(5) (see PARA 646 post): Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1661, reg 20(4).

3 For these purposes, references to discrimination are references to any discrimination falling within the Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1661, reg 3 (discrimination on grounds of sexual orientation: see DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 722) or reg 4 (discrimination by way of victimisation: see DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 723); and related expressions must be construed accordingly: reg 2(2).

4 Ibid reg 20(1). Regulation 20(1) does not apply if the discrimination only concerns training which would help fit a person for employment which, by virtue of reg 7 (exception for genuine occupational requirement etc: see DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 725), the employer could lawfully refuse to offer the person in question: reg 20(3).

5 Ibid reg 20(1)(a). For these purposes, 'student' means any person who receives education at an educational establishment to which reg 20 applies (see note 1 supra): reg 20(6).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(1) THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK/(iii) Rights and Freedoms/8. Facilities for education to be provided without racial discrimination or harassment.

8. Facilities for education to be provided without racial discrimination or harassment.

It is unlawful, in relation to certain educational establishments, for a responsible body to discriminate<sup>1</sup> against a person: (1) in the terms on which it offers to admit him to the establishment as a pupil<sup>2</sup>; or (2) by refusing or deliberately omitting to accept an application for his admission to the establishment as a pupil<sup>3</sup>; or (3) where he is a pupil of the establishment, in the way it affords him access to any benefits, facilities or services, or by refusing or deliberately omitting to afford him access to them<sup>4</sup>, or by excluding him from the establishment or subjecting him to any other detriment<sup>5</sup>. Where the educational establishment is maintained by a local education authority<sup>6</sup>, the responsible body is the local education authority or governing body, according to which of them has the function in question<sup>7</sup>. The proprietor<sup>8</sup> is the responsible body in relation to independent schools<sup>9</sup> not being special schools<sup>10</sup>, and special schools not maintained by a local education authority<sup>11</sup>. The governing body is the responsible body for institutions within the further education sector<sup>12</sup>, universities<sup>13</sup>, institutions (other than universities) within the higher education sector<sup>14</sup>, and other establishments<sup>15</sup> providing full-time or part-time education, being designated<sup>16</sup> establishments<sup>17</sup>. It is unlawful also for any such responsible body in relation to any such specified educational establishment to subject to harassment either a pupil at the establishment or a person who applies for admission to the establishment as a pupil<sup>18</sup>.

It is unlawful for a local education authority, in carrying out such of its functions under the Education Acts<sup>19</sup> as do not fall under the above provisions<sup>20</sup>, to do any act which constitutes racial discrimination or harassment<sup>21</sup>. It is also unlawful for the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>22</sup>, the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>23</sup>, the Higher Education Funding Council for England or the Higher Education Funding Council for Wales<sup>24</sup> in carrying out their functions under the Education Acts and the Learning and Skills Act 2000 to do any act which constitutes racial discrimination or harassment<sup>25</sup>. It is similarly unlawful for the Training and Development Agency for Schools<sup>26</sup> in carrying out its functions under any enactment to do any act which constitutes racial discrimination or harassment<sup>27</sup>.

It is unlawful for a public authority in carrying out any of its functions to do any act which constitutes racial discrimination or, in the course of carrying out any of its functions which consist of the provision of any form of social advantage, to subject a person to harassment<sup>28</sup>.

Nothing in the provisions described above is to render unlawful any act done in affording persons of a particular racial group access to facilities or services to meet the special needs of persons of that group in regard to their education, training or welfare, or any ancillary benefits<sup>29</sup>.

Specified authorities, including educational bodies, are under a general statutory duty to have due regard to the need to eliminate unlawful racial discrimination and to promote equality of opportunity and good relations between persons of different racial groups<sup>30</sup>. Certain of those specified authorities<sup>31</sup> must publish a scheme (a 'race equality scheme') showing how it intends to fulfil this duty<sup>32</sup>. Specified governing bodies<sup>33</sup> must publish a written statement of their policy for promoting race equality (a 'race equality policy'), and have in place arrangements for assessing the impact of their policies, including the race equality policy, on pupils, students, staff and parents of different racial groups and for monitoring, by reference to those racial groups, the operation and effect of such policies<sup>34</sup>. Certain other specified educational bodies<sup>35</sup> must have in place arrangements for monitoring, by reference to the racial groups to which they belong, the numbers of staff from each such group at all educational establishments in respect of which they exercise their functions<sup>36</sup>.

Provision is also made for the enforcement of those duties<sup>4</sup>.

10-11 Facilities for education to be provided without disability discrimination ... Equality of opportunity

Certain functions under provisions mentioned in these paragraphs are 'relevant functions' for the purposes of the Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 4, Sch 3, see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 733.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(1) THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK/(iii) Rights and Freedoms/12. Freedom of speech.

12. Freedom of speech.

Every individual and body of persons concerned in the government of: (1) any university<sup>1</sup>; (2) any institution other than a university within the higher education sector<sup>2</sup>; (3) any establishment of higher or further education<sup>3</sup> which is maintained by a local education authority<sup>4</sup>; and (4) any institution within the further education sector<sup>5</sup>, must take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that freedom of speech within the law is secured for members, students and employees of the establishment and for visiting speakers<sup>6</sup>. Such a duty includes in particular the duty to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the use of any of the establishment's premises is not denied to any individual or body of persons on any ground connected with the beliefs or views of that individual or of any member of that body or that body's policy or objectives<sup>7</sup>.

With a view to facilitating the discharge of the duty to secure freedom of speech in relation to an establishment, its governing body<sup>8</sup> must issue and keep up to date a code of practice setting out:

- 15 (a) the procedures to be followed by members, students and employees of the establishment in connection with the organisation of meetings which are to be held on premises of the establishment and which fall within any class of meeting specified in the code, and other activities which are to take place on those premises and which fall within any class of activity so specified<sup>9</sup>; and
- 16 (b) the conduct required of such persons in connection with any such meeting or activity<sup>10</sup>, and dealing with such other matters as the governing body considers appropriate<sup>11</sup>. Every individual and body of persons concerned in the government of any such establishment must take such steps as are reasonably practicable, including where appropriate the initiation of disciplinary measures, to secure that the requirements of the establishment's code of practice are complied with<sup>12</sup>.

The governing body<sup>13</sup> of every establishment to which the statutory provisions relating both to students' unions<sup>14</sup> and to the freedom of speech in universities and colleges<sup>15</sup> apply<sup>16</sup> must, as regards any students' union for students at the establishment, bring to the attention of all students<sup>17</sup>, at least once a year, the statutory provisions relating to freedom of speech in universities and colleges and any code of practice issued thereunder, relevant to the activities or conduct of the union<sup>18</sup>.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(1) THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK/(iii) Rights and Freedoms/13. Pupils to be educated in accordance with parents' wishes.

13. Pupils to be educated in accordance with parents' wishes.

In exercising or performing all their respective powers and duties under the Education Acts<sup>1</sup>, the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> and local education authorities<sup>3</sup> must have regard to the general principle that pupils<sup>4</sup> are to be educated in accordance with the wishes of their parents<sup>5</sup>, so far as that is compatible with the provision of efficient instruction and training and the avoidance of unreasonable public expenditure<sup>6</sup>. Parents also have a right under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights<sup>7</sup> to choose the kind of education that is given to their children<sup>8</sup>.

Under the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms<sup>9</sup>, parents have a right to ensure any education and training is in conformity with their own religious and philosophical convictions<sup>10</sup>. The United Kingdom affirmed this principle only so far as it is compatible with the provision of efficient instruction and training, and the avoidance of unreasonable public expenditure<sup>11</sup>.

Further, parents may request that a pupil of a community, foundation or voluntary school<sup>12</sup> is wholly or partly excused from receiving religious education given in the school in accordance with the school's basic curriculum<sup>13</sup>, from attendance at religious worship in the school<sup>14</sup>, or both from receiving such education and from such attendance<sup>15</sup>. Special arrangements may also be made if a parent of a pupil desires him to receive religious education of a kind which is not provided in the school during the periods of time the pupil is so excused<sup>16</sup>.

If the parent of any pupil in attendance at a maintained school<sup>17</sup> requests that he may be wholly or partly excused from receiving sex education<sup>18</sup> at the school, the pupil must, except so far as such education is comprised in the National Curriculum<sup>19</sup>, be so excused accordingly until the request is withdrawn<sup>20</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'the Education Acts' see PARA 1 note 14 ante.

2 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 post. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 post.

3 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 post.

4 For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 post.

5 As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 post. In cases where there is a dispute between parents as to the choice of school and there is no parental agreement, the court should reach a decision: Re P (A Child) (Parental Dispute) [2002] EWCA Civ 1627, [2003] 1 FLR 286.

6 Education Act 1996 s 9 (amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 57, 61). For this purpose, 'public expenditure', on its true construction, refers not to the expenditure of the local authority as a whole, but is restricted to the expenditure of the local education authority: S v Somerset County Council [2002] EWHC 1808 (Admin), [2003] ELR 78 (social services costs of placement not to be taken into account). Expenditure relating to the education of a child which would arise regardless of where that child is educated is not relevant when considering the cost of educating a child in accordance with parental wishes: R (on the application of Oxfordshire County Council) v GB [2001] EWCA Civ 1358, [2002] LGR 279, [2002] ELR 8.

The principle that pupils are to be educated in accordance with parents' wishes is a general principle only and, while the relevant persons must have regard to the principle when exercising or performing their powers and duties, they are not precluded from taking account of other factors as well, and also may make exceptions to the general principle if they think fit to do so: Watt v Kesteven County Council [1955] 1 QB 408, [1955] 1 All ER 473, CA (where Denning LJ held at 424 and 476 that: 'It cannot therefore be said that a county council is at fault simply because it does not see fit to comply with the parent's wishes'). See also Darling v Ministry of Education, Jones v Ministry of Education (1962) Times, 7 April; Wood v Ealing London Borough Council [1967] Ch 364, [1966] 3 All ER 514; Cumings v Birkenhead Corp'n [1972] Ch 12, [1971] 2 All ER 881, CA; Harvey v Strathclyde Regional Council 1989 SLT 612, HL (decided under the equivalent provision in Scotland); R v Lambeth London Borough Council, ex p G [1994] ELR 207. These cases were mostly decided under the Education Act 1944 s 76 whose terms were very similar to the Education Act 1996 s 9 (as amended) which replaced it. The line of authority they represent has continuing effect despite the fact that they predate the substantial reforms introduced by the 1996 Act (as to which see PARA 1 ante): T v Special Educational Needs Tribunal and Wiltshire County Council [2002] EWHC 1474 (Admin) at 38, [2002] ELR 704 at 38 per Richards J, citing Watt v Kesteven County Council supra and Cumings v Birkenhead Corp'n supra.

The principle in the Education Act 1996 s 9 (as amended) may be a particular factor to be considered in conjunction with parental choice of special educational provision and school placement: see B v Harrow London Borough Council [2000] 1 All ER 876, [2000] 1 WLR 223, [2000] ELR 109, HL; S v Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council [2000] ELR 330; R v West Sussex County Council, ex p S [1999] ELR 40. ## (2) THE STATUTORY SYSTEM OF EDUCATION

14. The stages of education.

The statutory system of public education consists of three progressive stages: primary education<sup>1</sup>, secondary education<sup>2</sup> and further education<sup>3</sup>. Part I of the Education Act 1996<sup>4</sup> confers functions<sup>5</sup> on the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> and local education authorities<sup>7</sup> with respect to primary, secondary and further education<sup>8</sup>. Additional provision is made in respect of further education by Part I of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992<sup>9</sup>. Apart from the general duty of the Secretary of State to promote the education of the people of England and Wales<sup>10</sup>, nothing in the Education Act 1996 confers any functions with respect to higher education<sup>11</sup>. Part V of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>12</sup> makes separate provision in relation to nursery education<sup>13</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'primary education' see PARA 16 post.

However, the Education Act 2002 s 28A (as added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales) gives power to the governing body of a maintained school to provide higher education to pupils at the school: see PARA 229 post. For the meaning of 'higher education' see PARA 19 post. As to higher education see PARA 646 et seq post. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq post.

14 The stages of education

TEXT AND NOTES--See Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 (ss 1-67) (not yet in force) which places a duty on young people in England to participate in education or training until the age of 18 (or until attaining a level 3 qualification if earlier). See further PARA 1148A.

15. Compulsory education and meaning of 'compulsory school age'.

The parent<sup>1</sup> of every child<sup>2</sup> of compulsory school age must cause him to receive efficient full-time education suitable to his age, ability and aptitude, and to any special educational needs<sup>3</sup> he may have, either by regular attendance at school<sup>4</sup> or otherwise<sup>5</sup>.

A person begins to be of compulsory school age when he attains the age of five, if he attains that age on a prescribed day<sup>6</sup>, and otherwise at the beginning of the prescribed day next following his attaining that age<sup>7</sup>.

A person ceases to be of compulsory school age at the end of the day which is the school leaving date for any calendar year<sup>8</sup>: (1) if he attains the age of 16 after that day but before the beginning of the school year<sup>9</sup> next following<sup>10</sup>; (2) if he attains that age on that day<sup>11</sup>; or (3) (unless head (1) above applies) if that day is the school leaving date next following his attaining that age<sup>12</sup>.

6 The Secretary of State may by order provide that such days in the year as are specified in the order are, for each calendar year, prescribed days for the purposes of ibid s 8(2) (as substituted): s 8(4)(a) (s 8(4) substituted by the Education Act 1997 s 52(1), (3)). The prescribed days are 31 March, 31 August and 31 December: Education (Start of Compulsory School Age) Order 1998, SI 1998/1607, art 2.

Any power of the Secretary of State to make orders under the Education Act 1996, other than an order under s 349 (see PARAS 956, 1028-1031 post), s 489(3) (see PARA 74 post), s 497 (as amended) (see PARA 58 post), s 545 (as amended) (see PARA 1412 post), must be exercised by statutory instrument: s 568(1), (2) (s 568(2) substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 para 175(a); and amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3). A statutory instrument containing any order made by the Secretary of State under the Education Act 1996, other than an order under s 554 (as amended) (see PARA 1435 post), s 583(3), (4) (power to make commencement orders for certain provisions; and power to make incidental, supplemental, saving or transitional provision), or Sch 40 (repealed), is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 568(3) (amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), (3), Sch 30 para 175(b); and the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3). Any order made by the Secretary of State under the Education Act 1996 by statutory instrument may make different provision for different cases, circumstances or areas and may contain such incidental, supplemental, saving or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State thinks fit (s 568(5) (amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), (3), Sch 30 para 175(c), Sch 31)); and, without prejudice to the generality of the Education Act 1996 s 568(5) (as amended), an order made by the Secretary of State under the Education Act 1996 by statutory instrument may make in relation to Wales provision different from that made in relation to England (s 568(6)). Where the power to make or give any such order or directions is only exercisable: (1) on the application or with the consent of any person or body of persons; or (2) after consultation with any person or body of persons; or (3) subject to any other conditions, no order or directions made or given under that power may be varied or revoked under the Education Act 1996 s 570(2) (as amended) unless the same conditions are complied with: s 570(3).

This has effect subject to s 445(3), which provides that where a court is obliged by virtue of s 445(2) (see PARA 524 post) to presume a child to have been of compulsory school age s 565(1) does not apply: see ss 445(3), 565(2).

TEXT AND NOTES--See Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 1 (ss 1-67) (not yet in force) which places a duty on young people in England to participate in education or training until the age of 18 (or until attaining a level 3 qualification if earlier). See further PARA 1148A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(2) THE STATUTORY SYSTEM OF EDUCATION/16. Meaning of 'primary education'.

16. Meaning of 'primary education'.

'Primary education' means: (1) full-time or part-time education<sup>1</sup> suitable to the requirements of children<sup>2</sup> who have attained the age of two but are under compulsory school age<sup>3</sup>; (2) full-time education suitable to the requirements of junior pupils<sup>4</sup> of compulsory school age who have not attained the age of 10 years and six months<sup>5</sup>; and (3) full-time education suitable to the requirements of junior pupils who have attained that age and whom it is expedient to educate together with junior pupils within head (2) above<sup>6</sup>.

1 References to education in the Education Act 1996 s 2 (as amended) (see the text and notes 2-5 infra; and PARAS 17-18 post) do not include references to higher education: s 2(7). For the meaning of 'higher education' see PARA 19 post.

2 For these purposes, 'child' means a person who is not over compulsory school age: ibid s 579(1). As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

3 Ibid s 2(1)(a) (s 2(1) substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 156(2)).

4 'Junior pupil' means a child who has not attained the age of 12: Education Act 1996 s 3(2). 'Pupil' means a person for whom education is being provided at a school, other than:

1 (1) a person who has attained the age of 19 for whom further education is being provided; or

2 (2) a person for whom part-time education suitable to the requirements of persons of any age over compulsory school age is being provided, and references to pupils in the context of the admission of pupils to, or the exclusion of pupils from, a school are references to persons who following their admission will be, or, as the case may be, before their exclusion were, pupils as defined by this provision: s 3(1) (amended by the Education Act 1997 s 57(1), Sch 7 para 9). However, a person is not for the purposes of the Education Act 1996 to be treated as a pupil at a school merely because any education is provided for him at the school in the exercise of the powers conferred by the Education Act 2002 s 27 (power of governing body of maintained school to provide community facilities etc: see PARA 232 post); Education Act 1996 s 3(1A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 34(1), (2)). The Education Act 1996 s 3(1) (as amended), s 3(1A) (as added) also apply, unless the context otherwise requires, for the purposes of any instrument made or having effect as if made under the Education Acts: Education Act 1996 s 3(3) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 21 para 34(1), (3)). Any child for whom education is provided otherwise than at school in pursuance of the Education Act 1996 s 19 (as amended) (exceptional provision of education in pupil referral units or elsewhere: see PARA 457 post) and any young person for whom full-time education is so provided in pursuance of s 19 (as amended), is to be treated for the purposes of the Education Act 1996 as a pupil: s 19(5). For the meaning of 'further education' see PARA 18 post; for the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 post; for the meaning of 'the Education Acts' see PARA 1 note 14 ante; and for the meaning of 'young person' see PARA 38 note 4 post.

17. Meaning of 'secondary education'.

'Secondary education' means: (1) full-time education<sup>1</sup> suitable to the requirements of pupils<sup>2</sup> of compulsory school age<sup>3</sup> who are either senior pupils<sup>4</sup>, or junior pupils<sup>5</sup> who have attained the age of 10 years and six months and whom it is expedient to educate together with senior pupils of compulsory school age<sup>6</sup>; and (2) full-time education suitable to the requirements of pupils who are over compulsory school age but under the age of 19 which is provided at a school<sup>7</sup> at which education within head (1) above is also provided<sup>8</sup>.

Education is also secondary education for the purposes of the Education Act 1996<sup>9</sup> if it is provided by an institution which: (a) is maintained by a local education authority or is an academy<sup>10</sup>; and (b) is principally concerned with the provision of full-time education suitable to the requirements of pupils who are over compulsory school age but under the age of 19<sup>11</sup>.

Where: (i) a person is in full-time education<sup>12</sup>; (ii) he receives his education partly at a school and, by virtue of arrangements made by the school, partly at another institution or any other establishment<sup>13</sup>; and (iii) the education which he receives at the school would be secondary education if it was full-time education at the school, the person's education<sup>14</sup>, both at the school and at the other institution or establishment, is secondary education for the purposes of the Education Act 1996<sup>15</sup>.

1 In the context of the definition of 'secondary education', references in the Education Act 1996 s 2 (as amended) (see the text and notes 2-12 infra; and PARAS 16 ante, 18 post) to education include vocational, social, physical and recreational training (s 2(6A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 177(1), (3))) but do not include references to higher education (Education Act 1996 s 2(7)). For the meaning of 'higher education' see PARA 19 post.

2 For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante.

3 As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

4 For these purposes, 'senior pupil' means a person who has attained the age of 12 but not the age of 19: Education Act 1996 s 3(2).

5 For the meaning of 'junior pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante.

6 Education Act 1996 s 2(2)(a).

7 For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 post.

8 Education Act 1996 s 2(2)(b). For the purposes of the Education Act 1996, education provided for persons who have attained the age of 19 is further education not secondary education; but where a person: (1) has begun a particular course of secondary education before attaining the age of 18; and (2) continues to attend that course, the education does not cease to be secondary education by reason of his having attained the age of 19: s 2(5).

9 Ie subject to ibid s 2(5): see note 8 supra.

10 Ibid s 2(2A)(a) (added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 110(1); and amended by the Education Act 2002 s 65(3), Sch 7 Pt 2 para 6(1), (2)). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 post; and as to academies see PARA 496 et seq post.

12 Education Act 1996 s 2(2B)(a) (s 2(2B) added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 110(1)). The Education Act 1996 s 2(2B) (as added) is subject to s 2(5); see note 8 supra. The Education Acts have effect in their application to persons receiving secondary education within s 2(2B) (as added) with such modifications as may be specified in an order under the Education Act 2002 s 177(4); s 177(4). The power to make such an order is exercisable: (1) in relation to England, by the Secretary of State; and (2) in relation to Wales, by the National Assembly for Wales: s 177(5). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such order had been made. For the meaning of 'the Education Acts' see PARA 1 note 14 ante. As to the meaning of 'modifications' see PARA 43 note 7 post; definition applied by virtue of s 212(2), (3). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 post; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 post. Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(2) THE STATUTORY SYSTEM OF EDUCATION/18. Meaning of 'further education'.

18. Meaning of 'further education'.

'Further education' means<sup>1</sup>: (1) full-time and part-time education<sup>2</sup> suitable to the requirements of persons who are over compulsory school age<sup>3</sup>; and (2) organised leisure-time occupation<sup>4</sup> provided in connection with the provision of such education<sup>5</sup>. However, it does not include secondary education<sup>6</sup> or<sup>7</sup> higher education<sup>8</sup>.

1    Ie subject to the Education Act 1996 s 2(5): see PARA 17 note 8 ante.

2    In the context of the definition of 'further education', references in ibid s 2 (as amended) (see the text and notes 3-8 infra; and PARAS 16-17 ante) to education include vocational, social, physical and recreational training (s 2(6A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 177(1), (3))) but do not include references to higher education (Education Act 1996 s 2(7)). For the meaning of 'higher education' see PARA 19 post.

3    Ibid s 2(3)(a) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3). See also note 1 supra. As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

4    For this purpose, 'organised leisure-time occupation' means leisure-time occupation, in such organised cultural training and recreative activities as are suited to their requirements, for any persons over compulsory school age who are able and willing to profit by facilities provided for that purpose: Education Act 1996 s 2(6).

5    Ibid s 2(3)(b). See also note 1 supra.

6    For the meaning of 'secondary education' see PARA 17 ante.

7    Ie in accordance with the Education Act 1996 s 2(7): see note 2 supra.

8    Ibid s 2(3). See also note 1 supra. Accordingly, unless it is education within s 2(2)(b) or s 2(2A) (as added) (see PARA 17 ante), full-time education suitable to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age who have not attained the age of 19 is further education for the purposes of the Education Act 1996 and not secondary education: s 2(4) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 33).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(2) THE STATUTORY SYSTEM OF EDUCATION/19. Higher education.

1 Education Reform Act 1988 s 120, s 235(1), Sch 6 (s 120 amended by the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 93, Sch 8 Pt I para 30, Sch 9; and the Education Act 1996 s 582(2), Sch 38 Pt I); Education Act 1996 s 579(1). The Secretary of State may by order amend the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 6, which contains the list of courses of higher education: s 120(10). Any power of the Secretary of State to make orders or regulations under the Education Reform Act 1988 must be exercised by statutory instrument: s 232(1). A statutory instrument containing any order or regulations made by the Secretary of State under that Act is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 232(4). Orders or regulations under that Act may make different provision for different cases or circumstances and may contain such incidental, supplemental or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State thinks fit: s 232(5). Without prejudice to s 232(5), orders under that Act, and regulations under any provision of that Act, may make in relation to Wales provision different from that made in relation to England: s 232(6) (amended by the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 s 44(1), (2), Sch 3 para 4, Sch 4). As to the power to make incidental, consequential, transitional and supplementary provisions see the Education Reform Act 1988 s 231. 8 Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 6 para 1(g); Education Act 1996 s 579(1). For these purposes, a professional examination is at higher level if its standard is higher than the standard of examinations at advanced level for the General Certificate of Education or the examination for the National Certificate or the National Diploma of the Business and Technician Education Council: Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 6 para 2.

9 Ibid Sch 6 para 1(h); Education Act 1996 s 579(1). For these purposes, a course is to be regarded as providing education at a higher level if its standard is higher than the standard of courses providing education in preparation for any of the examinations mentioned in the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 6 para 2 (see note 8 supra): Sch 6 para 3.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities/A. PROVISION OF EDUCATION/20. Local education authorities.

(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES

(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities

A. PROVISION OF EDUCATION

20. Local education authorities.

The local education authority<sup>1</sup> (often referred to as the 'LEA') for a county in England<sup>2</sup> having a county council is the county council<sup>3</sup>. The local education authority for a district in England which is not in a county having a county council is the district council<sup>4</sup>. The local education authority for a London borough is the borough council<sup>5</sup>. The local education authority for the City of London<sup>6</sup> is the Common Council of the City of London (in its capacity as a local authority)<sup>7</sup>. As respects Wales, the local education authority for a county is the county council, and the local education authority for a county borough is the county borough council<sup>8</sup>.

The Inner London Education Authority (the 'ILEA') was established by the Local Government Act 1985<sup>9</sup> as the local education authority for the Inner London Education Area. On 1 April 1990, the ILEA, any education committee established by the ILEA and the Inner London Education Area ceased to exist<sup>10</sup>. On that abolition date each inner London council<sup>11</sup> became the local education authority for its area, and references to a local education authority in the Education Act 1996 or in any other enactment are to be construed accordingly<sup>12</sup>.

1 The definition of 'local education authority' in the Education Act 1996 applies for the purposes of the National Health Service Act 1977, the Education (Fees and Awards) Act 1983, the Further Education Act 1985, the Education (No 2) Act 1986, the Education Reform Act 1988, the Children Act 1989, the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales), the School Inspections Act 1996 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales), the Education Act 1997, the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, the Adoption and Children Act 2002 ss 4, 8, the Education Act 2002, the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003 ss 19-21 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales), and the Education Act 2005: see the National Health Service Act 1977 s 128(1) (definition amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 para 45); the Education (Fees and Awards) Act 1983 s 1(4) (amended by the Education Reform Act 1988 s 237, Sch 12 Part III para 91; and the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 57); the Further Education Act 1985 s 8(3) (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 61); the Education (No 2) Act 1986 s 67(3) (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 66(3), (4)); the Education Reform Act 1988 s 235(7) (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 81(4)); the Children Act 1989 s 105(1) (definition substituted by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 91); the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 90(5) (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 115(3)); the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 s 11(2) (substituted by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 Pt I para 132) (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales); the School Inspections Act 1996 s 46(4) (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales); the Education Act 1997 s 56(2); the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8); the Adoption and Children Act 2002 ss 4(9), 8(2)(c); the Education Act 2002 s 212(2), (3); the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003 s 24; and the Education Act 2005 s 122(2), (3).

2 For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 post.

3 Education Act 1996 s 12(1). Any reference in the Education Act 1996 to the area of a local education authority is to be construed in accordance with the provisions of s 12(1)-(5) (see the text and notes 4-8 infra): s 12(6). As to areas and authorities in England see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 22 et seq. For the purposes of the Education Act 1996, a person is treated as belonging, or as not belonging, to the area of a particular local education authority in accordance with regulations; and any question under the regulations, in the case of a dispute, is to be determined by the Secretary of State: s 579(4). The power for regulations to make different provision in relation to Wales from that made in relation to England does not apply to regulations made under s 579(4): see s 569(5), (6); and PARA 40 note 5 post. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 579(4) but, by virtue of s 582(3), Sch 39 Pt I para 1, the Education (Areas to which Pupils and Students Belong) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/615 (amended by SI 1997/597) have effect as if so made. For the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 post.

Where, in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, reference is made to a school maintained, or proposed to be maintained, by a local education authority, 'the local education authority' means that authority (s 22(8)(a)); and, in the Education Act 2002, 'the local education authority', in relation to a school maintained, or proposed to be maintained, by a local education authority, means that authority (s 212(1)).

6 For the purposes of the Education Act 1996, the City of London is to be treated as including the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple: s 12(4). As to the City of London, and as to the Temples, see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 31-32.

7 Ibid s 12(4). As to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 51-55. For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 50 note 1 post.

9 See the Local Government Act 1985 Pt III (ss 18-22) (repealed).

10 See the Education Reform Act 1988 s 162 (repealed).

11 For these purposes, 'inner London council' means the council of an inner London borough or, in its capacity as a local authority, the Common Council of the City of London: ibid s 163(2). As to inner London boroughs see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 30.

Such a duty does not extend to matters in respect of which any duty is imposed on the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>5</sup>, the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>6</sup> or the Higher Education Funding Councils established under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992<sup>7</sup>.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities/A. PROVISION OF EDUCATION/23. Consultation with pupils.

23. Consultation with pupils.

It is the duty of a local education authority<sup>1</sup>, in the exercise of any of its schools functions<sup>2</sup>, to have regard to any guidance given from time to time, in relation to England<sup>3</sup>, by the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> or, in relation to Wales<sup>5</sup>, by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>6</sup>, about consultation with pupils<sup>7</sup> in connection with the taking of decisions affecting them<sup>8</sup>. Any such guidance must provide for a pupil's views to be considered in the light of his age and understanding<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

2 Education Act 2002 s 176(1)(a). For this purpose, 'schools functions', in relation to a local education authority, means functions relating to: (1) maintained schools; (2) pupil referral units; or (3) the provision of education for children of compulsory school age otherwise than at school: s 176(3). 'Maintained school' means a community, foundation or voluntary school or a community or foundation special school: s 176(3). As to community, foundation and voluntary schools and community and foundation special schools see PARA 102 post; and as to pupil referral units see PARAS 457-464 post. For the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 212(2), (3). INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities/A. PROVISION OF EDUCATION/24. Provision of nursery education.

24. Provision of nursery education.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may: (1) establish nursery schools<sup>2</sup>; (2) maintain nursery schools established by it or by an authority which was a local education authority<sup>3</sup>; and (3) assist<sup>4</sup> any nursery school not so established<sup>5</sup>.

A local education authority must secure that the provision of nursery education<sup>6</sup>, whether or not by it, for children who have not attained compulsory school age but have attained such age as may be prescribed<sup>7</sup>, is sufficient for its area<sup>8</sup>.

Every local education authority must establish for its area a body known as an early years development and childcare partnership to work with the authority in reviewing the sufficiency of the provision of nursery education for the authority's area and preparing early years development and childcare plans<sup>9</sup>. In relation to Wales<sup>10</sup>, such plans must include a statement of the authority's proposals for complying with its duty to provide sufficient nursery education<sup>11</sup>, and the plans are subject to approval, modification and review<sup>12</sup>.

A local education authority may also assist with travel arrangements for children receiving nursery education otherwise than at school<sup>18</sup>.

5 Education Act 1996 s 17(1)(c). Section 14(4) (as amended) (local education authority not under any duty to provide sufficient schools in respect of children under compulsory school age: see PARA 26 post) does not affect a local education authority's power under s 16(1) (prospectively amended) (see PARA 32 post) to establish, maintain and assist schools at which education is provided both for children under compulsory school age and for older pupils (including schools at which there are nursery classes for children under compulsory school age: s 17(2) (amended by the Education Act 1997 s 57(1), Sch 7 para 13). For the meaning of 'child' see PARA 16 note 2 ante. For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante. As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

As from a day to be appointed, the Education Act 1996 s 17(2) (as amended) is further amended so that the reference to the local education authority's power to establish, maintain and assist schools is substituted by a reference to the local education authority's power to establish and maintain schools: s 17(2) (as so amended; and prospectively amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 57, 65). ## 25. Functions in respect of provision of childcare.

- 25 (1) may have regard to any facilities which it expects to be available outside its area for providing childcare<sup>3</sup>; and
- 26 (2) must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup>.

A local education authority must also establish and maintain a service providing information to the public relating to the provision of childcare and related services in its area<sup>5</sup>; and in relation to the function, form and content of a service so established and maintained, a local education authority must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup>.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities/A. PROVISION OF EDUCATION/26. Functions in respect of provision of primary and secondary schools.

26. Functions in respect of provision of primary and secondary schools.

- 27 (1) primary education<sup>3</sup>; and
- 28 (2) education that is secondary education<sup>4</sup>, are available for its area<sup>5</sup>. The schools available for an area are not to be regarded as sufficient for such purposes unless they are sufficient in number, character and equipment to provide for all pupils<sup>6</sup> the opportunity of appropriate education<sup>7</sup>.

A local education authority for an area in Wales<sup>8</sup> may secure that regional schools<sup>9</sup> for providing primary education, and education that is secondary education<sup>10</sup>, are available for Wales or any part of Wales that includes the area of the authority<sup>11</sup>.

In exercising these functions<sup>12</sup>, a local education authority must in particular have regard to:

- 29 (a) the need for securing that primary and secondary education are provided in separate schools<sup>13</sup>;
- 30 (b) the need for securing that special educational provision<sup>14</sup> is made for pupils who have special educational needs<sup>15</sup>; and
- 31 (c) the expediency of securing the provision of boarding accommodation, in boarding schools or otherwise, for pupils for whom education as boarders<sup>16</sup> is considered by their parents<sup>17</sup> and the authority to be desirable<sup>18</sup>.

The duty imposed by head (a) above does not apply in relation to middle schools<sup>19</sup> or special schools<sup>20</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 post.

3 Education Act 1996 s 14(1)(a). For the meaning of 'primary education' see PARA 16 ante. A local education authority is not, by virtue of s 14(1)(a), under any duty in respect of children under compulsory school age: s 14(4) (amended by the Education Act 1997 s 57(1), Sch 7 para 12). For the meaning of 'child' see PARA 16 note 2 ante. As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

4 Education Act 1996 s 14(1)(b). The reference in the text to secondary education is a reference to education that is secondary education by virtue of s 2(2)(a): see PARA 17 ante. For the meaning of 'secondary education' see PARA 17 ante.

5 Ibid s 14(1). The case law associated with the local education authority's duty to ensure the provision of sufficient schools (see also note 7 infra) has been decided under the Education Act 1944 s 8, whose terms were very similar to the Education Act 1996 s 14 (as amended) which replaced it.

The duty to secure the provision of sufficient schools is a target duty rather than an absolute duty and does not give an individual a cause of action, although a complaint of non-performance may be pursued via the Secretary of State's default powers (see PARA 58 post): R v Inner London Education Authority, ex p Ali (1990) 2 Admin LR 822, 154 LG Rev 852. See also Watt v Kesteven County Council [1955] 1 QB 408, [1955] 1 All ER 473, CA; Bradbury v Enfield London Borough Council [1967] 3 All ER 434, [1967] 1 WLR 1311, CA; Meade v Haringey

London Borough Council [1979] 2 All ER 1016, [1979] 1 WLR 637, CA. Local education authorities have a broad discretion as to the manner of performance of the duty (Secretary of State for Education and Science v Tameside Metropolitan Borough Council [1977] AC 1014, [1976] 3 All ER 665, HL) and they may have regard to financial constraints (see R v Hereford and Worcester Local Education Authority, ex p Jones [1981] 1 WLR 768, 79 LGR 490). As to discretion generally see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARA 692.

When acting in furtherance of its duty, a local authority may not differentiate between applicants living inside and those living outside the area of the authority: R v Bromley London Borough Council, ex p C [1992] 1 FLR 174, 156 LG Rev 282; and see PARA 396 post. In the performance of its duty, the local education authority must act in a way that does not bring it into conflict with the Sex Discrimination Act 1975 s 23 (as amended), which makes it unlawful for an authority in carrying out such of its functions as do not fall under s 22 (as amended) (see PARA 6 ante) to do any act which constitutes sex discrimination: see Birmingham City Council v Equal Opportunities Commission [1989] AC 1155, sub nom Equal Opportunities Commission v Birmingham City Council [1989] 1 All ER 769, HL (where, in aggregate, fewer single sex places for girls were available in the area than there were equivalent places for boys); R v Secretary of State for Education and Science, ex p Keating (1985) 84 LGR 469 (where a local education authority proposed to close the only single sex school for boys in its area while continuing to maintain two single sex schools for girls); R v Secretary of State for Education and Science, ex p Malik [1992] COD 31; R v Northamptonshire County Council and Secretary of State for Education, ex p K [1994] ELR 397, CA (where a local education authority proposed to close a single sex school for boys which was no longer viable, while maintaining a single sex school for girls). As to discrimination see PARAS 6-8 ante; and as to the principle of non-discrimination in the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969), which is given effect in the United Kingdom by the Human Rights Act 1998, see PARA 3 ante; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 164.

26 Functions in respect of provision of primary and secondary schools

TEXT AND NOTES 1-7--A local education authority in England must exercise its functions under the 1996 Act s 14 with a view to securing diversity in the provision of schools and increasing opportunities for parental choice: s 14(3A) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 2). Where such a local education authority receives any representation from a parent as to the authority's exercise of its functions under the 1996 Act s 14, the authority must consider the representation and what action, if any, to take in response to it and, within a reasonable time, provide the parent with a statement setting out any action which it proposes to take in response to the representation or, where the authority is of the opinion that no such action is necessary, its reasons for being of that opinion: see s 14A (added by the 2006 Act s 3).

NOTE 5--See R (on the application of O) v Hackney LBC [2006] EWHC 3405 (Admin), [2007] ELR 405 (local authority found to have complied with duty of providing schooling for special educational needs pupil, even though offers of schools were rejected).

27. Functions in respect of full-time education for 16 to 18-year-olds.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may secure the provision for its area of full-time or part-time education suitable to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age<sup>2</sup> who have not attained the age of 19, including provision for persons from other areas<sup>3</sup>. Such a power includes the power to secure the provision of: (1) training, including vocational, social, physical and recreational training<sup>4</sup>; and (2) organised leisure-time occupation<sup>5</sup> which is provided in connection with the provision of education or of training within head (1) above<sup>6</sup>.

In exercising these functions<sup>7</sup> in respect of secondary education<sup>8</sup>, a local education authority must in particular have regard to:

- 32 (a) the need for securing that primary and secondary education<sup>9</sup> are provided in separate schools<sup>10</sup>;
- 33 (b) the need for securing that special educational provision<sup>11</sup> is made for pupils<sup>12</sup> who have special educational needs<sup>13</sup>; and
- 34 (c) the expediency of securing the provision of boarding accommodation, in boarding schools or otherwise, for pupils for whom education as boarders<sup>14</sup> is considered by their parents<sup>15</sup> and the authority to be desirable<sup>16</sup>.

The YPLA must issue guidance to local education authorities about the performance of their duties to secure that all young people in their area over compulsory school age but under 19, and certain other persons, have access to enough suitable education and training provision: s 72. The YPLA must also prepare and consult on a statement which sets out its policy on its powers of intervention: s 73. The Secretary of State may confer supplementary functions on the YPLA (s 74) and give it directions concerning its functions, objectives and management (s 75). The YPLA must have regard to any guidance provided to it by the Secretary of State in performing its functions: s 76. The Secretary of State may also require the YPLA to enter into arrangements with the Secretary of State under which the YPLA may be required to carry out specified functions of the Secretary of State relating to academies, city technology colleges and city colleges for the technology of the arts: s 77. The Secretary of State may pay grants to the YPLA for the purposes of academy arrangements functions (s 78), and provision is made for information sharing in relation to academy arrangements (s 79) and for education and training purposes (s 122).

34A. School improvement partners.

A local education authority in England must appoint, in relation to each maintained school<sup>1</sup> which they maintain<sup>2</sup>, a person (to be known as a school improvement partner) to provide advice to the governing body and head teacher of the school with a view to improving standards at the school<sup>3</sup>. The Secretary of State may make regulations prescribing other requirements to be met by local education authorities in connection with the appointment of school improvement partners<sup>4</sup>.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities/B. INFORMATION, PLANS AND PROPOSALS/42. Preparation of education development plans in Wales.

42. Preparation of education development plans in Wales.

Every local education authority in Wales<sup>1</sup> must prepare an education development plan for its area, and must prepare further such plans at such intervals as may be determined by or in accordance with regulations<sup>2</sup>. An education development plan must consist of:

- 42 (1) a statement of proposals, which sets out proposals by the authority for developing its provision of education for children<sup>3</sup> in its area, whether by: (a) raising the standards of education provided for such children (whether at schools maintained by the authority or otherwise than at school)<sup>4</sup>; or (b) improving the performance of such schools, or otherwise<sup>5</sup>; and
- 43 (2) annexes to that statement<sup>6</sup>.

The statement of proposals must deal with such matters, and relate to such period, as may be determined by or in accordance with regulations, and be approved<sup>7</sup> by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>8</sup>. The annexes to the statement must contain such material as may be prescribed<sup>9</sup>, and may contain such other material as the authority considers relevant to its proposals as set out in the statement<sup>10</sup>.

In preparing an education development plan the authority must have regard, in particular, to the education of children who have special educational needs<sup>11</sup>.

In the course of preparing an education development plan the authority must consult:

- 44 (i) the governing body<sup>12</sup> and head teacher<sup>13</sup> of every school maintained by the authority<sup>14</sup>;
- 45 (ii) the appropriate diocesan authority<sup>15</sup> for any foundation or voluntary school<sup>16</sup> in its area which is a Church of England, Church in Wales or Roman Catholic Church school<sup>17</sup>; and
- 46 (iii) such other persons as it considers appropriate<sup>18</sup>.

In performing these functions<sup>19</sup> the authority must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>20</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. For the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 post.

2 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 6(1). The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 6 is repealed by the Children Act 2004 s 64, Sch 5 Pt 1 as from a day to be appointed under Sch 5 Pt 1. In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 March 2005 (see the Children Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) Order 2005, SI 2005/394, art 2(1)(l)); but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. 13 As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 post; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

14 Ibid s 6(7)(a) (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see note 2 supra).

15 'Church of England school' means a foundation or voluntary school in the Province of Canterbury or York in relation to which the religion or religious denomination specified under ibid s 69(4) (see PARA 951 post) is 'Church of England'; and 'appropriate diocesan authority', in relation to such a school, means the diocesan board of education for the diocese of the Church of England in which the school is situated: s 142(1) (definition amended by the Independent Schools (Employment of Teachers in Schools with a Religious Character) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2037, regs 2, 4(1), (2)). As to diocesan boards of education see ECCLESIASTICAL LAW.

'Church in Wales school' means a foundation or voluntary school in the Province of Wales in relation to which the religion or religious denomination specified under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 69(4) (see PARA 951 post) is 'Church in Wales'; and 'appropriate diocesan authority', in relation to such a school, means the diocesan board of finance for the diocese of the Church in Wales in which the school is situated or such other person as the National Assembly for Wales may by order designate in respect of that diocese: s 142(1) (definition amended by the Independent Schools (Employment of Teachers in Schools with a Religious Character) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2037, regs 2, 4(1), (2)). Such orders are not made by statutory instrument: see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 138(2) (as amended); and PARA 82 note 15 post. Before making an order in respect of any diocese in Wales in exercise of the power conferred by the definition of 'appropriate diocesan authority', the National Assembly for Wales must consult the bishop for the diocese: s 142(2). As to diocesan boards of finance see ECCLESIASTICAL LAW vol 14 paras 517-518.

'Roman Catholic Church school' means a foundation or voluntary school in relation to which the religion or religious denomination specified under s 69(4) is 'Roman Catholic'; and 'appropriate diocesan authority', in relation to such a school, means the bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese in which the school is situated: s 142(1) (definition amended by the Independent Schools (Employment of Teachers in Schools with a Religious Character) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2037, regs 2, 4(1), (2)).

Any reference in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 to the religion or religious denomination specified in relation to a school under s 69(4) or s 124B(2) (as added) (see PARA 473 post) is to be construed, in a case where more than one religion or religious denomination is so specified, as including a reference to any of those religions or religious denominations: s 142(3) (amended by the Independent Schools (Employment of Teachers in Schools with a Religious Character) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2037, regs 2, 4(1), (3)). As a result of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(3) (as amended), s 142(1) has the effect that a school may, for example, be both a Church of England school and a Roman Catholic Church school and so have a different appropriate diocesan authority in each of those capacities: s 142(4). In the case of a school with two appropriate diocesan authorities, any reference in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 to 'the appropriate diocesan authority' is:

- 5 (1) in relation to anything required to be done by or in relation to that authority, a reference to both of the authorities concerned (s 142(4)(a)); or
- 6 (2) in relation to anything authorised to be done by or in relation to that authority, a reference to either or both of the authorities concerned (or, in the context of s 16(6) (as amended) (see PARA 1268 post) or s 16(8) (as amended) (see PARA 1268 post), to both of them acting together) (s 142(4)(b)).

16 As to foundation and voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq post.

17 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 6(7)(b) (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see note 2 supra).

18 Ibid s 6(7)(c) (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see note 2 supra).

19 Ie under ibid s 6 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see note 2 supra). As to the meaning of 'functions' see PARA 14 note 5 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

20 Ibid s 6(9) (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see note 2 supra). The preparation of education development plans, so far as they relate to schools maintained by the authority, is subject to the code of practice issued under s 127: see PARA 99 post.

NOTE 8--SI 2002/1187 (as amended) repealed: SI 2006/877.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities/B. INFORMATION, PLANS AND PROPOSALS/43. Approval, modification and review of statement of proposals in Wales.

43. Approval, modification and review of statement of proposals in Wales.

Where a local education authority in Wales<sup>1</sup> has prepared an education development plan<sup>2</sup>, it must, by such date as may be determined by or in accordance with regulations<sup>3</sup>, submit the plan to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>4</sup> for it to approve the authority's statement of proposals<sup>5</sup>. The National Assembly for Wales may in the case of any statement so submitted to it:

- 47 (1) approve the statement in any of the following ways, namely, wholly or in part, for a limited period of time, or subject to conditions<sup>6</sup>;
- 48 (2) require the authority to make such modifications<sup>7</sup> to the statement as it may specify<sup>8</sup>; or
- 49 (3) reject the statement<sup>9</sup>.

If the National Assembly for Wales approves the statement it must notify the authority of its decision, and the authority must implement the proposals set out in the statement, so far as approved by the National Assembly for Wales, as from such date as it may determine<sup>10</sup>. If the National Assembly for Wales requires the authority to make modifications or rejects the statement, it must notify the authority of its decision and of its reasons for it, and the authority must prepare a revised statement<sup>11</sup> and submit it to the National Assembly for Wales for its approval by such date as it may determine<sup>12</sup>.

Once the National Assembly for Wales has approved an authority's statement of proposals it must keep under review the authority's proposals, as approved by it, and their implementation by the authority<sup>13</sup> and: (a) where it is of the opinion that the statement ought to be modified, or further modified, it may withdraw its approval and require the authority to make such modifications to the statement as it may specify<sup>14</sup>; and (b) where it is of the opinion that the authority's proposals are not being properly implemented, it may withdraw its approval for such period as it thinks fit<sup>15</sup>.

If the National Assembly for Wales does so withdraw its approval of a statement of proposals, it must notify the authority of its decision and of its reasons for it, and in a case falling within head (a) above, the authority must prepare a revised statement<sup>16</sup> and submit it to the National Assembly for Wales for its approval by such date as it may determine<sup>17</sup>.

At any time after the National Assembly for Wales has approved an authority's statement of proposals<sup>18</sup>:

- 50 (i) the authority may submit modifications to the statement to the National Assembly for Wales for its approval<sup>19</sup>;
- 51 (ii) the National Assembly for Wales may approve the modifications, whether in whole or in part, for a limited period of time, or subject to conditions<sup>20</sup>; and
- 52 (iii) if and to the extent that the National Assembly for Wales approves those modifications, it must notify the authority of its decision; and the statement has effect with the modifications, and the authority must implement its proposals as modified, as from such date as the National Assembly for Wales may determine<sup>21</sup>.

Once the National Assembly for Wales has approved an authority's statement of proposals<sup>22</sup> or the modification of an authority's statement of proposals<sup>23</sup>, the authority must publish its education development plan (or its plan as so modified) in such manner and by such date as may be prescribed<sup>24</sup>, and must provide such persons as may be prescribed with copies of that plan or of a summary version of that plan<sup>25</sup>.

C. GRANTS AND ALLOWANCES

45. Assistance by local education authorities.

For the purposes of the Education Act 1996, a school<sup>1</sup> is to be regarded as 'assisted' by a local education authority<sup>2</sup> which does not maintain it if the authority makes to its proprietor any grant in respect of the school or any payment in consideration of the provision of educational facilities there<sup>3</sup>.

An institution other than a school is to be regarded for the purposes of the Education Act 1996 as 'assisted' by a local education authority if the authority makes to the persons responsible for its maintenance any grant in respect of the institution or any payment in consideration of the provision of educational facilities there<sup>4</sup>. However, neither a university, nor any institution within the further education sector<sup>5</sup> or within the higher education sector<sup>6</sup> other than a university, is to be regarded for the purposes of the Education Act 1996 as 'assisted' by a local education authority by virtue of the making by the authority to the persons responsible for the maintenance of the university or institution of any grant in respect of the institution or payment in consideration of the provision of educational facilities there<sup>7</sup>.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities/C. GRANTS AND ALLOWANCES/46. Travelling and subsistence allowances for governors of schools and further or higher education institutions.

46. Travelling and subsistence allowances for governors of schools and further or higher education institutions.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may, in accordance with the provisions of a scheme made by it for these purposes, pay such allowances as may be prescribed<sup>2</sup> to governors of any community, foundation or voluntary school or community or foundation special school<sup>3</sup> which does not have a delegated budget<sup>4</sup> and any institution providing higher education<sup>5</sup> or further education<sup>6</sup>, or both, which is maintained by a local education authority<sup>7</sup>. Such a scheme may make different provision in relation to schools<sup>8</sup> or other institutions of different categories, including provision for allowances not to be paid in respect of certain categories, but must not make different provision in relation to different categories of governor of the same school or institution<sup>9</sup>.

A local education authority may pay such allowances as may be prescribed to any person appointed to represent it on the governing body of any institution providing higher education or further education, or both, which is not maintained by it, or any independent school<sup>10</sup> or special school which is not maintained by it<sup>11</sup>. However, a local education authority must not pay any such allowance for expenses in respect of which the person incurring them is entitled to reimbursement by any person other than the authority<sup>12</sup>. In addition, a local education authority must not pay any such allowance if it has not made any such scheme or if the arrangements under which the allowance would otherwise be payable: (1) provide for allowances which are to any extent more generous than the most generous payable by the authority under any such scheme<sup>13</sup>; or (2) contain any provision which the authority would not have power to include in any such scheme<sup>14</sup>.

Regulations may impose a limit on the amount which may be paid by way of any allowance under the provisions described above<sup>15</sup>.

47. Powers as to educational research and conferences.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may make such provision for conducting, or assisting the conduct of, research as appears to it to be desirable for the purpose of improving the educational facilities provided for its area<sup>2</sup>.

A local education authority may also organise, or participate in the organisation of, conferences for the discussion of questions relating to education, and expend such sums as may be reasonable in paying, or contributing towards, any expenditure incurred in connection with conferences for the discussion of such questions, including the expenses of any person authorised by it to attend such a conference<sup>3</sup>.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(3) LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES/(i) General Duties and Functions of Local Education Authorities/E. SUPPLY OF GOODS AND SERVICES/48. Powers of local education authorities in relation to the supply of goods and services.

E. SUPPLY OF GOODS AND SERVICES

48. Powers of local education authorities in relation to the supply of goods and services.

Under the Further Education Act 1985, a local education authority<sup>1</sup> has power:

- 55 (1) to enter into an agreement for the supply of goods or services<sup>2</sup> (or both) through an institution which is maintained by it and which provides higher education<sup>3</sup> or further education<sup>4</sup> (or both)<sup>5</sup>;
- 56 (2) to lend money for the purposes of such an agreement to a body corporate<sup>6</sup> in which it has a holding of not less than 20 per cent of the issued shares comprised in the share capital of the body corporate and carrying rights to vote in all circumstances at general meetings of the body corporate<sup>7</sup>.

A local education authority may not under an agreement under head (1) above supply goods or services for less than their open market value<sup>8</sup>.

A local education authority also has power to lend money:

- 57 (a) to a higher education corporation<sup>9</sup> or further education corporation<sup>10</sup>;
- 58 (b) in the case of:
  - 5 (i) an institution within the higher education sector<sup>11</sup> which is not conducted by a higher education corporation<sup>12</sup>;
  - 8 (ii) an institution within the further education sector<sup>13</sup> which is not conducted by a further education corporation<sup>14</sup>; or
  - 9 (iii) an institution which provides higher education or further education and is assisted<sup>15</sup> by a local education authority<sup>16</sup>,
- 6 (c) to the governing body of the institution or, if it is conducted by a company, to the company<sup>17</sup>; or
- 60 (c) to a body corporate in which such a corporation or company as is mentioned in head (a) or head (b) above has a holding of not less than 20 per cent of the issued shares comprised in the share capital of the body corporate and carrying rights to vote in all circumstances at general meetings of the body corporate<sup>18</sup>, if the loan is for the purposes of an agreement for the supply of goods or services, or both, through the institution conducted by the corporation, company or governing body<sup>19</sup>.

Money may be lent under the provisions described above for the purposes of an agreement either before the agreement is made or during its currency<sup>20</sup>.

Loans carry interest at a rate not less than such rate as may be determined by the Secretary of State with the consent of the Treasury<sup>21</sup>. Before determining a rate, the Secretary of State must consult such bodies representing local education authorities as appear to him to be concerned and any local education authority with whom consultation appears to him to be desirable<sup>22</sup>.

A local education authority which exercises powers under the Further Education Act 1985 must, in respect of their exercise, keep a general revenue account and such other accounts as the Secretary of State may direct, and must prepare such statements of account as he may direct<sup>23</sup>. A local education authority must use its best endeavours to secure that at the end of every year<sup>24</sup> any such revenue account kept by it and relating to that year is in surplus<sup>25</sup>. If at the end of any year any such revenue account kept by a local education authority is in deficit, the amount of the deficit must be charged:

- 61 (A) to the extent that the deficit is attributable to a particular institution, to any fund set up by the authority for the sole purpose of meeting expenditure in relation to that institution in connection with the authority's functions under the Further Education Act 1985 or its other functions as a local education authority<sup>26</sup>;
- 62 (B) subject to head (A) above, to any general fund set up by the authority for the sole purpose of meeting expenditure in connection with its functions under the Further Education Act 1985 or its other functions as a local education authority<sup>27</sup>; and
- 63 (C) subject to heads (A) and (B) above, to its county fund or general fund<sup>28</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

2 As to the supply of goods and services see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES. See also LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 495.

3 For the meaning of 'higher education' see PARA 19 ante; definition applied by virtue of the Further Education Act 1985 s 8(3) (amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 Pt I para 61).

4 For the meaning of 'further education' see PARA 18 ante; definition applied by virtue of the Further Education Act 1985 s 8(3) (as amended: see note 3 supra).

5 Ibid s 2(1)(a) (amended by the Education Reform Act 1988 s 237(1), Sch 12 Pt III para 93(2)). Nothing in the Further Education Act 1985 s 2 (as amended) is to be construed as derogating from any powers exercisable by a local education authority apart from s 2 (as amended): s 2(10).

Goods are supplied through an institution which provides higher education or further education (or both) (s 1(1) (amended by the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 12 Pt III para 92)):

- 7 (1) if they result from its educational activities (Further Education Act 1985 s 1(1)(a));
- 8 (2) if they result from the use of its facilities and the expertise of persons employed at it in the fields in which they are so employed (s 1(1)(b));
- 9 (3) if they result from ideas of a person employed at it, or of one of its students, arising out of its educational activities (s 1(1)(c)).

Services are supplied through such an institution (s 1(2) (amended by the Education Reform Act 1988 Sch 12 Pt III para 92)):

- 10 (a) if they are provided by making available: (i) its facilities; (ii) the expertise of persons employed at it in the fields in which they are so employed (Further Education Act 1985 s 1(2)(a));
- 11 (b) if they result: (i) from its educational activities; (ii) from ideas such as are mentioned in head (3) supra (s 1(2)(b)).

For these purposes, 'institution' does not include a school: s 1(4) (added by the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 93(1), Sch 8 Pt I para 20). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 post; definition applied by virtue of the Further Education Act 1985 s 8(3) (as amended: see note 3 supra). 'Educational activities' are: (A) the provision of teaching and industrial and vocational training (s 1(3)(a)); (B) the carrying out of research (s 1(3)(b)); and (C) any activity incidental or ancillary to any activity mentioned in head (A) or head (B) supra (s 1(3)(c)).

8 Further Education Act 1985 s 2(3). For these purposes, the 'open market value' of goods or services is to be taken to be the amount of the consideration in money that would be payable for the supply by a person standing in no such relationship with any person as would affect that consideration: s 2(7).

Section 2(3) does not apply to the supply of goods or services:

- 12 (1) where the goods are produced, or the goods or services are supplied, in the normal course of any of the educational activities mentioned in s 1(3)(a) (see note 5 supra) (s 2(4)); or
- 13 (2) where the supply is for a body which is a research council for the purposes of the Science and Technology Act 1965 or for the Arts and Humanities Research Council (as defined by the Higher Education Act 2004 s 1: see NATIONAL CULTURAL HERITAGE vol 77 (2010) PARA 976) (Further Education Act 1985 s 2(4)(a) (amended by the Higher Education Act 2004 s 49, Sch 6 para 6)) or for a body specified in an order under the Further Education Act 1985 s 2(5) (s 2(4)(b)).

The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument provide that any person who is specified in the order or is of a description so specified, being a person or description of persons appearing to the Secretary of State to be exercising functions of a public nature, is to be a public body for the purposes of the Further Education Act 1985: s 2(5). Any statutory instrument made by virtue of s 2(5) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 2(5). An order made under s 2(5) may contain such provisions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate: (a) for restricting the application of s 2(4)(b) (see head (2) supra) to agreements of a description specified in the order; (b) without prejudice to head (a) supra, for securing the inclusion of terms imposing restrictions in any agreement to which s 2(4)(b) (see head (2) supra) applies and which is made by a body to which the order applies: s 2(6). At the date at which this volume states the law, no order had been made under s 2(5). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 post. Without prejudice to the generality of s 3(1), a rate may be determined in relation to all loans under the Further Education Act 1985 or loans under that Act of a particular category: s 3(2). A determination may be made by reference to a rate specified by or under any other statutory provision or a rate ascertainable by such other means as the Secretary of State may with the consent of the Treasury specify: s 3(2).

The powers conferred upon the Secretary of State by s 3 (as amended) may be exercised separately and differently as respects England and Wales: see s 3(9). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 post; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 post.

Any such revenue account kept by an authority and any such statement of account prepared by an authority must show the full cost to the authority of goods or services which are supplied under the Further Education Act 1985 and which are relevant to that account or statement: s 3(5).

(ii) Authorities, Committees etc

49. Education functions of overview and scrutiny committees.

Subject to any express provision contained in the Local Government Act 1972, or any subsequent Act, a local authority may arrange for the discharge of any of its functions by a committee, a sub-committee or an officer of the authority, or by any other local authority<sup>1</sup>. Where executive arrangements<sup>2</sup> are in operation, some functions may also be discharged by the executive or individual members of the executive<sup>3</sup>.

Executive arrangements by a local authority must include provision for the appointment by the authority of one or more committees of the authority (known as 'overview and scrutiny committees') and must ensure that its overview and scrutiny committee has, or its overview and scrutiny committees have between them, power to review or scrutinise decisions made or other action taken in connection with the discharge of certain functions, and power to make reports or recommendations to the authority or the executive with respect to the discharge of certain functions<sup>4</sup>.

Where, in relation to an overview and scrutiny committee of a relevant English authority<sup>5</sup>, or a sub-committee of such an overview and scrutiny committee, the committee's or sub-committee's functions<sup>6</sup> relate wholly or partly to any education functions which are the responsibility of the authority's executive<sup>7</sup>, then: (1) in the case of a relevant English authority which maintains one or more Church of England schools<sup>8</sup>, such an overview and scrutiny committee or sub-committee must include at least one qualifying person<sup>9</sup>; and (2) in the case of a relevant English authority which maintains one or more Roman Catholic Church schools<sup>10</sup>, such an overview and scrutiny committee or sub-committee must include at least one qualifying person<sup>11</sup>. A member of an overview and scrutiny committee or sub-committee so appointed is entitled to vote at a meeting of the committee or sub-committee on any question which relates to any education functions which are the responsibility of the executive of the authority concerned and which falls to be decided at the meeting<sup>12</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>13</sup> may by directions to a relevant English authority require any of the authority's overview and scrutiny committees or sub-committees to which these provisions apply<sup>14</sup> to include persons who are appointed, in accordance with the directions, as representatives of the persons who appoint foundation governors<sup>15</sup> for the foundation or voluntary schools<sup>16</sup> maintained by the authority which are not Church of England schools or Roman Catholic Church schools but which are specified in the directions<sup>17</sup>. Such directions may make provision with respect to the voting rights of persons appointed in accordance with such directions<sup>18</sup>.

Where, in relation to an overview and scrutiny committee of a relevant Welsh authority<sup>19</sup>, or a sub-committee of such an overview and scrutiny committee, the committee's or sub-committee's functions<sup>20</sup> relate wholly or partly to any education functions which are the responsibility of the authority's executive<sup>21</sup>, then such an overview and scrutiny committee or sub-committee must include one or more persons appointed as representatives of the persons who appoint foundation governors for the maintained schools<sup>22</sup> which are maintained by the authority concerned and which are specified in directions made by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>23</sup> as schools which have a character connected with a particular religion, or particular religious denomination, specified in the directions<sup>24</sup>. A member of an overview and scrutiny committee or sub-committee so appointed is entitled to vote at a meeting of the committee or sub-committee on any question which relates to any education functions which are the responsibility of the executive of the authority concerned, and which falls to be decided at the meeting<sup>25</sup>.

Where, in relation to an overview and scrutiny committee of a relevant authority<sup>26</sup>, or a sub-committee of such an overview and scrutiny committee, the committee's or sub-committee's functions<sup>27</sup> relate wholly or partly to any education functions which are the responsibility of the authority's executive<sup>28</sup>, the Secretary of State may by regulations<sup>29</sup> require such an overview and scrutiny committee or sub-committee to include one or more persons elected, in accordance with the regulations, as representatives of parent governors at maintained schools which are maintained by the relevant authority concerned<sup>30</sup>. Such regulations may make provision for:

- 64 (a) the number of persons who are to be elected in the case of any relevant authority<sup>31</sup>;
- 65 (b) the procedure to be followed in connection with the election of such persons and the persons who are entitled to vote at such an election<sup>32</sup>;
- 66 (c) the circumstances in which persons are qualified or disqualified for being so elected or for holding office once elected<sup>33</sup>;
- 67 (d) the term of office of persons so elected and their voting rights<sup>34</sup>;
- 68 (e) the application to any such committee or sub-committee, with or without any modification, of any enactment (whenever passed or made) relating to committees or, as the case may be, sub-committees of a local authority<sup>35</sup>;
- 69 (f) such other matters connected with such elections or persons so elected as the Secretary of State considers appropriate<sup>36</sup>.

(4) THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES

(i) General Duties and Functions

52. The Secretary of State.

A Minister of Education was appointed in 1944<sup>1</sup>, when the Ministry of Education was created in succession to the Board of Education<sup>2</sup>, which itself had taken over the functions of the Education Department<sup>3</sup>. In 1964, the functions of the Minister of Education were transferred to the Secretary of State and became the responsibility of the Secretary of State for Education and Science<sup>4</sup>. As a result of subsequent reorganisations and transfers of functions, the Secretary of State for Education and Science became the Secretary of State for Education<sup>5</sup>, later the Secretary of State for Education and Employment<sup>6</sup>, and then, in June 2001, the Secretary of State for Education and Skills<sup>7</sup>.

Some earlier legislation mentions the Education Department, the Board of Education or the minister<sup>8</sup>, but modern statutes generally refer simply to the 'Secretary of State'. In any enactment, 'Secretary of State' means one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State<sup>9</sup>. The office of Secretary of State is a unified office, and generally in law each Secretary of State is capable of performing the functions of all or any of them<sup>10</sup>. In practice, however, functions relating to education in England<sup>11</sup> generally belong to the Secretary of State for Education and Skills<sup>12</sup>.

Certain functions, so far as they are exercisable in relation to Wales<sup>13</sup>, have been transferred to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>14</sup>.

1 See the Education Act 1944 s 1(1) (repealed); and the Education (Date of Appointment of Minister) Order 1944, SR & O 1944/937.

6 See the Transfer of Functions (Education and Employment) Order 1995, SI 1995/2986.

7 See No 10 Downing Street Press Release: Delivering Effective Government (8 June 2001). All property, rights and liabilities to which the Secretary of State for Education and Employment was entitled or subject at 27 June 2002 in connection with the education functions were transferred to the Secretary of State for Education and Skills: see the Secretaries of State for Education and Skills and for Work and Pensions Order 2002, SI 2002/1397, art 6(2). The 'education functions' means the functions which were entrusted to the Secretary of State for Education and Employment immediately before 7 June 2001 and were, before the making of the Secretaries of State for Education and Skills and for Work and Pensions Order 2002, SI 2002/1397, entrusted to the Secretary of State for Education and Skills: see art 6(1). As to the preservation of things done by or in relation to the Secretary of State for Education and Employment see art 6(3)-(6). As to the incorporation of the Secretary of State for Education and Skills see art 3. See further CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 448-451.

8 The Elementary School Teachers (Superannuation) Act 1898 refers to the Education Department and the minister: see eg s 1 (as amended); and PARA 870 post.

The Education Act 1918 removes the requirement for the approval of the Board of Education for the appointment of trustees in relation to educational charities: see s 47 (as amended); and PARA 1434 post.

The Physical Training and Recreation Act 1937 refers to the Board of Education: see PARA 555 post. Functions under the Physical Training and Recreation Act 1937 that devolved to the Secretary of State for Education and Science (see the text and notes 1-4 supra) were subsequently transferred to the Minister of Housing and Local Government (see the Transfer of Functions (Physical Training and Recreation) Order 1969, SI 1969/1497). The functions of the Minister of Housing and Local Government were transferred to the Secretary of State for the Environment in 1970 (see the Secretary of State for the Environment Order 1970, SI 1970/1681 (as amended)), whose functions were transferred in 1998 to the Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and the Regions (see the Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and the Regions Order 1997, SI 1997/2971, arts 2, 3). In June 2001, the functions of the Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and the Regions were divided between the Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, the Secretary of State for Transport, Local Government and the Regions and the Secretary of State for Trade and Industry: see the Secretaries of State for Transport, Local Government and the Regions and for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Order 2001, SI 2001/2568. In November 2002, the functions of the Secretary of State for Transport, Local Government and the Regions were transferred to the Secretary of State for Transport, the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, the Lord Chancellor and the First Secretary of State: see the Transfer of Functions (Transport, Local Government and the Regions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2626.

As to Greater London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 29.

12 See the text and notes 1-7 supra.

13 'Wales' means the combined area of the counties which were created by the Local Government Act 1972 s 20 (as originally enacted) (see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARAS 5, 37), but subject to any alteration made under s 73 (as amended) (consequential alteration of boundary following alteration of watercourse: see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 90): Interpretation Act 1978 Sch 1 (definition substituted by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 s 1(3), Sch 2 para 9).

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(4) THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES/(i) General Duties and Functions/53. Functions exercisable by the National Assembly for Wales.

53. Functions exercisable by the National Assembly for Wales.

Many statutory functions previously vested in Ministers of the Crown<sup>1</sup> are now exercisable in relation to Wales by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup>. Functions transferred to the National Assembly for Wales include certain functions under the School Sites Act 1841<sup>3</sup>, the Physical Training and Recreation Act 1937<sup>4</sup>, the Education Act 1967<sup>5</sup>, the Employment and Training Act 1973<sup>6</sup>, the Education Act 1980<sup>7</sup>, the Education (Fees and Awards) Act 1983<sup>8</sup>, the Further Education Act 1985<sup>9</sup>, the Education Act 1986<sup>10</sup>, the Education (No 2) Act 1986<sup>11</sup>, the Education Reform Act 1988<sup>12</sup>, the Further and Higher Education Act 1992<sup>13</sup>, the Nursery Education and Grant-maintained Schools Act 1996<sup>14</sup>, the Education Act 1996<sup>15</sup>, the School Inspections Act 1996<sup>16</sup>, the Education Act 1997<sup>17</sup>, the Education (Schools) Act 1997<sup>18</sup>, the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998<sup>19</sup> and the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>20</sup>. In general, Acts that have come into force since the establishment of the National Assembly for Wales have made specific provision for the exercise of functions in relation to Wales<sup>21</sup>. The growing divergence between the education policies operating in England and in Wales has led increasingly to separate provision for England and Wales being made in legislation<sup>22</sup>.

The functions that are transferred are: (1) functions under the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 Pt I (ss 1-21) (as amended) (see PARAS 774, 776, 809 et seq post); (2) functions under s 25 so far as it relates to the power to make discretionary awards under the Education Act 1962 (repealed with savings); (3) functions under the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 s 26 (as amended; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 758 post); (4) functions under s 28(1)(e) (prospectively repealed) so far as it relates to ss 22, 26 (both as amended; s 26 prospectively repealed) (see PARAS 758, 1046 post); and (5) functions under Pt IV (ss 35-46) (as amended) (see PARA 1336 post): see the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999, SI 1999/672, Sch 1.

20 See the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999, SI 1999/672, Sch 1. Functions under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 81 (prospectively amended) (see PARA 383 post), s 136 (see PARA 1380 post) and s 137 (as amended) (see PARA 1380 post) are excepted from the transfer: see the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999, SI 1999/672, Sch 1; and the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 2000, SI 2000/253, Sch 1. As to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 see PARA 81 et seq post.

21 Eg the Learning and Skills Act 2000 generally refers to the Secretary of State or to the National Assembly for Wales, as appropriate: see Pt I (ss 1-29) (as amended) (see PARA 1072 et seq post), Pt II (ss 30-51) (as amended) (see PARA 1113 et seq post), Pt III (ss 52-72) (as amended) (see PARA 1303 et seq post), Pt IV (ss 73-88) (as amended) (see PARA 1331 et seq post). The Learning and Skills Act 2000 provides that where Pt V (ss 89-156) (as amended) confers a function on the Secretary of State (whether by amendment of another Act or otherwise), the function is exercisable in relation to Wales by the National Assembly for Wales (s 150(1)(a)) and, for that purpose, any reference to the Secretary of State is to be taken as a reference to the National Assembly for Wales (s 150(1)(b)). Where:

14 (1) the provisions of Pt V (as amended) confer a function on the Secretary of State by amendment of an Act (s 150(2)(a)); and

15 (2) any functions of that Act have before 28 July 2000 (ie the date of the passing of the Learning and Skills Act 2000) been transferred to the National Assembly of Wales by Order in Council under the Government of Wales Act 1998 s 22 (transfer of ministerial functions: see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS) (Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 150(2)(b)), the order is to be treated for the purposes of any varying or revoking order as having transferred the function mentioned in head (1) supra to the National Assembly for Wales: s 150(2). The provisions of s 150(1)(a) have effect subject to any Order in Council made by virtue of s 150(2): s 150(3). However, s 150 does not apply in relation to:

16 (a) the provisions of s 90 (see PARA 1072 post), s 92 (see PARA 1073 post), s 104 (see PARA 981 post), s 134 (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS) or s 154 (commencement) (s 150(4)(a));

17 (b) the amendment of the Education (Fees and Awards) Act 1983 s 1(3) (as amended) (fees at institutions: see PARA 1056 post) made by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 11 (s 150(4)(b));

18 (c) the amendment of the Employment Act 1988 s 26 (as amended) (status of trainees etc: see EMPLOYMENT vol 40 (2009) PARA 565) made by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 14 (s 150(4)(c)); or 19 (d) the amendment of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 s 19 (as amended) (discrimination in relation to goods, facilities and services: see PARA 1413 post) made by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 49 (repealed) (s 150(4)(d)).

Where:

20 (i) the Education Act 2002 confers a function ('the new function') on the Secretary of State by amendment of another Act (s 211(1)(a)); and

21 (ii) any functions under that Act have, before 24 July 2002 (ie the date of the passing of the Education Act 2002), been transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by an Order in Council under the Government of Wales Act 1998 s 22 (Education Act 2002 s 211(1)(b)), the new function, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, is to be treated as having been transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by an Order in Council under the Government of Wales Act 1998 s 22 and, accordingly, the transfer may be varied or revoked by an Order in Council under s 22 (Education Act 2002 s 211(2)). This does not apply, however, to the Education Act 1996 s 493(2) (as substituted) or s 493(2A) (as added) (see PARA 332 post): s 211(4). For the purposes of the Government of Wales Act 1998 s 22, an Order in Council made by virtue of the Education Act 2002 s 211(2) or s 208(3) (the transfer of the regulations-making function under the Education Act 1996 s 494: see PARA 332 post) is to be treated as if it were revoking or varying a previous Order in Council: Education Act 2002 s 211(3). Specific provision is made for the power to prohibit and restrict the employment of teachers under s 142 to be exercisable by the Secretary of State and the National Assembly for Wales concurrently in relation to Wales: see PARA 782 post.

As to the transfer of the functions of the Secretary of State under the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 s 22 (as amended) (arrangements for giving financial support to students: see PARAS 1046-1047 post) and s 23 (as amended) (transfer or delegation of functions relating to student support: see PARA 1048 post), and as to the functions under s 22 (as amended) which are exercisable concurrently with the Assembly, see the Higher Education Act 2004 s 44; and PARA 1046 note 6 post. For the purposes of the Government of Wales Act 1998: (A) any function that is so transferred to the Assembly or so made exercisable by the Assembly is to be taken to have been transferred to, or made exercisable by, the Assembly by an Order in Council under the Government of Wales Act 1998 s 22; and (B) in relation to any function which is taken by virtue of head (A) supra to have been transferred to the Assembly by such an Order in Council, any reference to the coming into force of the Order in Council transferring it is to be read as a reference to the commencement of the provision by which the function is transferred: Higher Education Act 2004 s 44(6).

Any function conferred on the Secretary of State by the amendments made by certain provisions of the Education Act 2005, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, is to be taken to have been transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by an Order in Council under the Government of Wales Act 1998 s 22: Education Act 2005 ss 119(1), 122(1). The provisions mentioned above are s 45 (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (power to direct closure of school: see PARA 1273 post), s 53 (inspection of child minding, day care and nursery education: see PARA 1291 et seq post), s 70 (not yet in force) (proposals for discontinuance of rural primary school: see PARA 134 post), s 71 (not yet in force) (proposals relating to maintained special school: see PARA 136 post), s 101 (not yet in force) (funding of maintained schools: see PARA 312 et seq post), s 106 (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (admission arrangements to make special provision for looked-after children: see PARA 398 post), s 107 (restrictions on disposal of land: see PARA 1364 et seq post), s 117 (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (miscellaneous amendments), Sch 7 (inspection of child minding, day care and nursery education: see PARA 1291 et seq post) (not yet in force in relation to Wales), Sch 16 (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (funding of maintained schools: see PARA 312 et seq post), Sch 17 (restrictions on disposal of land: see PARA 1364 et seq post) and Sch 18 (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (miscellaneous amendments): s 119(2).

22 See eg the Education Act 2002 Pt 6 (ss 76-96) (as amended) (the curriculum in England: see PARA 913 et seq post), Pt 7 (ss 97-118) (as amended) (the curriculum in Wales: see PARA 926 et seq post), ss 191-195 (regional provision for special educational needs in Wales and the Special Educational Needs Tribunal for Wales: see PARA 1014 et seq post), s 196 (publication and provision of material: see PARA 60 post), s 197 (partnership agreements and statements: see PARA 100 post), s 198 (transition from primary to secondary school: see PARA 101 post), the Education Act 2005 Pt 1 Chs 1-2 (ss 1-18) (school inspectors and school inspections: England) (see PARA 1167 et seq post), Pt 1 Chs 3-4 (ss 19-43) (not yet in force) (school inspectors and school inspections: Wales) (see PARA 1226 et seq post).

54. General duties.

The Secretary of State must promote the education of the people of England<sup>1</sup>, and the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup> must promote the education of the people of Wales<sup>3</sup>. The Secretary of State (or, as it may be, the National Assembly for Wales) must exercise the powers in respect of those bodies in receipt of public funds which:

- 78 (1) carry responsibility for securing that the required provision for primary<sup>4</sup>, secondary<sup>5</sup> or further education<sup>6</sup> is made in schools<sup>7</sup>, or in institutions within the further education sector<sup>8</sup>, in or in any area of England or Wales<sup>9</sup>; or
- 79 (2) conduct schools or institutions within the further education sector in England and Wales<sup>10</sup>, for the purpose of promoting primary, secondary and further education in England and Wales<sup>11</sup>.

The Secretary of State (or, as it may be, the National Assembly for Wales) must, in the case of the powers to regulate the provision made in schools and institutions within the further education sector in England and Wales, exercise those powers with a view to, among other things, improving standards, encouraging diversity and increasing opportunities for choice<sup>12</sup>.

In carrying out the above duties<sup>13</sup> the Secretary of State (or, as it may be, the National Assembly for Wales) must, in particular, make such arrangements as are considered expedient for securing that sufficient facilities are available for the training of teachers<sup>14</sup> to serve in schools maintained by local education authorities<sup>15</sup>, institutions within the further education sector and institutions which are maintained by such authorities and provide higher education<sup>16</sup> or further education, or both<sup>17</sup>.

The role of the Secretary of State and the National Assembly for Wales in relation to education includes a wide range of duties and powers. They have functions, for example, in relation to school admissions<sup>18</sup>, the closure of schools<sup>19</sup>, the appointment of governors<sup>20</sup> or interim executive members<sup>21</sup> and of members of local authority education committees<sup>22</sup>, and the setting of limits on infant class sizes<sup>23</sup>. Their powers also include the power to issue guidance, such as codes of practice, for local education authorities and maintained schools<sup>24</sup>, and to secure proper performance of a local education authority's functions<sup>25</sup>. They must publish any guidance given by them for the purposes of any provision of the Education Act 1996 in such manner as seems fit<sup>26</sup>.

55 Power in relation to companies

NOTE 3--Education Act 2002 s 13(3) amended: SI 2009/1941.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(4) THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES/(i) General Duties and Functions/56. Power to secure proper performance of local education authority's functions.

56. Power to secure proper performance of local education authority's functions.

If the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> is satisfied, either on a complaint by any person interested or otherwise, that a local education authority<sup>2</sup> is failing in any respect to perform any of its functions<sup>3</sup> to an adequate standard, or at all, he may exercise the following powers<sup>4</sup>.

The Secretary of State has power to give the authority or an officer of the authority such directions<sup>5</sup> as the Secretary of State thinks expedient for the purpose of securing that the function is performed on behalf of the authority by such person as is specified in the direction<sup>6</sup>. Such directions may require that any contract or other arrangement made by the authority with that person contains such terms and conditions as may be so specified<sup>7</sup>. The Secretary of State may also direct that the function is to be exercised by the Secretary of State or a person nominated by him and that the authority must comply with any instructions of the Secretary of State or his nominee in relation to the exercise of the function<sup>8</sup>. Whether or not the Secretary of State exercises either of these powers<sup>9</sup> in relation to such a function, he may give the authority or an officer of the authority such other directions as he thinks expedient for the purpose of securing that the function is performed to an adequate standard<sup>10</sup>.

The Secretary of State may also exercise his powers to give directions<sup>11</sup> where: (1) he has given a previous such direction in relation to a local education authority in respect of any of its functions<sup>12</sup>; and (2) he is satisfied that it is likely that, if no further such direction were given on the expiry or revocation of the previous direction, the authority would fail in any respect to perform that function to an adequate standard, or at all<sup>13</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State gives such directions<sup>14</sup> to a local education authority or to an officer of such an authority, the specified person<sup>15</sup> is, in the performance of the function or functions specified in the directions, entitled to exercise the following powers<sup>16</sup>:

- 82 (a) the specified person has, at all reasonable times, a right of entry to the premises of the authority, and a right to inspect, and take copies of, any records or other documents<sup>17</sup> kept by the authority, and any other documents containing information relating to the authority, which he considers relevant to the performance of the specified function or functions<sup>18</sup>; and
- 83 (b) in exercising the right to inspect records or other documents under head (a) above, the specified person<sup>19</sup>: (i) is entitled at any reasonable time to have access to, and inspect and check the operation of, any computer and any associated apparatus or material which is or has been in use in connection with the records or other documents in question<sup>20</sup>; and (ii) may require the person by whom or on whose behalf the computer is or has been so used, or any person having charge of, or otherwise concerned with the operation of, the computer, apparatus or material, to afford him such assistance<sup>21</sup> as he may reasonably require<sup>22</sup>.

The local education authority must give the specified person all assistance in connection with the performance of the specified function or functions which it is reasonably able to give<sup>23</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

3 The Education Act 1996 s 497A (as added and amended) applies to a local education authority's functions under the Education Act 1996 and to other functions, of whatever nature, which are conferred on it in its capacity as a local education authority: s 497A(1) (s 497A added by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 8; and the Education Act 1996 s 497A(1) substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 60(1), (2)). As to the meaning of 'functions' see PARA 14 note 5 ante.

4 Education Act 1996 s 497A(2) (as added (see note 3 supra); and amended by the Education Act 2002 s 60(1), (3)). The powers referred to in the text are those under the Education Act 1996 s 497A(4) (as added and substituted), s 497A(4A) (as added) and s 497A(4B) (as added): see the text and notes 5-10 infra. Where, in relation to any function to which s 497A (as added and amended) applies (see note 3 supra), the Secretary of State is satisfied as mentioned in s 497A(2) (as added and amended), and has notified the local education authority that he is so satisfied and that he is contemplating the giving of directions under s 497A(4) (as added and substituted) or s 497A(4A) (as added), the authority must give the Secretary of State, and any person authorised by him for these purposes, all such assistance, in connection with the proposed exercise of the function by the Secretary of State or another person in pursuance of directions, as it is reasonably able to give: s 497AA (added by the Education Act 2002 s 61).

5 Any direction under the Education Act 1996 s 497A (as added and amended) may either: (1) have effect for an indefinite period until revoked by the Secretary of State; or (2) have effect for a period specified in the direction unless revoked earlier by the Secretary of State: s 497A(6) (as added (see note 3 supra); and amended by the Education Act 2002 s 60(1), (9)). Any direction given under the Education Act 1996 s 497A(4) (as added and substituted), s 497A(4A) (as added) or s 497A(4B) (as added) is enforceable, on an application made on behalf of the Secretary of State, by a mandatory order: s 497A(7) (as so added; and amended by the Education Act 2002 s 60(1), (10)). As to mandatory orders see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARA 703 et seq.

6 Education Act 1996 s 497A(4) (as added (see note 3 supra); and substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 60(1), (6)). See also note 5 supra. Where the Secretary of State considers it expedient that the person specified in directions under the Education Act 1996 s 497A(4) (as added and substituted) ought to perform other functions to which s 497A (as added and amended) applies, in addition to the function to which s 497A(2) (as added and amended) (see the text and notes 1-4 supra) or s 497A(2A) (as added) (see the text and notes 11-13 infra) applies, the directions under s 497A(4) (as added and substituted) may relate to the performance of those other functions as well: see s 497A(5) (as so added; and substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 60(1), (8)). In considering whether it is expedient that that person ought to perform any such additional functions, the Secretary of State may have regard to financial considerations: Education Act 1996 s 497A(5) (as so added and substituted).

7 Ibid s 497A(4) (as added and substituted: see note 6 supra). See also note 5 supra. As to the Secretary of State's specific power to direct the local education authority to enter into a contract or other arrangement for the provision of advisory services see PARA 1274 post.

8 Ibid s 497A(4A) (s 497A as added (see note 3 supra); and s 497A(4A) added by the Education Act 2002 s 60(1), (7)). See also note 5 supra. Where the Secretary of State considers it expedient that he or a person nominated by him in directions under the Education Act 1996 s 497A(4A) (as added) ought to perform other functions to which s 497A (as added and amended) applies, in addition to the function to which s 497A(2) (as added and amended) (see the text and notes 1-4 supra) or s 497A(2A) (as added) (see the text and notes 11-13 infra) applies, the directions under s 497A(4A) (as added and substituted) may relate to the performance of those other functions as well: see s 497A(5) (as so added; and substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 60(1), (8)). In considering whether it is expedient that that person ought to perform any such additional functions, the Secretary of State may have regard to financial considerations: Education Act 1996 s 497A(5) (as so added and substituted).

Where, in relation to any function to which s 497A (as added and amended) applies (see note 3 supra), the Secretary of State is satisfied as mentioned in s 497A(2A)(b) (as added), and has notified the local education authority that he is so satisfied and that he is contemplating the giving of directions under s 497A(4) (as added and substituted) or s 497A(4A) (as added), the authority must give the Secretary of State, and any person authorised by him for these purposes, all such assistance, in connection with the proposed exercise of the function by the Secretary of State or another person in pursuance of directions, as it is reasonably able to give: s 497AA (as added: see note 4 supra).

Any reference in the Education Act 1996 s 497B (as added and amended) to the specified person includes a reference to any person assisting him in the performance of the specified function or functions: s 497B(6) (as so added).

16 Ibid s 497B(1) (as added (see note 15 supra); and amended by the Education Act 2002 s 62(1), (2)).

17 For these purposes, 'document' and 'records' each includes information recorded in any form: Education Act 1996 s 497B(7) (as added: see note 15 supra).

18 Ibid s 497B(2) (as added: see note 15 supra). Section s 497B(2) (as added) applies in relation to any school maintained by the local education authority as it applies in relation to the authority; and without prejudice to s 497B(2) (as added) (as it so applies): (1) the governing body of any such school must give the specified person all assistance in connection with the exercise of his functions which it is reasonably able to give; and (2) the governing body of any such school and the authority must secure that all such assistance is also given by persons who work at the school: s 497B(5) (as so added). 21 This includes, in particular, the making of information available for inspection or copying in a legible form: ibid s 497B(3)(b) (as added: see note 15 supra).

22 Ibid s 497B(3)(b) (as added: see note 15 supra).

23 Ibid s 497B(4) (as added: see note 15 supra). This provision is expressed to be without prejudice to s 497B(2) (as added) (see the text and notes 17-18 supra): s 497B(4) (as so added).

56 Power to secure proper performance of local education authority's functions

TEXT AND NOTES--Education Act 1996 s 497A applies in relation to an English local authority's functions under the Childcare Act 2006 Pt 1 (ss 1-21) as it applies in relation to the functions of a local education authority in England mentioned in the Education Act 1996 s 497A(1): Childcare Act 2006 s 15(3). The Education Act 1996 ss 497AA and 497B apply accordingly where powers under s 497A are exercised in relation to any of the functions of an English local authority under the Childcare Act 2006 Pt 1: s 15(4). In the application of the Education Act 1996 ss 497A(2)-(7), 497AA and 497B in relation to an English local authority's functions under the Childcare Act 2006 Pt 1, references to the local education authority are to be read as references to the local authority: s 15(5). In the Education Act 1996 s 497A(5), the reference to functions to which s 497A applies includes (for all purposes) functions of an English local authority under the Childcare Act 2006 Pt 1: s 15(6).

TEXT AND NOTES 1-13--Education Act 1996 s 497A is subject to Education Act 1996 ss 508I, 509AE (see PARAS 534A.4, 6): Education Act 1996 s 497A(8) (added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 Sch 2 para 9).

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(4) THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES/(i) General Duties and Functions/57. Power to prevent unreasonable exercise of functions by local education authority or governing body.

57. Power to prevent unreasonable exercise of functions by local education authority or governing body.

If the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> is satisfied, either on a complaint by any person or otherwise, that any local education authority<sup>2</sup> or the governing body of any community, foundation or voluntary school or any community or foundation special school<sup>3</sup> has acted or is proposing to act unreasonably<sup>4</sup> with respect to the exercise of any power conferred or the performance of any duty imposed by or under the Education Act 1996<sup>5</sup>, he may give such directions<sup>6</sup> as to the exercise of the power or the performance of the duty as appear to him to be expedient, and may do so despite any enactment which makes the exercise of the power or the performance of the duty contingent upon the opinion of the authority or body<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

3 As to community, foundation and voluntary schools and community and foundation special schools see PARA 102 et seq post. As to special schools see also PARA 1027 et seq post.

4 It has been held that the test for unreasonableness is in essence that set out in *Associated Provincial Picture Houses Ltd v Wednesbury Corp*n [1948] 1 KB 223, [1947] 2 All ER 680, CA, ie that the authority's conduct was such that no reasonable authority would engage in it, and that unreasonable conduct is 'conduct which no sensible authority acting with due appreciation of its responsibilities would have decided to adopt': Secretary of State for Education and Science v Tameside Metropolitan Borough Council [1977] AC 1014 at 1064, [1976] 3 All ER 665 at 695, HL, per Lord Diplock. See further JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARAS 617, 623. See also PARA 58 note 6 post.

5 For the purposes of the Education Act 1996 s 496 (as amended), the provisions of the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 113A, Sch 7A (both as added) are to be treated as if they were provisions of the Education Act 1996: see the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 113A(10) (as added); and PARA 1277 et seq post.

6 A direction under the Education Act 1996 s 496 (as amended) imposes on a local education authority a statutory duty which it is bound to comply with, and which can be enforced: Secretary of State for Education and Science v Tameside Metropolitan Borough Council [1977] AC 1014, [1976] 3 All ER 665, HL (in this case, decided under previous legislation, it was, however, held that the direction was ultra vires).

7 Education Act 1996 s 496(1), (2) (s 496(2) amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 57, 129). As to the revocation or variation of directions under the Education Act 1996 s 496 (as amended) see s 570 (as amended); and PARA 15 note 6 ante.

The proper exercise by the Secretary of State of his functions under ss 496-497 (both as amended) should have the effect of avoiding the involvement of the courts in education matters: see R v Secretary of State for Education and Science, ex p Chance (26 July 1982, unreported); R v Brent London Borough Council, ex p F [1999] ELR 32, [1999] COD 38; R v Secretary of State for Education, ex p Prior [1994] ELR 231, [1994] ICR 877.

The power of the Secretary of State to prevent unreasonable exercise of functions under the Education Act 1996 s 496 (as amended) is applied in relation to: (1) the governing body of an institution which is maintained by a local education authority and provides higher education or further education or both (see the Education Reform Act 1988 s 219(3) (as substituted); and PARA 611 post); (2) the proprietors of certain schools who are under a duty to secure that all registered pupils are provided with a programme of careers education (see the Education Act 1997 s 43(4); and PARA 1161 note 4 post); (3) the governing bodies of a relevant school or a further education institution and appropriate bodies and their duties and powers conferred under the provisions relating to the requirement for teachers to serve induction periods (see the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 s 19(12) (as added); and PARA 774 note 5 post); (4) the proprietors of independent schools and the duties imposed by or under ballot regulations (see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 105(7); and PARA 439 note 6 post); (5) a school organisation committee (see s 24, Sch 4 para 10; and PARA 119 note 3 post); (6) a local education authority or the governing body of a maintained school which has adopted a scheme formulated by a local education authority for the purpose mentioned in s 89B (as added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see s 89C(2) (as added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales); and PARA 399 post); (7) any local education authority, any school organisation committee and the governing bodies of maintained schools and their powers and duties conferred under the provisions relating to inadequate sixth forms (see the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 113; and PARA 1275 et seq post); and (8) a local authority and the duties imposed by the provisions relating to the education functions of the overview and scrutiny committees (see the Local Government Act 2000 s 23, Sch 1 paras 7-10; and PARA 49 ante).

As to the power of the Secretary of State under the Education Act 1996 s 496 (as amended) in relation to complaints against maintained schools see s 409 (as amended); and PARA 36 ante.

57 Power to prevent unreasonable exercise of functions by local education authority or governing body

TEXT AND NOTES--These provisions also apply to maintained nursery schools: Education Act 1996 s 496(2) (amended by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 168(1)). The Education Act 1996 s 496 applies in relation to an English local authority and the powers conferred or duties imposed on them by or under the Childcare Act 2006 Pt 1 (ss 1-21) as it applies in relation to a local education authority in England and the powers conferred or duties imposed on them by or under the Education Act 1996: Childcare Act 2006 s 15(1). See also s 180. The Secretary of State may not make a direction in respect of a matter that has been complained about to a local commissioner in accordance with Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 ss 206-224 (see PARA 36) or, in the Secretary of State's opinion, could have been so complained about: Education Act 1996 s 496(3) (s 496(3), (4) added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 221(1) (in force in part in relation to complaints against schools maintained by specified local authorities: see SI 2010/303, SI 2010/1151)). Regulations may disapply the above provision in relation to cases where a complaint about the matter has been made to the Secretary of State by a prescribed person or a person of a prescribed description: Education Act 1996 s 496(4). The above provisions are subject to Education Act 1996 ss 508I, 509AE (see PARAS 534A.4, 6): Education Act 1996 s 496(5) (added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 Sch 2 para 7).

Power to declare local education authority or governing body in default of duty.

58. Power to declare local education authority or governing body in default of duty.

If the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> is satisfied, either on a complaint by any person interested or otherwise, that any local education authority<sup>2</sup> or the governing body of any community, foundation or voluntary school or any community or foundation special school<sup>3</sup>, has failed to discharge any duty imposed on it by or for the purposes of the Education Act 1996<sup>4</sup>, he may make an order declaring the authority or body to be in default in respect of that duty, and giving such directions<sup>5</sup> for the purpose of enforcing the performance of the duty as appear to him to be expedient<sup>6</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

3 As to community, foundation and voluntary schools and community and foundation special schools see PARA 102 et seq post. As to special schools see also PARA 1027 et seq post.

4 For the purposes of the Education Act 1996 s 497 (as amended), the provisions of the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 113A, Sch 7A (both as added) are to be treated as if they were provisions of the Education Act 1996: see the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 113A(10) (as added); and PARA 1277 note 1 post.

5 Any such directions are enforceable, on an application made on behalf of the Secretary of State, by a mandatory order: Education Act 1996 s 497(3). As to mandatory orders see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARA 703 et seq. As to the revocation or variation of directions under s 497 (as amended) see s 570 (as amended); and PARA 15 note 6 ante. As to the provision for modification of s 497 (as amended) for the purposes of the Education Act 2005 s 114 see PARA 62 post.

6 Education Act 1996 s 497(1), (2) (s 497(2) amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 57, 130). Orders under the Education Act 1996 s 497 (as amended) are not statutory instruments: see s 568(2) (as amended); and PARA 15 note 6 ante. As to the making of orders under the Education Act 1996 generally see PARA 15 note 6 ante. 'The Secretary of State has a power, and not a duty, to issue a direction under the Education Act 1996 s 497 if he is satisfied that the school is in breach of its duty': R v Secretary of State for Education and Employment and the Governors of Southlands Community Comprehensive School, ex p W [1998] ELR 413 at 421, [1998] COD 112 at 113 per Harrison J. The proper exercise by the Secretary of State of his functions under the Education Act 1996 s 496 (as amended) (see PARA 57 ante) and s 497 (as amended) should have the effect of avoiding the involvement of the courts in education matters: see R v Secretary of State for Education and Science, ex p Chance (26 July 1982, unreported); R v Brent London Borough Council, ex p F [1999] ELR 32, [1999] COD 38; R v Secretary of State for Education, ex p Prior [1994] ELR 231, [1994] ICR 877. The existence of the remedy of complaint to the Secretary of State under the Education Act 1996 s 497 (as amended) does not exclude the remedy of judicial review where 'the public authority flies in the face of the statute, by doing something which the statute expressly prohibits, or by failing to do something which the statute expressly enjoins, or otherwise so conducts itself, by omission or commission, as to frustrate or hinder policy and the objects of the Act': Meade v Haringey London Borough Council [1979] 2 All ER 1016 at 1024, [1979] 1 WLR 637 at 647, CA, per Lord Denning MR. See also Watt v Kesteven County Council [1955] 1 QB 408, [1955] 1 All ER 473, CA; Bradbury v Enfield London Borough Council [1967] 3 All ER 434, [1967] 1 WLR 1311, CA; R v Inner London Education Authority, ex p Ali [1990] COD 317, 2 Admin LR 822, DC. It is arguable that the role of the court in these circumstances is to consider whether the default powers under the Education Act 1996 ss 496-497 (as amended) are an adequate alternative remedy: R (on the application of Rhodes) v Kingston upon Hull City Council [2001] ELR 230. In circumstances where an application is made to the Secretary of State and has failed, a judicial review should be sought against the decision of the Secretary of State rather than against the body which was the subject of the application: R (on the application of Rhodes) v Kingston upon Hull City Council supra.

The power of the Secretary of State to prevent the unreasonable exercise of functions under the Education Act 1996 s 497 (as amended) is applied in relation to: (1) the governing body of an institution which is maintained by a local education authority and provides higher education or further education or both (see the Education Reform Act 1988 s 219(3) (as substituted); and PARA 611 post); (2) the proprietors of certain schools who are under a duty to secure that all registered pupils are provided with a programme of careers education (see the Education Act 1997 s 43(4); and PARA 1161 note 4 post); (3) the governing bodies of a relevant school or a further education institution and appropriate bodies and their duties and powers conferred under the provisions relating to the requirement for teachers to serve induction periods (see the Teaching and Higher Education Act 1998 s 19(12) (as added); and PARA 774 note 5 post); (4) the proprietors of independent schools and the duties imposed by or under ballot regulations (see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 105(7); and PARA 439 note 6 post); (5) a school organisation committee (see s 24, Sch 4 para 10; and PARA 119 note 3 post); (6) a local education authority or the governing body of a maintained school which has adopted a scheme formulated by a local education authority for the purpose mentioned in s 89B (as added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see s 89C(2) (as added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales); and PARA 399 post); (7) any local education authority, any school organisation committee and the governing bodies of maintained schools and their powers and duties conferred under the provisions relating to inadequate sixth forms (see the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 113; and PARA 1275 et seq post); and (8) a local authority and the duties imposed by the provisions relating to the education functions of the overview and scrutiny committees (see the Local Government Act 2000 s 23, Sch 1 paras 7-10; and PARA 49 ante).

As to the power of the Secretary of State under the Education Act 1996 s 497 (as amended) in relation to complaints against maintained schools see s 409 (as amended); and PARA 36 ante.

59 Determination of disputes between local education authority and governing body

TEXT AND NOTES 1-6--See the Education (Pupil Referral Units) (Application of Enactments) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2979, regs 1, 3, Sch 1 para 5.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(4) THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES/(i) General Duties and Functions/60. Power to require information from governing bodies.

60. Power to require information from governing bodies.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations<sup>2</sup> make provisions requiring: (1) the governing body of every school<sup>3</sup> which is maintained by a local education authority<sup>4</sup> or a special school<sup>5</sup> which is not maintained by such an authority<sup>6</sup>; and (2) proprietors<sup>7</sup> of independent schools<sup>8</sup>, to provide such information about the school as may be prescribed<sup>9</sup>. For these purposes, information about the continuing education of pupils<sup>10</sup> leaving a school, or the employment or training taken up by such pupils on leaving, is to be treated as information about the school<sup>11</sup>. No information provided in accordance with such regulations may name any pupil to whom it relates<sup>12</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State exercises such a power, he must do so with a view to making available information which is likely to assist parents<sup>13</sup> in choosing schools for their children<sup>14</sup>, increase public awareness of the quality of education provided by the schools concerned and the educational standards achieved in those schools<sup>15</sup>, or assist in assessing the degree of efficiency with which the financial resources of those schools are managed<sup>16</sup>. The Secretary of State may: (a) publish information provided in accordance with regulations under these provisions in such form and manner as he considers appropriate<sup>17</sup>; (b) make arrangements for such information to be published in such form and manner, and by such persons, as he may specify for these purposes<sup>18</sup>; (c) make regulations requiring local education authorities to publish prescribed categories of such information, together with such supplementary information as may be prescribed, in such form and manner as may be prescribed<sup>19</sup>. The Secretary of State may also make regulations requiring the governing body of any school which is maintained by a local education authority<sup>20</sup>, the proprietor of any city technology college<sup>21</sup>, city college for the technology of the arts<sup>22</sup> or academy<sup>23</sup>, or any local education authority<sup>24</sup>, to provide prescribed persons with prescribed categories of information published under heads (a) to (c) above<sup>25</sup>.

Regulations may make provision for the designation by the Secretary of State, in accordance with the regulations, of particular schools or classes of schools for the purposes of the application of particular provisions of the regulations in relation to such schools<sup>26</sup>.

The provisions described above do not apply to nursery schools<sup>27</sup>, and are not to be taken as restricting, or otherwise affecting, any other powers that the Secretary of State may have to make regulations with respect to, or otherwise to require, the provision of information by any person<sup>28</sup>.

A local education authority in Wales must publish any material which the National Assembly for Wales provides to the authority for the purpose<sup>29</sup>, being material ('qualifying material') the Assembly considers likely to assist parents in choosing schools for their children<sup>30</sup>, increase public awareness of the quality of education provided at schools or a school and of the educational standards achieved there<sup>31</sup>, or assist in assessing the degree of efficiency with which the financial resources of schools or a school are managed<sup>32</sup>. A local education authority in Wales must provide to such persons as the Assembly may specify any qualifying material which the Assembly provides to the authority for the purpose<sup>33</sup>; and the governing body of any school maintained by a local education authority in Wales must provide to such persons as the Assembly may specify any qualifying material which the Assembly provides to the body for the purpose<sup>34</sup>. Any material so published or so provided may not name any individual to whom it relates<sup>35</sup> and must be in such form and manner as may be prescribed<sup>36</sup>.

INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(4) THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES/(i) General Duties and Functions/62. Supply of information about school workforce.

62. Supply of information about school workforce.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may authorise or require: (1) the proprietor of a school<sup>2</sup>; (2) a children's services authority in England or Wales<sup>3</sup>; or (3) any prescribed<sup>4</sup> person<sup>5</sup>, to supply to: (a) the Secretary of State; (b) the National Assembly for Wales; or (c) any prescribed person<sup>6</sup>, prescribed information relating to persons who are or have been qualifying workers<sup>7</sup> or qualifying trainees<sup>8</sup>, for use by the Secretary of State, the Assembly, or any prescribed person, for a qualifying purpose<sup>9</sup>. Regulations may also authorise the Secretary of State or the Assembly to supply to the other or to any prescribed person, for use for a qualifying purpose, prescribed information relating to persons who are or have been qualifying workers or qualifying trainees<sup>10</sup>.

Regulations may authorise the Secretary of State, the Assembly, or any prescribed person to supply to any prescribed person ('the recipient') any information relating to persons who are or have been qualifying workers or qualifying trainees which has been lawfully held by the recipient, or is information which another person was, or could have been, required, whether by virtue of regulations made under these provisions or otherwise, to supply to the recipient<sup>11</sup>. Regulations may also prohibit any person to whom information is supplied by virtue of these provisions from further disclosing the information otherwise than in prescribed circumstances, and provide that the default powers of the Secretary of State or Assembly<sup>12</sup> are, in relation to the duties imposed by virtue of these provisions, to have effect with modifications<sup>13</sup>.

These provisions do not limit the circumstances in which information is otherwise authorised or required to be supplied<sup>14</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'regulations' means: (1) in relation to England, regulations made by the Secretary of State; and (2) in relation to Wales, regulations made by the National Assembly for Wales: Education Act 2005 s 114(10). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante; and as to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 114.

Any power to make an order or regulations conferred by the Education Act 2005 on the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales is exercisable by statutory instrument, and includes power: (1) to make different provision for different cases or areas; (2) to make provision generally or in relation to specific cases; and (3) to make such incidental, supplementary, saving or transitional provision as the Secretary of State thinks fit: s 120(1)-(2). Any statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Secretary of State under any provision of the Education Act 2005 is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 121(1). However, this provision does not apply to: (a) an order made under s 125 (commencement); or (b) a statutory instrument which contains (whether alone or with other provisions) regulations made by the Secretary of State under s 124 (power to make further supplementary and consequential provision etc) which amend or repeal any part of the text of an Act: s 121(2)-(3). An instrument under head (b) supra may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament: s 121(3).

2 Ibid s 114(1)(a). For the meaning of 'proprietor' see PARA 60 note 7 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 122(2), (3). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 post; definition applied by virtue of s 122(2), (3).

3 Ibid s 114(1)(b). For these purposes, 'children's services authority in England' and 'children's services authority in Wales' have the same meaning as in the Children Act 2004: Education Act 2005 s 113(1), (5). In the Children Act 2004, 'children's services authority in England' means:

- 22 (1) a county council in England;
- 23 (2) a metropolitan district council;

- 24 (3) a non-metropolitan district council for an area for which there is no county council;
- 25 (4) a London borough council;
- 26 (5) the Common Council of the City of London;
- 27 (6) the Council of the Isles of Scilly, and 'children's services authority in Wales' means a county council or county borough council in Wales: s 65(1). As to areas and authorities in England and Wales see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 22 et seq; as to the London boroughs and their councils see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 30, 35-39, 59 et seq; as to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 51-55; and as to the Council of the Isles of Scilly see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 36. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 post; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

4 For this purpose, 'prescribed' means prescribed by regulations: Education Act 2005 s 114(10).

5 Ibid s 114(1)(c). A person may not be prescribed for this purpose or for the purpose of head (c) in the text unless he appears to the person making the regulations to be exercising functions of a public nature: s 114(4) (a).

6 See note 7 infra.

7 For this purpose, 'qualifying worker' means any person who: (1) is employed at, or otherwise engaged to work at, a school; (2) does not fall within head (1) supra but provides, or assists in the provision of, education under a contract of employment or for services where the other party to the contract is a children's services authority in England or Wales, or a person exercising a function relating to the provision of education on behalf of such an authority; or (3) provides education at a further education institution: Education Act 2005 s 113(1), (2). For this purpose, 'contract of employment' has the meaning given by the Employment Rights Act 1996 s 230(2) (see EMPLOYMENT vol 39 (2009) PARA 2); and 'further education institution' means an institution which is: (a) an institution (other than a school) which provides further education; or (b) an institution within the further education sector: Education Act 2005 s 113(1), (4). For the meaning of 'further education' see PARA 18 ante. As to references to institutions within the further education sector see PARA 579 post; and as to further education generally see PARA 579 et seq post.

8 For this purpose, 'qualifying trainee' means a person (other than a qualifying worker) for whom training as a member of the school workforce is being provided: ibid s 113(1), (3). 'Member of the school workforce' has the same meaning as in Pt 3 (ss 74-100) (see PARA 793 note 4 post): s 113(1), (4).

9 Ibid s 114(1), (2). Information is supplied to a person for use for a qualifying purpose if it is supplied to him for use for: (1) evaluation, planning, research or statistical purposes; or (2) any other prescribed purpose: s 114(5).

B. SPECIFIC GRANT-MAKING POWERS

68. Power of National Assembly for Wales to pay education standards grants.

The National Assembly for Wales<sup>1</sup> may pay grants<sup>2</sup>, known as education standards grants, to local education authorities<sup>3</sup> in Wales<sup>4</sup> in respect of eligible expenditure incurred or to be incurred by them<sup>5</sup>. 'Eligible expenditure' means expenditure of any class or description for the time being specified in regulations<sup>6</sup>, being expenditure for or in connection with educational purposes which it appears to the National Assembly for Wales that local education authorities should be encouraged to incur in the interests of education in Wales<sup>7</sup>.

The regulations must provide that any education standards grant payable in pursuance of the regulations is<sup>8</sup>: (1) only payable in respect of eligible expenditure incurred or to be incurred by a local education authority in a financial year<sup>9</sup> to the extent to which that expenditure is approved for that year by the National Assembly for Wales for the purposes of the regulations<sup>10</sup>; and (2) payable at such rate as may be specified in the regulations<sup>11</sup>. The regulations may provide for the time and manner of payment of any education standards grant<sup>12</sup>. The regulations may provide for expenditure incurred or to be incurred by any local education authority in making payments, whether by way of maintenance, assistance or otherwise, to any body or persons who incur expenditure for or in connection with educational purposes (including another local education authority) to be treated, in such circumstances as may be specified in the regulations, as eligible expenditure<sup>13</sup>.

75 Grants in respect of specific institutions

NOTE 4--Day now appointed in relation to Wales: SI 2007/3611.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(4) THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES/(iii) Provision for New Legal Frameworks for Schools/A. POWERS TO FACILITATE INNOVATION/76. Purpose of powers.

(iii) Provision for New Legal Frameworks for Schools

A. POWERS TO FACILITATE INNOVATION

76. Purpose of powers.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> and the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup> have powers<sup>3</sup> whose purpose is to facilitate the implementation by qualifying bodies<sup>4</sup> of innovative projects that may<sup>5</sup>:

- 129 (1) in the opinion of the Secretary of State, contribute to the raising of the educational standards achieved by children<sup>6</sup> in England<sup>7</sup>; or
- 130 (2) in the opinion of the National Assembly for Wales, contribute to the raising of the educational standards achieved by children in Wales<sup>8</sup>.

In forming an opinion as to whether a project may contribute to the raising of the educational standards achieved by children in England or Wales, the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales must:

- 131 (a) have regard to the need for the curriculum for any school affected by the project to be a balanced and broadly based curriculum which promotes the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of children and of society<sup>9</sup>; and
- 132 (b) consider the likely effect of the project on all the children who may be affected by it<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante.

2 See note 5 infra. As to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

4 For these purposes, 'qualifying body' means: (1) a local education authority; (2) an education action forum; (3) the governing body of a qualifying school; or (4) the proprietor of any special school that is not maintained by a local education authority but is for the time being approved by the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales under the Education Act 1996 s 342 (as substituted) (see PARAS 1028-1029 post); Education Act 2002 s 1(3) (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (see note 5 infra). 'Qualifying school' means: (a) a community, foundation or voluntary school or a community or foundation special school; (b) a maintained nursery school; (c) a city technology college; (d) a city college for the technology of the arts; or (e) an academy: s 1(3) (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (see note 5 infra). Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in the Education Act 2002, or in any Act amended by it, to a community, foundation or voluntary school or a community or foundation special school is to such a school within the meaning of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (see PARA 102 et seq post); Education Act 2002 s 212(5). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante; as to education action forums see PARA 453 et seq post; as to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq post; and as to special schools see PARA 1027 et seq post. As to the meanings of 'city technology college', 'city college for the technology of the arts' and 'academy' see PARA 496 post. For the meaning of 'proprietor' see PARA 60 note 7 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 212(2), (3). For the meaning of 'maintained nursery school' see PARA 36 note 6 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 212(2), (3). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 post; definition applied by virtue of s 212(2), (3). For the meaning of 'school maintained by a local education authority' see PARA 94 post.

5 Ibid s 1(1). Section 1 is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002 (except in relation to the definition of 'qualifying school' in s 1(3) (b) (see note 4 supra)) (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, art 3) and 1 September 2003 (for remaining purposes) (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/1667, art 4). However, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

6 For these purposes, 'children' means persons under the age of 19: Education Act 2002 s 1(3) (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (see note 5 supra).

7 Ibid s 1(1)(a) (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (see note 5 supra).

8 Ibid s 1(1)(b) (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (see note 5 supra).

9 Ibid s 1(2)(a) (not yet in force in relation to Wales) (see note 5 supra). INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL FRAMEWORK/(4) THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES/(iii) Provision for New Legal Frameworks for Schools/A. POWERS TO FACILITATE INNOVATION/77. Powers to suspend or modify statutory requirements.

77. Powers to suspend or modify statutory requirements.

On the application of one or more qualifying bodies<sup>1</sup> ('the applicant'), the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup>, in relation to England<sup>3</sup>, or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>4</sup>, in relation to Wales<sup>5</sup>, may<sup>6</sup> by order<sup>7</sup> make provision<sup>8</sup>:

- 133 (1) conferring on the applicant exemption from any requirement imposed by education legislation<sup>9</sup>;
- 134 (2) relaxing any such requirement in its application to the applicant<sup>10</sup>;
- 135 (3) enabling the applicant to exercise any function conferred by education legislation on any other qualifying body, either concurrently with or in place of that other body<sup>11</sup>;
- 136 (4) making such modifications<sup>12</sup> of any provision of education legislation, in its application to the applicant or any other qualifying body, as are in the opinion of the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>13</sup> consequential on any provision made by virtue of any of heads (1) to (3) above<sup>14</sup>.

An application for these purposes must be in such form, and contain such information, as may be required by the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the National Assembly for Wales<sup>15</sup>.

Before making such an application, the qualifying body must:

- 137 (a) in the case of an education action forum<sup>16</sup>, consult each local education authority<sup>17</sup> by whom any participating school<sup>18</sup> is maintained<sup>19</sup>;
- 138 (b) in the case of the governing body of a school maintained by a local education authority<sup>20</sup>, consult that authority<sup>21</sup>; and
- 139 (c) in any case, consult such persons as appear to the qualifying body to be appropriate, having regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the National Assembly for Wales<sup>22</sup>.

Before making such an order, the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>23</sup> must, if he or it considers it appropriate to do so, consult the Chief Inspector<sup>24</sup>.

The Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>25</sup> must refuse an application for such an order if it appears to the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>26</sup> that the proposed order would be likely to have a detrimental effect on the education of children<sup>27</sup> with special educational needs<sup>28</sup>. The Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>29</sup> may with the consent of the applicant include in such an order provisions different from those requested in the application<sup>30</sup>.

An order has effect during a period specified in the order which<sup>31</sup> must not exceed three years<sup>32</sup>.

The Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales<sup>33</sup> may from time to time give guidance as to the matters which he or it<sup>34</sup> will take into account in determining whether to grant applications for such orders<sup>35</sup>.

No order under these provisions<sup>36</sup>, except an amending or revoking order<sup>37</sup>, may be made after the end of the period of four years beginning with the commencement date<sup>38</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'qualifying body' see PARA 76 note 4 ante.

2 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

4 See note 8 infra. As to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

6 Ie under the Education Act 2002 Pt 1 Ch 1 (ss 1-5).

7 The power conferred on the Secretary of State and the National Assembly for Wales by ibid s 2 (see the text and note 8 infra) includes: (1) power by a further order made under s 2 on an application made for those purposes by one or more qualifying bodies to amend any order previously made under s 2 so as to extend: (a) the requirements or functions in relation to which the order applies; (b) the qualifying bodies to which it applies; or (c) subject to s 3(2), the period during which it has effect; and (2) power by a further order under s 2, which may be made without any application from a qualifying body, to revoke any order previously made under s 2: s 3(1). An order made under s 2 by virtue of head (1)(c) supra may, on one occasion only, extend the period for which a previous such order has effect by a period of not more than three years from the end of the period originally specified in the previous order: s 3(2). Section 3 is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, art 3); but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

Any power of the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales to make an order under the Education Act 2002 is exercisable by statutory instrument (s 210(1)), unless the order is one made under s 165 (as amended) (see PARA 486 post) or s 192 (see PARA 1015 post), or under s 19(6), Sch 1 para 3(6) (in relation to England, see PARA 228 post and, in relation to Wales, see PARA 278 post) or Sch 1 para 5 (in relation to England, see PARA 203 post and, in relation to Wales, see PARA 251 post) (s 210(2)). No order is to be made by the Secretary of State under s 80(3) (see PARA 914 post), s 82(4)(b) (see PARA 918 post), s 83(3) (see PARA 917 post), s 84(6) (see PARA 918 post), s 86 (see PARA 918 post) or s 125(4) (see PARA 864 post) unless a draft of the instrument containing the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament: s 210(3). A statutory instrument which contains any order made under the Education Act 2002 by the Secretary of State, and is not subject to the requirement in s 210(3) that a draft of the instrument be laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament (s 210(4)), unless the order is one made under s 7(2) (see PARA 79 post), s 87(2)(c) or s 87(3)(c) (see PARA 919 post), s 128(2) (see PARA 865 post), or s 216 (commencement) (s 210(5)).

Any power of the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales to make an order under the Education Act 2002 includes power: (i) to make different provisions for different cases or areas; (ii) to make provision generally or only in relation to specific cases; and (iii) to make such incidental, supplemental, saving or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State or the Assembly thinks fit (s 210(7)). Nothing in the Education Act 2002 is to be regarded as affecting the generality of s 210(7): s 210(8).

No order under s 2 (see the text and note 8 infra) which relates to ss 119-129 (teachers' pay and conditions: see PARA 861 et seq post) may be made by the National Assembly for Wales without the consent of the Secretary of State: s 2(4).

The effect of an order under s 2 (see the text and note 8 infra) is to be disregarded in determining for the purposes of the Regulatory Reform Act 2001 s 1 (power by order to make provision reforming law which imposes burdens: see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 380) whether any provision of an Act falls within the Regulatory Reform Act 2001 s 1(4)(b) (provisions amended by subordinate legislation within previous two years): Education Act 2002 s 2(9).

8 Ibid s 2(1). Section 2 is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, art 3); but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

The orders made under the Education Act 2002 s 2(1) are local in nature and are not recorded in this work.

9 Education Act 2002 s 2(1)(a). See note 8 supra. For these purposes, 'education legislation' means: (1) the Education Acts as defined by the Education Act 1996 s 578 (as amended) (see PARA 1 note 14 ante); (2) the Learning and Skills Act 2000; and (3) any subordinate legislation made under any of those Acts, where 'subordinate legislation' has the same meaning as in the Interpretation Act 1978 (see STATUTES vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1381): Education Act 2002 s 1(3).

10 Ibid s 2(1)(b). See note 8 supra.

11 Ibid s 2(1)(c). See note 8 supra.

12 As to the meaning of 'modifications' see PARA 43 note 7 ante; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 212(2), (3).

13 See note 8 supra.

14 Education Act 2002 s 2(1)(d). See note 8 supra.

15 Ibid s 4(1). Section 4 is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, art 3); but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

B. EXEMPTIONS RELATED TO SCHOOL PERFORMANCE

79. Exemptions available to qualifying schools.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Regulations<sup>2</sup> may:

- 140 (1) designate any curriculum provision<sup>3</sup> or pay and conditions provision<sup>4</sup> as attracting exemption as of right<sup>5</sup>;
- 141 (2) designate any curriculum provision or pay and conditions provision as attracting discretionary exemption<sup>6</sup>;
- 142 (3) designate modifications<sup>7</sup> of any curriculum provision or pay and conditions provision as being available as of right<sup>8</sup>; and
- 143 (4) designate modifications of any curriculum provision or pay and conditions provision as being available on a discretionary basis<sup>9</sup>.

On the application of the governing body of a qualifying school<sup>10</sup>, the Secretary of State, in relation to England, or the National Assembly for Wales, in relation to Wales, may by order<sup>11</sup>:

- 144 (a) provide that any pay and conditions provision which is designated under head (1) or head (2) above and specified in the order is not to apply in relation to school teachers employed at the school<sup>12</sup>;
- 145 (b) provide that any pay and conditions provision which is designated under head (3) or head (4) above is to apply in relation to school teachers employed at the school with modifications which are specified in the order and fall within the modifications designated as being available as of right or available on a discretionary basis<sup>13</sup>;
- 146 (c) provide that any curriculum provision which is designated under head (1) or head (2) above and specified in the order is not to apply in relation to the school<sup>14</sup>;
- 147 (d) provide that any curriculum provision which is designated under head (3) or head (4) above is to apply in relation to the school with modifications which are specified in the order and fall within the modifications designated as being available as of right or available on a discretionary basis<sup>15</sup>; or
- 148 (e) revoke or vary any order previously made under heads (a) to (d) above<sup>16</sup>.

Where such an application by a qualifying school relates only to exemption from provisions that are designated under head (1) above as attracting exemption as of right or to modifications that fall within the modifications designated under head (3) above as being available as of right (or only to such exemption and such modifications)<sup>17</sup> and does not relate to the revocation or variation of an order previously made under heads (a) to (e) above<sup>18</sup>, the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the National Assembly for Wales must make the order requested<sup>19</sup>.

An application for the purposes of heads (a) to (e) above must be in such form, and contain such information, as may be required by the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the National Assembly for Wales<sup>20</sup>.

Before making such an application, the governing body must:

- 149 (i) consult the local education authority<sup>21</sup>;
- 150 (ii) where the application relates to a curriculum provision, consult the parents<sup>22</sup> of registered pupils<sup>23</sup> at the school<sup>24</sup>;
- 151 (iii) where the application relates to a pay and conditions provision, consult each school teacher employed at the school<sup>25</sup>; and
- 152 (iv) in any case, consult such other persons as appear to be appropriate, having regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the National Assembly for Wales<sup>26</sup>.

The Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales may with the consent of the applicant include in an order under heads (a) to (e) above provisions different from those requested in the application<sup>27</sup>.

The Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales may from time to time give guidance as to the matters which he or it will take into account in determining whether to grant applications under heads (a) to (e) above which relate to<sup>28</sup>:

- 153 (A) provisions which are designated under head (2) above as attracting discretionary exemption<sup>29</sup>; or
- 154 (B) modifications which fall within the modifications designated under head (4) above as being available on a discretionary basis<sup>30</sup>.

1 The Education Act 2002 Pt 1 Ch 2 (ss 6-10) is to be brought into force by order made, in relation to England, by the Secretary of State or, in relation to Wales, by the National Assembly for Wales under s 216(4) as from a day to be appointed. At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante; and as to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'regulations' means regulations made under the Education Act 2002 by the Secretary of State (in relation to England) or by the National Assembly for Wales (in relation to Wales): s 212(1).

Any power of the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales to make regulations under the Education Act 2002 is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 210(1). A statutory instrument which contains any such regulations made by the Secretary of State is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 210(4). Any power of the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales to make regulations under the Education Act 2002 includes power: (1) to make different provisions for different cases or areas; (2) to make provision generally or only in relation to specific cases; and (3) to make such incidental, supplemental, saving or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales thinks fit: s 210(7). Nothing in the Education Act 2002 is to be regarded as affecting the generality of s 210(7): s 210(8).

3 For these purposes, 'curriculum provision' means: (1) in relation to a maintained school maintained by a local education authority in England, any provision of the National Curriculum for England; and (2) in relation to a maintained school maintained by a local education authority in Wales, any provision of the National Curriculum for Wales: ibid s 6(4). 'Maintained school' means a community, foundation or voluntary school or a community or foundation special school: s 6(4). For the meaning of 'school maintained by a local education authority' see PARA 94 post. As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to the National Curriculum for England see PARA 913 et seq; and as to the National Curriculum for Wales see PARA 926 et seq. As to community, foundation and voluntary schools and community and foundation special schools see PARA 102 post. For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 post; definition applied by virtue of s 212(2), (3). See note 1 supra.

4 For these purposes, 'pay and conditions provision' means any provision of an order under ibid s 122 (see PARA 864 post): s 6(4). No regulations under s 7(1) which relate to a pay and conditions provision may be made by the National Assembly for Wales without the consent of the Secretary of State: s 7(5). See note 1 supra.

Where an order under s 7(2) (see heads (a) to (e) in the text) which relates to a pay and conditions provision is in force in relation to a school: (1) the governing body must determine the remuneration and other conditions of employment of each school teacher employed at the school, to the extent that by virtue of the order the pay and conditions provisions do not apply to him; (2) the local education authority must do anything necessary to give effect to the governing body's determination under head (1) supra; and (3) pending a determination under head (1) supra, the terms on which a school teacher is employed at the school will remain unchanged, irrespective of any new order under s 122 except so far as applying to him despite the effect of the order under s 7(2): s 10(1). The Secretary of State may make regulations about the application of s 122(2) (see PARA 864 post) where an order under s 7(2) is revoked or the exemption conferred by it is restricted: s 10(2). For these purposes, 'the local education authority', in relation to a school maintained (or proposed to be maintained) by a local education authority, means that authority: s 212(1). 'School teacher' has the same meaning as in ibid s 122 (see PARA 864 note 3 post) (s 6(4)); and a school teacher is 'employed' at a school if he works at the school under a contract falling within s 122(3)(b), (c) and (d) (see PARA 864 post) (s 6(3)). See note 1 supra. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq post.

5 Ibid s 7(1)(a). See note 1 supra.

6 Ibid s 7(1)(b). See note 1 supra.

7 As to the meaning of 'modifications' see PARA 43 note 7 ante; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 212(2), (3).

8 Ibid s 7(1)(c). See note 1 supra.

9 Ibid s 7(1)(d). See note 1 supra.

10 For these purposes, a maintained school is a 'qualifying school' at any time if it is a school of a prescribed description which satisfies prescribed criteria relating to one or more of the following: (1) the performance of the school; (2) the quality of the leadership in the school; and (3) the quality of the management of the school: ibid s 6(1). The criteria prescribed for these purposes may include criteria referring to the opinion of the Chief Inspector, the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales: s 6(2). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations: s 212(1). 'The Chief Inspector' has the meaning given by s 1(3) (see PARA 77 note 24 ante): s 6(4). See note 1 supra.

11 Ibid s 7(2). See note 1 supra. An order under s 7(2) is not subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: see s 210(5); and PARA 77 note 7 ante.

12 Ibid s 7(2)(a). See note 1 supra.

13 Ibid s 7(2)(b). See note 1 supra.

14 Ibid s 7(2)(c). See note 1 supra.

15 Ibid s 7(2)(d). See note 1 supra.

16 Ibid s 7(2)(e). See note 1 supra.

17 Ibid s 7(3)(a). See note 1 supra.

18 Ibid s 7(3)(b). See note 1 supra.

19 Ibid s 7(3). See note 1 supra.

20 Ibid s 8(1). See note 1 supra.

21 Ibid s 8(2)(a). See note 1 supra.

22 As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 post; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 212(2), (3).

NOTE 2--See also Education Act 2002 s 210A (added by Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 para 79) (regulations under power conferred on Welsh Ministers after implementation of Government of Wales Act 2006) (not yet in force).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(1) SCHOOLS/81. Meaning of 'school' etc.

2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION

(1) SCHOOLS

81. Meaning of 'school' etc.

'School' means an educational institution which is outside the further education sector<sup>1</sup> and the higher education sector<sup>2</sup> and is an institution for providing primary education<sup>3</sup>, secondary education<sup>4</sup> or both primary and secondary education, whether or not the institution also provides further education<sup>5</sup>.

Most schools are maintained schools<sup>6</sup>, which receive funding from local education authorities<sup>7</sup> and which do not charge fees<sup>8</sup>. There are also non-maintained schools, generally known as independent schools, which often have charitable status and which are mainly financed by fees and income from investments<sup>9</sup>.

Children<sup>10</sup> under compulsory school age<sup>11</sup> may attend nursery schools<sup>12</sup>, and a primary school is a nursery school if it is used wholly or mainly for the purpose of providing education for children who have attained the age of two but are under compulsory school age<sup>13</sup>.

'Primary school' means a school for providing primary education, whether or not it also provides further education<sup>14</sup>.

A 'middle school' is a school<sup>15</sup> providing full-time education suitable to the requirements of pupils<sup>16</sup> who have attained a specified age below 10 years and six months and are under a specified age above 12 years<sup>17</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>18</sup> may make regulations for determining, or enabling him to determine, whether a middle school is to be treated for the purposes of the Education Act 1996 and the other enactments relating to education as a primary school or as a secondary school<sup>19</sup>.

'Secondary school' means a school for providing secondary education, whether or not it also provides further education<sup>20</sup>.

Certain maintained secondary schools in England may be designated as specialist schools, specialising in technology, languages, sports or arts in addition to providing the full National Curriculum<sup>21</sup>.

Education may also be provided by special schools<sup>22</sup> and by pupil referral units<sup>23</sup>. A school is a special school if it is specially organised to make special educational provision<sup>24</sup> for pupils with special educational needs<sup>25</sup> or, in the case of a school which is not maintained by a local education authority<sup>26</sup>, if it is for the time being approved as such by the Secretary of State<sup>27</sup>. Pupil referral units are schools established and maintained by local education authorities which are specially organised to provide education for children of compulsory school age who, by reason of illness, exclusion from school or otherwise, may not otherwise receive suitable education<sup>28</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'institution outside the further education sector' see PARA 579 post. As to further education generally see PARA 579 et seq post.

2 As to the meaning of 'institution outside the higher education sector' see PARA 646 post. As to higher education generally see PARA 646 et seq post.

5 Education Act 1996 s 4(1) (substituted by the Education Act 1997 s 51; and amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3). However, nothing in the Education Act 1996 s 4(1) (as substituted and amended) is to be taken to preclude the making of arrangements under s 19(1) (as amended) (exceptional educational provision: see PARA 457 post) under which part-time education is to be provided at a school: s 4(2) (amended by the Education Act 1997 s 57, Sch 7 para 10(a)). For the purposes of the Education Act 1996, an educational institution that would fall within s 4(1) (as substituted and amended) but for the fact that it provides part-time rather than full-time education must nevertheless be treated as a school if that part-time education is provided under arrangements made under s 19(1) (as amended) (see PARA 457 post): s 4(2) (amended by the Education Act 1997 Sch 7 para 10(a), (b), Sch 8).

An institution which would have become a school on the coming into force of the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 110(1) (by virtue of the Education Act 1996 s 4(1) (as substituted and amended)) is not to be treated as being a school by virtue of s 4(1) (as substituted and amended) unless it has been established as a new school in accordance with the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 28(1)(a) (see PARA 132 post) or s 28(2)(a) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales; prospectively further amended) (see PARA 132 post) or s 31(1)(a) (see PARA 136 post): Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 110(2), (3). A local education authority may not continue to maintain an institution which would have become a school on the coming into force of s 110(1) (by virtue of the Education Act 1996 s 4(1) (as substituted and amended)) in pursuance of the Education Act 1996 s 15A (as added and amended) (see PARA 27 ante): Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 110(2), (4). In relation to England, s 110(1), (2) came into force for certain purposes on 1 September 2000; s 100(1) came into force for the remaining purposes on 1 April 2001; s 100(2) came into force for the remaining purposes on 1 August 2002; s 110(3) came into force on 1 September 2000; and s 110(4) came into force on 1 August 2002: see the Learning and Skills Act 2000 (Commencement No 1) Order 2000, SI 2000/2114, art 2(3), Schedule Pt III; the Learning and Skills Act 2000 (Commencement No 3 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2001, SI 2001/654, art 2(2), Schedule Pt II; and the Learning and Skills Act 2000 (Commencement No 4) and Transitional Provisions Order 2002, SI 2002/279, art 2(3)(b). The Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 110 came wholly into force in relation to Wales on 1 April 2001: see the Learning and Skills Act 2000 (Commencement No 3 and Transitional Provisions) (Wales) Order 2001, SI 2001/1274, art 2(1), Schedule Pt I.

The powers conferred by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 28(4) (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 132 post) and the Education Act 1996 s 5(4) are exercisable notwithstanding anything in the Education Act 1996 (and in particular s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 14 ante)); but without prejudice to the exercise of any other power conferred by the Education Act 1996: s 5(5) (amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 30 paras 57, 59(b)). ## 82. Home-school agreements.

A 'home-school agreement' is a statement specifying:

- 155 (1) the school's aims and values<sup>1</sup>;
- 156 (2) the school's responsibilities, namely the responsibilities which the school intends to discharge in connection with the education of pupils<sup>2</sup> at the school who are of compulsory school age<sup>3</sup>;
- 157 (3) the parental responsibilities, namely the responsibilities which the parents<sup>4</sup> of such pupils are expected to discharge in connection with the education of their children while they are registered pupils<sup>5</sup> at the school<sup>6</sup>; and
- 158 (4) the school's expectations of its pupils, namely the expectations of the school as regards the conduct of such pupils while they are registered pupils there<sup>7</sup>.

The governing body<sup>8</sup> of a school which is a maintained school<sup>9</sup>, or a city technology college<sup>10</sup>, a city college for the technology of the arts<sup>11</sup> or an academy<sup>12</sup>, must adopt a home-school agreement for the school, together with a parental declaration<sup>13</sup> to be used in connection with the agreement<sup>14</sup>. It must also take reasonable steps to secure that the parental declaration is signed by every qualifying parent<sup>15</sup>. This does not, however, require the governing body to seek the signature of a qualifying parent if, having regard to any special circumstances relating to the parent or the pupil in question, it considers that it would be inappropriate to do so<sup>16</sup>. Where the governing body considers that a registered pupil at the school has a sufficient understanding of the home-school agreement as it relates to him, it may invite the pupil to sign the parental declaration as an indication that he acknowledges and accepts the school's expectations of its pupils<sup>17</sup>. The governing body must from time to time review the home-school agreement<sup>18</sup>. Before adopting the home-school agreement or parental declaration, or revising that agreement, the governing body must consult all qualifying parents<sup>19</sup>, and such other persons as may be prescribed<sup>20</sup>.

In discharging any of the above functions<sup>21</sup> the governing body of a school must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>22</sup>. If the Secretary of State by order so provides<sup>23</sup>, the governing body of a maintained school, a city technology college, a city college for the technology of the arts or an academy<sup>24</sup> must ensure that any form of words specified in the order, or having such effect as is so specified, is not used in a home-school agreement or, as the case may be, in a parental declaration<sup>25</sup>. Neither the governing body of such a school nor the local education authority<sup>26</sup> where it is the admission authority<sup>27</sup> for such a school may:

- 159 (a) invite any person to sign the parental declaration at a time when the child in question has not been admitted to the school<sup>28</sup>;
- 160 (b) make it a condition of a child being admitted to the school that the parental declaration is signed in respect of the child<sup>29</sup>; or
- 161 (c) make any decision as to whether or not to admit a child to the school by reference to whether any such declaration is or is not likely to be signed in respect of the child<sup>30</sup>.

No person may be excluded<sup>31</sup> from such a school or suffer any other adverse consequences on account of any failure to comply with any invitation to sign the parental declaration<sup>32</sup>.

A home-school agreement is not capable of creating any obligation in respect of whose breach any liability arises in contract or in tort<sup>33</sup>.

9 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 110(1)(a). For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 post. The reference to a maintained school in s 110(1)(a) is modified in relation to the period prior to 1 September 1999: see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (Home-School Agreements) (Modification) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/2834 (revoked, in relation to England, by SI 2003/2694).

10 As to the meaning of 'city technology college' see PARA 496 note 31 post; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

11 As to the meaning of 'city college for the technology of the arts' see PARA 496 note 32 post; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 142(8).

12 Ibid s 110(1)(b) (amended by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 149, Sch 9 paras 1, 85; and the Education Act 2002 s 65(3), Sch 7 Pt 2 para 9). As to the meaning of 'academy' see PARA 496 note 29 post; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

13 For these purposes, 'parental declaration' means a document to be used by qualifying parents for recording that they take note of the school's aims and values and its responsibilities and that they acknowledge and accept the parental responsibilities and the school's expectations of its pupils: ibid s 110(2). 'Qualifying parent' means a registered parent of a pupil at the school who is of compulsory school age: s 110(10).

14 Ibid s 110(1).

15 Ibid s 110(3). The governing body must discharge its duty under s 110(3), in the case of a pupil attending the school on the relevant date, as soon after that date as is reasonably practicable and, in the case of a pupil admitted to the school after the relevant date, as soon after the date of his admission as is reasonably practicable: s 110(6). For these purposes, 'the relevant date' means such date as the Secretary of State may by order appoint or such later date as he may determine in the case of the school in question: s 110(10). The appointed relevant date is 1 September 1999: see the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (Home-School Agreements) (Appointed Day) Order 1998, SI 1998/2877.

Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order or regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, except an order under s 11(5) (see PARA 455 post), s 20(5) (see PARA 102 post), s 21(8) (see PARA 104 post), s 73 (see PARA 391 post), s 82 (as amended) (see PARA 117 post), s 111(3)(a) (see note 23 infra) or s 142(1) or under Sch 5 para 5 (see PARA 128 post), Sch 7 para 2 (prospectively amended) (see PARAS 166, 184, 193 post) or Sch 7 para 3 (prospectively amended) (see PARAS 167, 185, 194 post), Sch 14 para 1 (see PARA 319 post), Sch 21 para 10 (see PARA 1404 post), Sch 22 para 4(2) (see PARA 1368 post), Sch 22 para 7(3)(c) (see PARA 1374 post) or Sch 32 para 5(3) (see PARA 320 post), must be exercised by statutory instrument (s 138(1), (2) (s 138(2) amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3)). A statutory instrument containing any such order or regulations is generally subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 138(3). However, s 138(3) does not apply to any order under s 20(7) (see PARA 102 post), s 45C(2) (as added; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) (see PARA 314 post), s 69(3) (see PARA 951 post), s 85(5) (see PARA 394 post), s 104 (see PARA 438 post), s 110(10) (definition of 'relevant date') or s 145 (commencement) or under Sch 32 para 1 (transitional provisions): s 138(4) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 111, Sch 22 Pt 3). Nor does the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 138(3) apply to any order under s 1(5) (see PARA 405 post); and no such order or regulations are to be made (whether alone or with other provisions) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the order or regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament: s 138(5)(a) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 22 Pt 3). The reference in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 138(4) (as amended) to s 45C(2) (as added; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) comes into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). In relation to England the appointed day is 1 October 2002 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, art 3) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. As from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (3)(a), the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 138(4) (as amended) is further amended to include a reference to s 29(9A) (prospectively added) (see PARA 134 post): s 138(4) (prospectively amended by the Education Act 2005 s 72, Sch 12 para 9). However, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

Any order or regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 may make different provision for different cases, circumstances or areas; may contain such incidental, supplemental, saving or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State thinks fit (s 138(7)); and may make different provision in relation to England and Wales respectively (s 138(8)). Nothing in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 is to be read as affecting the generality of s 138(7): s 138(9). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

17 Ibid s 110(5). Where the governing body decides to exercise its power under s 110(5), it must exercise it, in the case of a pupil attending the school on the relevant date (see note 15 supra), as soon after that date as is reasonably practicable and, in the case of a pupil admitted to the school after the relevant date, as soon after the date of his admission as is reasonably practicable: s 110(6).

18 Ibid s 110(7). Where the home-school agreement is revised by the governing body following such a review, the provisions of s 110(3)-(6) (see the text and notes 15-17 supra), in the case of pupils admitted to the school after the revision takes effect, accordingly apply in relation to the revised agreement: s 110(8).

19 Ibid s 110(9)(a).

20 Ibid s 110(9)(b). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations; and 'regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such regulations had been made.

23 Such an order may apply to any school specified in the order (School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 111(3)(a)), or to any description of school so specified (s 111(3)(b)). Such an order is not to be made by statutory instrument: see s 138(2) (as amended); and note 15 supra.

24 Ie a school to which ibid s 110(1) (as amended) applies: see the text and notes 8-14 supra.

83. Learning agreements.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may require a learning agreement<sup>2</sup> to be in the prescribed form and to be signed by the student and by or on behalf of such other persons as may be prescribed<sup>3</sup>. Regulations may also:

- 162 (1) provide that a person is not eligible to receive an allowance unless the person providing the relevant education or training holds a learning agreement signed by him<sup>4</sup>;
- 163 (2) provide that payment of an allowance is conditional on the person providing the relevant education or training from time to time determining that the student has complied with the learning agreement or has done so to a prescribed extent or in prescribed respects<sup>5</sup>;
- 164 (3) enable or require a learning agreement to specify targets relating to the attendance, conduct or attainments of the student<sup>6</sup>;
- 165 (4) enable or require the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup>, in any case where the person providing the relevant education or training determines that targets have been met, to make additional payments of allowance to or in respect of the student<sup>8</sup>; and

A learning agreement is not capable of creating any obligation in respect of whose breach any liability arises in contract or in tort<sup>12</sup>.

1 'Regulations' means regulations made under the Education Act 2002 by the Secretary of State (in relation to England) or by the National Assembly for Wales (in relation to Wales): s 212(1). 'Allowance' means an allowance under s 181 (see PARA 540 post); and 'relevant education or training' means the education or training referred to in s 181: s 182(8). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations: s 212(1). See note 1 supra.

84. Educational records.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may make provision as to:

- 167 (1) the keeping, disclosure and transfer of educational records about persons receiving education at any school maintained by a local education authority<sup>2</sup>, and any special school<sup>3</sup> not maintained by a local education authority<sup>4</sup>; and
- 168 (2) the supply of copies of such records to such persons, and in such circumstances, as may be determined by or under the regulations<sup>5</sup>.

The regulations may authorise persons who supply copies of such records in pursuance of the regulations to charge such fee as they think fit, not exceeding the cost of supply, in respect of each copy so supplied<sup>6</sup>.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(2) NURSERY EDUCATION/(ii) Duties of the Local Education Authority/86. Duty of local education authority as respects availability of nursery education.

(ii) Duties of the Local Education Authority

86. Duty of local education authority as respects availability of nursery education.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> must secure that the provision, whether or not by it, of nursery education<sup>2</sup> for children<sup>3</sup> who have not attained compulsory school age<sup>4</sup>, but who have attained such age as may be prescribed<sup>5</sup>, is sufficient for its area<sup>6</sup>. In determining for these purposes whether the provision of such education is sufficient for its area, a local education authority may have regard to any facilities which it expects to be available outside its area for providing such education<sup>7</sup>, and must have regard to any guidance given from time to time<sup>8</sup>.

Where a local education authority, in pursuance of this duty<sup>9</sup>, makes arrangements with a person, other than the governing body of a maintained school<sup>10</sup>, for the provision by that person of nursery education<sup>11</sup> in consideration of financial assistance provided by the authority under the arrangements<sup>12</sup>, it must:

- 169 (1) in making the arrangements, have regard to any guidance given from time to time as to provision to be made in such arrangements in respect of the requirements to be met by the provider of the nursery education<sup>13</sup>; and
- 170 (2) exercise its functions with a view to securing that the provider meets any requirements imposed on him by the arrangements<sup>14</sup>.

Subject to any guidance given under head (1) above, the requirements imposed by the arrangements may, in particular, if any specified conditions are not satisfied, require the repayment of the whole or any part of any financial assistance provided by the local education authority under the arrangements<sup>15</sup>.

NOTE 3--Day now appointed in relation to Wales: SI 2006/885.

NOTES 5, 8--SI 2003/893 regs 5, 6 revoked: SI 2006/877.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(2) NURSERY EDUCATION/(ii) Duties of the Local Education Authority/89. Approval, modification and review of early years development and childcare plans in Wales.

89. Approval, modification and review of early years development and childcare plans in Wales.

Where an early years development and childcare plan has been prepared<sup>1</sup>, the local education authority<sup>2</sup> must, by such date as may be determined by or in accordance with regulations<sup>3</sup>, submit the plan to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>4</sup> for it to approve<sup>5</sup>. The Assembly may in the case of any plan submitted to it<sup>6</sup>:

- 171 (1) approve the plan in any of the following ways, namely, wholly or in part, for a limited period of time, or subject to conditions<sup>7</sup>;
- 172 (2) require the authority to make such modifications<sup>8</sup> to the plan as the Assembly may specify<sup>9</sup>; or
- 173 (3) reject the plan<sup>10</sup>.

If the Assembly approves the plan<sup>11</sup> it must notify the authority of its decision<sup>12</sup>, and the authority must implement the plan, so far as approved by the Assembly, as from such date as it may determine<sup>13</sup>. If the Assembly requires the authority to make modifications or rejects the plan<sup>14</sup>, it must notify the authority of its decision and of its reasons for it<sup>15</sup>, and the authority must prepare a revised plan and submit it to the Assembly for its approval by such date as it may determine<sup>16</sup>.

Once the Assembly has approved an authority's plan<sup>17</sup>, it must keep under review the plan, as so approved, and its implementation by the authority<sup>18</sup>, and:

- 174 (a) where the Assembly is of the opinion that the plan should be modified (or further modified), it may withdraw its approval and require the authority to make such modifications to the plan as it may specify<sup>19</sup>; and
- 175 (b) where the Assembly is of the opinion that the authority's plan is not being properly implemented by the authority, it may withdraw its approval for such period as it thinks fit<sup>20</sup>.

If the Assembly withdraws its approval<sup>21</sup> of a plan<sup>22</sup>, it must notify the authority of its decision and of its reasons for it<sup>23</sup>; and, in a case falling within head (a) above, the authority must prepare a revised plan and submit it to the Assembly for its approval by such date as it may determine<sup>24</sup>.

At any time after the Assembly has approved<sup>25</sup> an authority's plan<sup>26</sup>:

- 176 (i) the authority may, with the agreement of the early years development and childcare partnership<sup>27</sup>, submit modifications to the plan to the Assembly for its approval<sup>28</sup>; and
- 177 (ii) the Assembly may approve the modifications, whether in whole or in part, for a limited period of time, or subject to conditions<sup>29</sup>; and
- 178 (iii) if and to the extent that the Assembly approves those modifications, it must notify the authority of its decision and the plan has effect with the modifications, and the authority must implement its plan as modified, as from such date as the Assembly may determine<sup>30</sup>.

Once the Assembly has approved an authority's plan<sup>31</sup>, or the modification of an authority's plan<sup>32</sup>, the authority must publish its plan (or its plan as so modified) in such manner and by such date as may be prescribed<sup>33</sup>, and must provide such persons as may be prescribed with copies of that plan or of a summary of that plan<sup>34</sup>.

(iii) Funded Nursery Education in Wales

90. General grant-making powers.

The power conferred by the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 to make grants in respect of nursery education<sup>1</sup> has been superseded by the general grant-making powers contained in the Education Act 2002<sup>2</sup>. However, the relevant provisions of that Act have not yet been commenced in relation to Wales<sup>3</sup>. Until such time as the new regime contained in the Education Act 2002 is brought into force in relation to Wales, the regime contained in the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 continues to apply in relation to Wales<sup>4</sup>.

1     Ie the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 ss 1-4 (as amended; repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales): see PARAS 91-92 post. For the meaning of 'nursery education' see PARA 85 ante.

91. Grants in respect of nursery education in Wales.

The National Assembly for Wales<sup>1</sup> may make arrangements for the making of grants in respect of nursery education in Wales<sup>2</sup>. For these purposes, 'nursery education' is education provided for children, whether at schools<sup>3</sup> or other premises, before they begin to be of compulsory school age, but after such earlier time as may be prescribed, whether by reference to their having attained a particular age or any other circumstances<sup>4</sup>.

Such grants may be made to local education authorities<sup>5</sup> in respect of nursery education provided at schools maintained by them<sup>6</sup>, and to authorities and other persons of such descriptions as may be prescribed<sup>7</sup> in respect of nursery education provided by them<sup>8</sup>. An authority or other person to whom a grant is made under such arrangements<sup>9</sup> must comply with such requirements as may be imposed by or in accordance with the arrangements<sup>10</sup>. Such requirements: (1) may be imposed on, or at any time after, the making of any grant by reference to which they are imposed<sup>11</sup>; (2) may at any time be varied, waived or removed<sup>12</sup>; and (3) may in particular, if any specified conditions are satisfied, require the repayment of the whole or any part of any grant to which they relate<sup>13</sup>.

The amount of such a grant must be determined in such manner as may be prescribed<sup>14</sup>, and regulations may, in particular, provide for the determination to be made by reference to an amount, or amounts, specified for the purpose by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>15</sup>. The times at which, and the manner in which, grants are paid are such as may be determined by the arrangements<sup>16</sup>.

Nothing is to be taken to prevent or afford any right of appeal against a refusal by any authority or person to provide, or continue to provide, a child<sup>17</sup> with a place for nursery education at a maintained school<sup>18</sup> if the reason for the refusal is that a relevant condition<sup>19</sup> has not been complied with in relation to the child<sup>20</sup>.

Arrangements under the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 s 1 (as amended; repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see the text and notes 2-20 infra) may provide for grants to be made, or other functions relating to grants to be exercised, otherwise than by the National Assembly for Wales: s 2(1). There must be paid out of money provided by Parliament: (1) any sums required by the National Assembly for Wales for making grants under arrangements under s 1 (as amended) or for making payments to any person exercising any function by virtue of s 2; (2) any administrative expenses incurred by the National Assembly for Wales under the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996; and (3) any increase attributable to that Act in sums payable out of money provided by Parliament under any other Act: s 9(1).

That code of practice may include practical guidance in respect of the provision of funded nursery education for children with special educational needs<sup>5</sup> in circumstances where functions under Part IV of the Education Act 1996 do not fall to be discharged<sup>6</sup>.

1 Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 s 4(1)(a). For these purposes, 'funded nursery education' means nursery education in respect of which the National Assembly for Wales is making, or is to make, grants under arrangements under s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 91 ante): s 4(4). For the meaning of 'nursery education' see PARA 85 ante. As to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

Sections 2-11 (as amended) are repealed by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3 as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). Unless that code of practice includes provision made by virtue of the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 s 4(2) (as amended) the National Assembly for Wales must publish a document explaining how the practical guidance contained in that code applies in circumstances where functions under the Education Act 1996 Pt IV (as amended) do not fall to be discharged; and the duty imposed by the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 s 4(1) (as amended) (see the text and notes 1-4 supra) includes a duty to have regard to the provisions of that document: s 4(3) (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 131). #### (iv) Provision of Teaching Services

93. Arrangements to provide teaching services for day nurseries.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may, in accordance with arrangements made by it for that purpose, make available to a day nursery<sup>2</sup> the services of any teacher who is employed by it in a nursery school<sup>3</sup> or in a primary school<sup>4</sup> having one or more nursery classes and who has agreed to provide his services for the purposes of the arrangements<sup>5</sup>. No such arrangements may be made except at the request of the local education authority and on terms approved by it<sup>10</sup>.

Arrangements<sup>11</sup> may make provision: (1) for the supply of equipment for use in connection with the teaching services made available under the arrangements<sup>12</sup>; (2) for regulating the respective functions of any teacher whose services are made available under the arrangements, the head teacher<sup>13</sup> of his school and the person in charge of the day nursery<sup>14</sup>; and (3) for any supplementary or incidental matters connected with the arrangements, including, where the teacher's school and the day nursery are in the areas of different local education authorities, financial adjustments between those authorities<sup>15</sup>.

A teacher is not to be regarded as ceasing to be a member of the teaching staff of his school and subject to the general directions of his head teacher by reason only of his services being made available in pursuance of arrangements as described above<sup>16</sup>.

99. Code of practice for securing effective relationships between local education authorities and maintained schools.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> must issue, and may from time to time revise, a code of practice<sup>2</sup> containing such practical guidance as he thinks appropriate with a view to securing effective relationships between local education authorities<sup>3</sup> and the schools maintained by them<sup>4</sup>:

- 186 (1) in relation to promoting high standards of education in such schools<sup>5</sup>; and
- 187 (2) in relation to the discharge of relevant functions<sup>6</sup> of such authorities in relation to such schools<sup>7</sup>.

The Secretary of State must publish the code as for the time being in force<sup>8</sup>.

In discharging their functions in relation to any maintained school<sup>9</sup> or any maintained nursery school<sup>10</sup>, it is the duty of the local education authority, the governing body<sup>11</sup>, and the head teacher<sup>12</sup> to have regard to any relevant provisions of the code<sup>13</sup>.

For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

TEXT AND NOTE 7--Now, head (2) in relation to the discharge of such functions as the Assembly may determine for these purposes which are functions exercisable by or on behalf of such authorities in relation to such schools: 1998 Act s 127(1)(b) (substituted by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 58(2)(d)).

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(i) In general/100. Partnership agreements and statements between local education authorities and governing bodies in Wales.

100. Partnership agreements and statements between local education authorities and governing bodies in Wales.

The National Assembly for Wales<sup>1</sup> may by regulations<sup>2</sup> require any local education authority<sup>3</sup> in Wales to enter into a partnership agreement<sup>4</sup> with the governing body of each school maintained by that authority, or each such school of a prescribed class<sup>5</sup>.

Where a local education authority fails to reach agreement with the governing body of a school<sup>6</sup>, the authority may draw up a statement setting out how it and the governing body are to discharge their respective functions<sup>7</sup> in relation to the school<sup>8</sup>.

Regulations<sup>9</sup> may:

- 188 (1) require the parties to a partnership agreement to review the agreement<sup>10</sup>;
and
- 189 (2) require a local education authority that has drawn up a statement<sup>11</sup> and the governing body to which that statement relates to review the statement<sup>12</sup>, at such intervals, or in such circumstances, as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>.

Following a review of a partnership agreement, the parties may agree:

- 190 (a) not to change the agreement<sup>14</sup>;
- 191 (b) to amend the agreement in such a manner that it remains a partnership agreement<sup>15</sup>; or
- 192 (c) to replace the agreement with a new partnership agreement<sup>16</sup>.

However, where they fail to do so, the provisions allowing an authority to draw up a statement setting out how it and the governing body are to discharge their respective functions in relation to the school apply<sup>17</sup>.

Following a review of a statement<sup>18</sup>, the local education authority and governing body in question may agree to replace the statement with a partnership agreement, but, where they fail to do so, the authority may amend the statement or draw up a new one<sup>19</sup>. Regulations may make provision for the time by which a local education authority or governing body must comply with any requirement imposed<sup>20</sup> upon them<sup>21</sup>.

In the discharge of their functions in relation to a school maintained by a local education authority<sup>22</sup> in Wales, both the authority and the governing body and head teacher<sup>23</sup> of the school must have regard to any partnership agreement or statement<sup>24</sup> which for the time being has effect in relation to the school<sup>25</sup>.

As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante.

12 Ie the appointed day: see note 3 supra.

13 Before 1 September 1999, a primary or secondary school which was maintained by a local education authority was a county school if: (1) it was established by a local education authority (Education Act 1996 s 31(1)(a) (repealed)); or (2) it was not so established but (a) it had been maintained as a county school since before 1 November 1996; or (b) it was maintained as a county school in pursuance of proposals under s 35(1)

(b) (repealed) (proposals to maintain as a county school a school not for the time being a county school); or (c) it was maintained as a county school in pursuance of an order under s 50 (repealed) (division of a county school) (s 31(1)(b) (repealed)). Nothing in s 31 (repealed) applied to a nursery school, a special school or a pupil referral unit within the meaning of s 19 (as amended) (exceptional provision of education in pupil referral units or elsewhere: see PARA 457 post): s 31(3) (repealed). County schools are now community schools: see PARA 105 post.

14 Before 1 September 1999, there were three categories of voluntary school: (1) controlled schools; (2) aided schools; and (3) special agreement schools: ibid s 32(1) (repealed). The category of a voluntary school depended on whether or not an order had been made in relation to it: see s 32(2)-(4) (repealed). A primary or secondary school which was maintained by a local education authority was a voluntary school if it was not within s 31(1)(a) (repealed) (see note 13 supra) or s 31(1)(b) (repealed) (see note 13 supra): s 31(2) (repealed). Controlled schools are now voluntary controlled schools; and aided schools and special agreement schools are now voluntary aided schools: see PARA 105 post.

15 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 20(3)(a). Before 1 September 1999, a special school was a maintained special school if it was maintained by a local education authority: see the Education Act 1996 s 33(1) (repealed), s 337(3) (as originally enacted). Maintained special schools are now community special schools: see PARA 105 post.

16 Before 1 September 1999, a school conducted by a governing body incorporated under ibid Pt III (ss 183-311) (repealed), the Education Act 1993 Pt II (ss 22-155) (repealed) or the Education Reform Act 1988 Pt I Ch IV (ss 52-104) (repealed) for the purpose of conducting the school was known as a grant-maintained school: see the Education Act 1996 s 183(1) (repealed). Under the Education Act 1996, a grant-maintained school had to be either a secondary school or a primary school: s 183(3) (repealed). As to the allocation of grant-maintained schools to the categories of schools introduced by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 see PARA 106 et seq post.

17 Ibid s 20(3)(b). Before 1 September 1999, a special school was a grant-maintained special school if it was conducted by a governing body incorporated in pursuance of proposals for the purpose made by the funding authority under the Education Act 1996 s 339 (repealed) (establishment of maintained or grant-maintained special schools) or under the Education Act 1993 s 183 (repealed) (establishment of maintained or grant-maintained special schools), or made under the Education Act 1996 s 345 (repealed) (maintained special school becoming grant-maintained special school) or the Education Act 1993 s 186 (repealed) (maintained special school becoming grant-maintained special school): see the Education Act 1996 s 337(4) (as originally enacted). As to the allocation of grant-maintained special schools to the categories of schools introduced by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 see PARA 106 et seq post.

18 Ie the appointed day: see note 3 supra.

19 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 20(4)(a).

20 Ibid s 20(4)(b). However, where a grant-maintained school within s 20(3)(b) (see head (ii) in the text) was, immediately before becoming such a school, maintained by a local education authority ('the former maintaining authority') other than the one within whose area it was then situated, and remained outside the area of the former maintaining authority immediately before 1 September 1999 (ie the appointed day: see note 3 supra), nevertheless, if an order made by the Secretary of State before 1 September 1999 so provides, as from that day the school is to be maintained (as a school falling within one of the categories set out in s 20(1) (see heads (1) to (5) in the text)) by the former maintaining authority rather than the authority in whose area it was situated on that day: s 20(5). Such an order was not to be made by statutory instrument: see s 138(2) (as amended); and PARA 82 note 15 ante. The Secretary of State could only make an order under s 20(5) where he considered it appropriate to do so on an application made for the purpose by the former maintaining authority (within the meaning of s 20(5)) or the local education authority in whose area the school in question was situated immediately before 1 September 1999, and received by him not later than 30 November 1998: see s 144(7), Sch 32 para 8.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(ii) Categories of Maintained Schools/A. DIVISION OF MAINTAINED SCHOOLS INTO CATEGORIES/104. Foundation and voluntary schools.

104. Foundation and voluntary schools.

In the case of a foundation school, the school premises<sup>1</sup> are owned either by the governing body<sup>2</sup> or by a charitable foundation<sup>3</sup>, and the governing body employs the staff<sup>4</sup> and is responsible for admissions<sup>5</sup>. There are three kinds of foundation school:

- 202 (1) those having a foundation<sup>6</sup> established otherwise than under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>7</sup>;
- 203 (2) those belonging to a group of schools for which a foundation body acts under the provisions relating to foundation schools and types of foundations<sup>8</sup>; and
- 204 (3) those not falling within either of heads (1) and (2) above<sup>9</sup>.

A voluntary school is maintained by the local education authority<sup>10</sup>, although the school premises are generally owned by a charitable foundation. In the case of a voluntary aided school, the governing body contributes towards the capital costs of running the school<sup>11</sup>, employs the staff, and is responsible for admissions. In the case of a voluntary controlled school, the local education authority employs the staff and is responsible for admissions. There are three kinds of voluntary controlled or voluntary aided school:

- 205 (a) those having a foundation established otherwise than under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>12</sup>;
- 206 (b) those belonging to a group of schools for which a foundation body acts under the provisions relating to voluntary schools and types of foundations<sup>13</sup>; and
- 207 (c) those not falling within either of heads (a) and (b) above but having been, immediately before 1 September 1999<sup>14</sup>, either a voluntary school<sup>15</sup> or a grant-maintained school<sup>16</sup> that was a voluntary school immediately before becoming grant-maintained<sup>17</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>18</sup> may by regulations<sup>19</sup> make provision for and in connection with the establishment, membership, functions and winding up of a foundation body<sup>20</sup>, and the steps to be taken in connection with schools joining or leaving the group<sup>21</sup>. Such regulations may, in particular, make provision:

- 208 (i) with respect to the transfer of property, rights and liabilities<sup>22</sup> to and from a foundation body when schools join or leave the group but do not change category<sup>23</sup>;
- 209 (ii) with respect to the revision or replacement of the instruments of government of schools joining or leaving the group in such circumstances and the reconstitution of their governing bodies<sup>24</sup>;
- 210 (iii) authorising a foundation body to appoint foundation governors to every school in the group<sup>25</sup>;
- 211 (iv) prescribing a model instrument of government for adoption by a foundation body subject to variations approved by the Secretary of State<sup>26</sup>;
- 212 (v) for conferring functions with respect to the resolution of disputes between schools in the group, or between one or more such schools and a foundation body, on such person or body as may be specified in the regulations<sup>27</sup>;
- 213 (vi) in connection with a school leaving the group:

10. (A) for requiring the publication of proposals<sup>28</sup> as to the procedure for changing the category of a school<sup>29</sup>;
11. (B) for enabling the Secretary of State to require the publication<sup>30</sup> of proposals for the school to become a school of a category specified by him<sup>31</sup>;
12. (C) for preventing a voluntary school from becoming one falling within head (a) above unless any specified conditions<sup>32</sup> are satisfied in relation to the school<sup>33</sup>;

- 214 (vii) for the dissolution of a foundation body by order of the Secretary of State<sup>34</sup>;
- 215 (viii) for enabling the Secretary of State, in the case of any land held by a foundation body immediately before its dissolution which by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 could not be disposed of without his consent, to determine how that land is to be dealt with on its dissolution<sup>35</sup>;
- 216 (ix) for conferring functions on school organisation committees<sup>36</sup> and adjudicators<sup>37</sup>, including any functions which might otherwise be conferred on the Secretary of State<sup>38</sup>.

The Secretary of State may, after consulting a foundation body, make an order modifying<sup>39</sup> the instrument of government adopted by that body<sup>40</sup>.

1 As to school premises see PARA 1352 et seq post.

2 As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq post.

3 As to the charitable status of maintained schools see PARA 97 ante. As to charities generally see CHARITIES.

4 As to staffing of schools see PARA 354 et seq post.

5 As to admission generally see PARA 392 et seq post.

6 'Foundation', in relation to a foundation or voluntary school, means: (1) any body of persons (whether incorporated or not but excluding the governing body) which holds land on trust for the purposes of the school; or (2) a foundation body: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 21(3)(a). A school 'has' a foundation if such a body of persons exists for holding land on trust for the purposes of the school, or if the school belongs to a group of schools for which a foundation body acts under s 21: s 21(3)(b). References to land or other property held on trust, or by trustees, for the purposes of a school include references to land or other property which: (a) is held on trust for purposes which (whether the trust deed expressly so provides or not) include the purposes of the school; and (b) is used for the purposes of the school: s 21(3)(c). As to the meaning of 'land' see PARA 1352 note 9 post; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). 'Trust deed' includes any instrument (other than an instrument of government) regulating the constitution of the school's governing body or the maintenance, management or conduct of the school: Education Act 1996 s 579(1) (definition substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 57, 183(a)(iv)); definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

'Foundation body' means a body corporate established under s 21 to perform, in relation to three or more schools each of which is either a foundation or a voluntary school, the following functions, namely: (i) to hold property of those schools for the purposes of the schools; and (ii) to appoint foundation governors for those schools: s 21(4)(a). 'The group', in relation to a foundation body, means the group of three or more schools for which the body performs those functions: s 21(4)(b). In relation to a foundation school, a foundation special school or a voluntary school, 'foundation governor' means a person appointed as a foundation governor in accordance with regulations under the Education Act 2002 s 19 (see PARA 203 post): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(1) (definition added by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 112). ### 104 Foundation and voluntary schools

NOTE 6--The 1998 Act s 21(3) applies to foundation special schools, as it applies in relation to foundation and voluntary schools, with specified modifications: School Organisation (Foundation Special Schools) (Application of Provisions Relating to Foundations) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/1329.

Provision is made concerning requirements as to foundation or foundation special schools having a foundation where one or more of the following conditions is met: (1) the school was established as a foundation or foundation special school in pursuance of proposals falling to be implemented under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 2; (2) the school acquired its foundation, or became a school whose instrument of government provides for the majority of governors to be foundation governors, in pursuance of proposals falling to be implemented under regulations under s 24; (3) the school changed category from voluntary aided school to foundation school in pursuance of proposals falling to be implemented under regulations under s 24 and has an instrument of government providing for the majority of governors to be foundation governors: 1998 Act s 23A(1)-(4) (ss 23A, 23B added by the 2006 Act s 33(1)). Where one or more of these conditions is met (a) the institution acting as the foundation must be incorporated and must be a charity having a purpose of the advancement of the education of pupils at the school or schools in respect of which it acts as the foundation (1998 Act s 23A(5)); (b) the foundation must, in carrying out its functions in relation to the school, promote community cohesion (s 23A(6)); (c) where any members or charity trustees of the foundation are local authorities or persons appointed by local authorities, those members or charity trustees may have no more than 20 per cent of the total voting rights exercisable by members or charity trustees (see s 23A(7), (8)); (d) regulations may disqualify persons from acting as charity trustee in relation to a foundation or foundation special school (s 23A(9)); and (e) regulations may make provision enabling the Secretary of State in prescribed cases by direction to remove any charity trustee of a foundation or foundation special school and to appoint a person to be such a charity trustee (see s 23B). In certain circumstances, the Secretary of State may order that land held by the body corporate on trust for a foundation or foundation special school to which s 23A applies is to be transferred to the governing body of the school: see Sch 22 paras 8A, 9(1) (Sch 22 para 8A added, Sch 22 para 9(1) amended, by the 2006 Act Sch 4 paras 13, 14). ### (A) SCHOOLS MAINTAINED BY LOCAL EDUCATION AUTHORITIES

105. Allocation of schools maintained by local education authorities.

(B) FORMER GRANT-MAINTAINED SCHOOLS

106. Allocation of former grant-maintained and grant-maintained special schools.

Provision was made for a school which immediately before 1 September 1999<sup>1</sup> was a grant-maintained school<sup>2</sup> or a grant-maintained special school<sup>3</sup> to become a school of the category allocated to it in accordance with the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>4</sup>.

The indicative allocation provided that: (1) a grant-maintained school formerly a county<sup>5</sup> or controlled school<sup>6</sup> and a grant-maintained school established by the Funding Agency for Schools<sup>7</sup> should become a foundation school<sup>8</sup>; (2) a grant-maintained school formerly an aided<sup>9</sup> or special agreement school<sup>10</sup> and a grant-maintained school established by promoters<sup>11</sup> should become a voluntary aided school<sup>12</sup>; and (3) a grant-maintained special school should become a foundation special school<sup>13</sup>.

However, the governing body could opt for the school to be allocated by the Secretary of State<sup>14</sup> to a different category<sup>15</sup>.

1    le the appointed day: see PARA 102 note 3 ante.

2    As to former grant-maintained schools see PARA 102 note 16 ante.

3    As to former grant-maintained special schools see PARA 102 note 17 ante.

4    School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 20, Sch 2 para 2. Schools were to be allocated in accordance with Sch 2 paras 3-11: see Sch 2 para 2.

Where the category to which a grant-maintained school or a grant-maintained special school was to be allocated had not been finally determined in accordance with Sch 2 paras 3-8 by 1 September 1999, the school had to be taken to be allocated on that day to the category provided for by its indicative allocation (see the text and notes 5-13 infra): Sch 2 para 9(1). This did not prevent such a school from being subsequently allocated to a different category in accordance with Sch 2 para 7 (see PARA 110 post): Sch 2 para 9(2). Where such a school was subsequently so allocated, s 20(2)(a) (see PARA 102 note 4 ante) applies to it as if it had been allocated to the category in question on 1 September 1999: Sch 2 para 9(3).

Preliminary decision by governing body as to new category.

107. Preliminary decision by governing body as to new category.

The governing body of a grant-maintained school<sup>1</sup> or a grant-maintained special school<sup>2</sup> had in the first instance to take a decision (its 'preliminary decision') on the question whether to accept the school's allocation to a particular category of school<sup>3</sup> in accordance with its indicative allocation<sup>4</sup>, or to opt for it to be allocated to a different category<sup>5</sup>. Provision could be made by regulations<sup>6</sup> as to the procedure to be followed in connection with the taking by governing bodies of their preliminary decisions<sup>7</sup>. Such regulations could, in particular, make provision:

- 217 (1) as to the consultation to be carried out by governing bodies before taking their preliminary decisions<sup>8</sup>;
- 218 (2) as to the time by which governing bodies were to take such decisions<sup>9</sup>;
- 219 (3) as to the notification of such decisions to prescribed<sup>10</sup> persons<sup>11</sup>;
- 220 (4) as to the provision of prescribed information to prescribed persons<sup>12</sup>;
- 221 (5) authorising governing bodies to charge a fee (not exceeding the cost of supply) for prescribed documents supplied by them in pursuance of regulations made by virtue of head (4) above<sup>13</sup>;
- 222 (6) requiring the holding of ballots of registered parents<sup>14</sup> in prescribed cases<sup>15</sup>;
- 223 (7) enabling the Secretary of State, in any prescribed circumstances, to declare a previous ballot void and require the holding of a fresh ballot<sup>16</sup>;
- 224 (8) as to the conduct of ballots held under the regulations<sup>17</sup>;
- 225 (9) specifying criteria for determining<sup>18</sup> the result of any such ballot<sup>19</sup>.

108. Final decision by governing body as to new category.

Where the governing body of a grant-maintained school<sup>1</sup> or a grant-maintained special school<sup>2</sup> took its preliminary decision<sup>3</sup>, and the result of a ballot<sup>4</sup> did not accord with that decision<sup>5</sup>, the governing body had to reconsider the question as to whether to accept the allocation of the school to a particular category or to opt for it to be allocated to a different category<sup>6</sup>, having regard to the result of the ballot, and then to take a further decision on that question<sup>7</sup>.

Where the governing body of grant-maintained school or a grant-maintained special school took its preliminary decision, and either a ballot was held whose result (if any) did not disagree with that decision, or no such ballot was required to be held, the governing body had to take a further decision confirming its preliminary decision<sup>8</sup>.

Provision could be made by regulations<sup>9</sup> as to the procedure to be followed in connection with the taking by governing bodies of their final decisions<sup>10</sup>, including, in particular, provision as to the time by which governing bodies were to take such decisions<sup>11</sup>.

109. Notification of final decision.

Once the governing body of a grant-maintained school<sup>1</sup> or a grant-maintained special school<sup>2</sup> had taken its final decision<sup>3</sup>, it had to give written notification of that decision to the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup>. Provision could be made by regulations<sup>5</sup>: (1) requiring governing bodies, when giving such notifications, to certify specified<sup>6</sup> matters<sup>7</sup> and to provide specified information to specified persons<sup>8</sup>; and (2) as to the time by which such notifications were to be given or such information was to be provided<sup>9</sup>.

If the final decision of the governing body, or the result of a ballot<sup>8</sup>, did not accord with the school's indicative allocation, the school had to be allocated to such category (whether or not that provided for by its indicative allocation) as the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup> determined<sup>10</sup>.

The Secretary of State was required to notify the governing body of each grant-maintained school or grant-maintained special school of the category to which it was to be allocated in accordance with these provisions<sup>11</sup>.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may make such provision as the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> considers necessary or expedient in connection with the implementation of published proposals relating to a change of category<sup>3</sup>, including provision with respect to<sup>4</sup>:

- 232 (1) the revision or replacement of the school's instrument of government<sup>5</sup> and the reconstitution of its governing body<sup>6</sup>;

- 234 (3) any transitional matters, whether relating to the implementation of proposals published under other provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 or otherwise<sup>10</sup>.

The regulations may, in particular, make provision with respect to:

- 235 (a) restricting the disposal of land<sup>11</sup> by a local authority<sup>12</sup> which is used or held for the purposes of a school<sup>13</sup> in relation to which proposals to change category<sup>14</sup> are, or may be, published<sup>15</sup>, as from the date of publication of such proposals or such other time as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>;

A school's change of category<sup>25</sup> may not be taken as authorising or requiring any change in the character of the school conducted by its governing body (including, in particular, any religious character of the school)<sup>26</sup>.

122. Proceedings.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may make provision as to the meetings and proceedings of a school organisation committee<sup>2</sup>. Such regulations may in particular provide that, in any prescribed<sup>3</sup> circumstances, the members within each category of members of a school organisation committee are to have collectively a single vote<sup>4</sup>, and require all decisions of a prescribed description which are taken by a committee in accordance with those regulations<sup>5</sup> to be unanimous decisions of those voting<sup>6</sup>. The regulations must, however, include provision for the members within each category of members of a school organisation committee to have collectively a single vote in relation to specified decisions<sup>7</sup>, and must also include provision requiring any such decision which is taken by a committee to be a unanimous decision of those voting<sup>8</sup>.

When taking any decision a committee must have regard, so far as relevant, to the obligations which, by virtue of legislation relating to discrimination<sup>9</sup>, are owed by any local education authority<sup>10</sup> or governing body which will be affected by the decision<sup>11</sup>.

The validity of any proceedings of a committee is not affected by any vacancy among the members or by any defect in the appointment of a member<sup>12</sup>.

Subject to any provision made by or under these provisions<sup>13</sup>, a committee may regulate its own procedure<sup>14</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante; and as to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. ### C. SCHOOL ORGANISATION PLANS IN WALES

130. School organisation plans.

Every local education authority<sup>1</sup> in Wales<sup>2</sup> must prepare a school organisation plan for its area<sup>3</sup>, and must prepare further such plans at such times as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup>. A school organisation plan is a statement which sets out:

- 254 (1) how the authority proposes to exercise its functions<sup>5</sup> during the prescribed period with a view to securing the provision of primary<sup>6</sup> education, and secondary<sup>7</sup> education suitable to the requirements of pupils<sup>8</sup> of compulsory school age<sup>9</sup>, that will meet the needs of the population of its area during that period<sup>10</sup>; and
- 255 (2) how the authority proposes to exercise its powers during the prescribed period with a view to securing the provision of secondary education suitable to the requirements of pupils over compulsory school age during that period<sup>11</sup>;
- 256 (3) any facilities which the authority expects to be available outside its area for providing education of a kind referred to in head (1) or head (2) above<sup>12</sup>.

A school organisation plan must deal with such matters, and take such form, as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>. The matters prescribed for these purposes must include the provision which the authority proposes to make during the period in question for children<sup>14</sup> with special educational needs<sup>15</sup>.

A school organisation plan prepared by a local education authority requires adoption by the authority<sup>16</sup>. Regulations may make provision with regard to the procedure to be followed in connection with the preparation and adoption of such plans<sup>17</sup>. Such regulations may, in particular, make provision:

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iii) Organisation of Schools/D. 132. Proposals for establishment or alteration of community, foundation or voluntary school or maintained nursery school.

Where a local education authority<sup>1</sup> proposes to establish<sup>2</sup> a new community or foundation school<sup>3</sup> or a new maintained nursery school<sup>4</sup>, or to make any prescribed<sup>5</sup> alteration<sup>6</sup> to a community school<sup>7</sup>, or to make any prescribed alteration to a foundation school consisting of an enlargement<sup>8</sup> of the premises of the school<sup>9</sup> or (in the case of a local education authority in Wales) to make any prescribed alteration to a maintained nursery school<sup>10</sup>, the authority must publish its proposals<sup>11</sup>. Where any persons (known as 'promoters'<sup>12</sup>) propose to establish a new foundation or voluntary school<sup>13</sup>, or the governing body<sup>14</sup> of a foundation or voluntary school, or of a community school maintained by a local education authority<sup>15</sup> in England, proposes to make any prescribed alteration to the school<sup>16</sup>, those persons or, as the case may be, the governing body must publish the proposals<sup>17</sup>.

2 For the purposes of the Education Act 1996 and any other enactment relating to the duties of a local education authority neither:

40 (1) references in whatever terms to discontinuing a school (including those to a local authority ceasing to maintain a school); nor

41 (2) references in whatever terms to establishing a new school, may be read as applying by reason only of certain changes being made to an existing school (so that, where such a change is made to an existing school, the school must be regarded as continuing despite the change and as being the same school before and after it, unless for other reasons it is to be regarded as discontinued): s 574(1); applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). The specified changes (as mentioned in the Education Act 1996 s 574(2)) are: (a) education beginning or ceasing to be provided for pupils above or below a particular age, for boys as well as girls, or for girls as well as boys (s 574(2)(a)); (b) an

At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

3 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 28(1)(a). As from 1 June 2003 (except where a local education authority has commenced consultation before that date, in accordance with s 28(5) (see the text and notes 24-25 infra), on the establishment of a community or foundation school which is an additional school within the meaning of the Education Act 2002 s 70 (prospectively repealed) (see PARAS 150 et seq, 497 et seq post)), the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 28(1)(a) does not apply to any proposal of a local education authority in England to establish a community or foundation school which is an additional secondary school as so defined: s 28(1A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 97(1), (2)). NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iii) Organisation of Schools/D. ESTABLISHMENT, ALTERATION OR DISCONTINUANCE OF SCHOOLS/(A) Proposals under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998/135. Notice by governing body to discontinue foundation or voluntary school.

135. Notice by governing body to discontinue foundation or voluntary school.

The governing body<sup>1</sup> of a foundation or voluntary school<sup>2</sup> may discontinue<sup>3</sup> the school by serving on the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> and the local education authority<sup>5</sup> at least two years' notice of its intention to do so<sup>6</sup>. If discontinuing the school would affect the facilities for full-time education suitable to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age<sup>7</sup> who have not attained the age of 19, the governing body must, before serving such a notice, consult certain bodies<sup>8</sup>. A notice may not be withdrawn without the consent of the local education authority<sup>9</sup>.

If, while such a notice is in force in respect of a foundation or voluntary school, the governing body informs the local education authority that it is unable or unwilling to carry on the school until the notice expires, the authority may conduct the school for all or part of the unexpired period of the notice as if it were a community school<sup>10</sup>, and is entitled to use the school premises<sup>11</sup> free of charge for that purpose<sup>12</sup>. While the school is being so conducted, the authority must keep the school premises in good repair<sup>13</sup>; and any interest in the premises which is held for the purposes of the school is to be deemed, for all purposes relating to the condition, occupation or use of the premises, or the making of alterations<sup>14</sup> to them, to be vested in the authority<sup>15</sup>. The governing body may, however, use the premises, or any part of them, when not required for the purposes of the school to the same extent as if it had continued to carry on the school during the unexpired period of the notice<sup>16</sup>.

Where land<sup>17</sup> occupied by a foundation or voluntary school is held by any trustees for the purposes of the school<sup>18</sup>, and the termination of the school's occupation of that land would have the result that it was not reasonably practicable for the school to continue to be conducted at its existing site<sup>19</sup>, then if the trustees (being entitled to do so) give any notice to the governing body which purports to terminate the school's occupation of the land, any such notice is not effective to terminate its occupation of the land unless the following requirements are complied with in relation to the notice (without prejudice to any other statutory or other requirements falling to be so complied with)<sup>20</sup>. The requirements are: (1) that the period of notice must be reasonable having regard to the length of time that would be required to discontinue the school (if the governing body chose to do so)<sup>21</sup>, and in any event must not be less than two years<sup>22</sup>; and (2) that a copy of the notice must be given to the Secretary of State and the local education authority at the time when the notice is given to the governing body<sup>23</sup>.

If a foundation or voluntary school is discontinued under these provisions, the duty of the local education authority to maintain<sup>24</sup> the school as a foundation or voluntary school ceases<sup>25</sup>.

If a question arises as to whether the termination of a school's occupation of any land would have the result mentioned in s 30(10)(b) (including a question as to whether s 30(12) applies in any particular circumstances), it must be determined by the Secretary of State: s 30(13).

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iii) Organisation of Schools/D. ESTABLISHMENT, ALTERATION OR DISCONTINUANCE OF SCHOOLS/(A) Proposals under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998/138. Approval of proposals.

138. Approval of proposals.

Published proposals<sup>1</sup> which relate to a school<sup>2</sup> or proposed school<sup>3</sup> in England require approval<sup>4</sup> if:

- 264 (1) the proposals were published by a local education authority<sup>5</sup> and either objections to the proposals have been made<sup>6</sup> and any of them have not been withdrawn in writing within the representation period<sup>7</sup>, or such approval is required by virtue of the provisions<sup>8</sup> relating to determinations<sup>9</sup>; or
- 265 (2) the proposals were published by a governing body<sup>10</sup> or promoters<sup>11</sup>.

This does not prevent the body or promoters by whom any proposals have been published<sup>12</sup> from withdrawing those proposals by notice in writing given to the relevant committee<sup>13</sup> at any time before the proposals are determined<sup>14</sup>. Where any proposals require such approval, they must be considered in the first instance by the relevant committee<sup>15</sup>, who may: (a) reject the proposals<sup>16</sup>; (b) approve them without modification<sup>17</sup>; (c) approve them with such modifications as the committee thinks desirable after consulting such persons or bodies as may be prescribed<sup>18</sup>; or (d) if the committee thinks it appropriate to do so, and subject to regulations, refer them to the adjudicator<sup>19</sup>. Any approval given may be expressed to take effect only if an event specified in the approval occurs by a date so specified; and regulations may prescribe the events that may be so specified<sup>20</sup>. When deciding whether or not to give any approval, the committee must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State and the committee must not give any such approval unless it is satisfied that adequate financial resources will be available to enable the proposals to be implemented<sup>21</sup>.

If, by the end of such period as may be specified in or determined in accordance with regulations<sup>22</sup>, the committee has not voted on the question whether to give any approval<sup>23</sup>, and the body or promoters by whom the proposals were published request the committee to refer the proposals to the adjudicator<sup>24</sup>, the committee must refer the proposals to the adjudicator<sup>25</sup>. The committee must also refer the proposals to the adjudicator<sup>26</sup>:

- 266 (i) if the committee has voted on any matter which falls<sup>27</sup> to be decided by it by a unanimous decision<sup>28</sup>, but has failed to reach such a decision on that matter<sup>29</sup>;
- 267 (ii) where the committee rejects proposals published by promoters for the establishment of a new foundation or voluntary school<sup>30</sup>, if the promoters so request<sup>31</sup>; or
- 268 (iii) where the committee rejects proposals to make an alteration to a school which are published by the governing body of the school<sup>32</sup>, the school is of a prescribed description and the alteration is of a prescribed description, if the governing body so requests<sup>33</sup>.

Where any proposals are referred to the adjudicator<sup>34</sup>, he must consider the proposals afresh<sup>35</sup>.

Published proposals<sup>36</sup> which relate to a school or proposed school in Wales require approval<sup>37</sup> if:

- 269 (A) the National Assembly for Wales<sup>38</sup>, within two months after a copy of the published proposals is sent to it, gives notice to the body or promoters by whom the proposals were published that such approval is required<sup>39</sup>; or
- 270 (B) objections to the proposals have been made<sup>40</sup> and any of them have not been withdrawn in writing within the objection period<sup>41</sup>.

This does not prevent the body or promoters by whom any proposals have been published<sup>42</sup> from withdrawing those proposals by notice in writing given to the National Assembly for Wales at any time before the proposals are approved<sup>43</sup>. Where any proposals require such approval, the National Assembly for Wales may reject the proposals<sup>44</sup>, approve them without modification<sup>45</sup>, or approve them with such modifications as it thinks desirable after consulting such persons or bodies as may be prescribed<sup>46</sup>. Any approval given may be expressed to take effect only if an event specified in the approval occurs by a date so specified<sup>47</sup>. When deciding whether or not to give any approval, the National Assembly for Wales must have regard to the school organisation plan<sup>48</sup> for the area in which the school is, or (in the case of a new school) is proposed to be, situated<sup>49</sup>.

- 47 (6) any undetermined proposals published under the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 113A (as added) (see PARA 1277 et seq post), if those proposals are relevant proposals for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 3(2A) (as added) (see PARA 138 ante) (Sch 6 para 4(3)(f) (added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 21 para 115(1), (3)(b)));

At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 4(3) (as amended; prospectively further amended), proposals are 'undetermined' if they have not been withdrawn and: (a) they have not been approved or rejected under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARA 138 ante), Sch 7 para 8 (as amended; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 171 post), Sch 7 para 9 (as amended; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 172 post) or under the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 7 (as amended; prospectively further amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1275 et seq post) or s 113A(6), Sch 7A (both as added) (see PARA 1277 et seq post); or (b) the authority has not determined under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 4 (as amended; prospectively further amended) whether to implement them; or (c) the Secretary of State has not made a decision as to whether or not to make an order under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 16 (as amended) (see PARA 584 post) or s 27 (see PARA 598 post), as the case may be: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 4(4) (amended by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 89; and the Education Act 2005 Sch 21 para 115(1), (4)). When deciding under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 4(3) (as amended; prospectively further amended) whether any proposals are related to other proposals, the authority must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State: Sch 6 para 4(4) (as so amended). As to community, foundation, voluntary schools or foundation special schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

As from a day to be appointed, Sch 6 para 4(4) (as amended) is further amended so that the references to Sch 7 para 8 (as amended; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 171 post) and Sch 7 para 9 (as amended; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 172 post) (see head (a) supra) are substituted by references to the Education Act 2005 Sch 11 para 9 (not yet in force) (see PARA 180 post) and Sch 11 para 11 (not yet in force) (see PARA 181 post): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 4(4) (prospectively amended by the Education Act 2005 Sch 12 para 13(1), (5)(c)). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

The authority may, if it thinks it appropriate to do so, and subject to regulations, refer to the relevant committee any proposals which would otherwise fall to be determined by the authority under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 4 (as amended; prospectively further amended): Sch 6 para 4(4A) (added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 10 paras 1, 4(1), (3)). Where, in the case of any proposals within the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 4(1) (as amended; prospectively further amended): (i) the authority fails to make a determination under Sch 6 para 4(1) (as amended; prospectively further amended) within the period mentioned in Sch 6 para 4(2) (see the text and notes 8-9 infra); or (ii) the requirement to make such a determination does not apply by virtue of Sch 6 para 4(3) (as amended; prospectively further amended); or (iii) the authority refers the proposals to the relevant committee, the proposals require approval under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARA 138 ante): Sch 6 para 4(5) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 10 paras 1, 4(1), (4), Sch 22 Pt 3). For the meaning of 'the relevant committee' see PARA 137 note 8 ante. 'Regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). ### 139 Determination by local education authority whether to implement proposals

TEXT AND NOTES 1-9--Repealed: Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 3 para 33(3), Sch 18. For transitional provisions see s 31; School Organisation (Transitional Provisions) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/1355; and PARA 158-165.

NOTE 13--1998 Act Sch 6 para 6 amended: 2006 Act Sch 3 para 33(5), Sch 18 Pt 3.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iii) Organisation of Schools/D. ESTABLISHMENT, ALTERATION OR DISCONTINUANCE OF SCHOOLS/(A) Proposals under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998/140. Requirement to implement proposals.

140. Requirement to implement proposals.

Where any published proposals<sup>1</sup> which relate to a school<sup>2</sup> or proposed school<sup>3</sup> in England have been approved<sup>4</sup>, or a local education authority has determined<sup>5</sup> to implement any such proposals, then the proposals must be implemented<sup>6</sup> in the form in which they were so approved or determined<sup>7</sup>. However, if the relevant committee<sup>8</sup> is satisfied that implementation of the proposals would be unreasonably difficult, or that circumstances have so altered since approval was given<sup>9</sup> that implementation of the proposals would be inappropriate, the committee may determine that the requirement to implement proposals<sup>10</sup> is to cease to apply<sup>11</sup>. At the request of any prescribed<sup>12</sup> body or persons, the relevant committee: (1) may modify the proposals after consulting such persons or bodies as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>; and (2) where any approval was given subject to the occurrence of a specified event by a specified date<sup>14</sup>, may specify a later date by which the event in question must occur<sup>15</sup>. If, by the end of such period as may be specified in or determined in accordance with regulations, the committee has not voted on any matter falling to be decided by it, and the body or promoters who published the proposals<sup>16</sup> requests the committee to refer that matter to the adjudicator, it must refer that matter to the adjudicator<sup>17</sup>. If the committee has voted on any matter which falls<sup>18</sup> to be decided by it by a unanimous decision, but has failed to reach such a decision on that matter, it must refer that matter to the adjudicator<sup>19</sup>. The committee may also, if it thinks it appropriate to do so, and subject to regulations, refer to the adjudicator any matter which would otherwise fall to be determined by the committee<sup>20</sup>. Where any matter is referred to the adjudicator<sup>21</sup>, he must consider the matter afresh<sup>22</sup>.

Where any published proposals<sup>23</sup> which relate to a school or proposed school in Wales have been approved<sup>24</sup>, or the body or promoters by whom such proposals were published has or have determined<sup>25</sup> to implement the proposals, then the proposals must be implemented<sup>26</sup> in the form in which they were so approved or determined<sup>27</sup>. If the National Assembly for Wales<sup>28</sup> is satisfied that implementation of the proposals would be unreasonably difficult, or that circumstances have so altered since approval was given<sup>29</sup> that implementation of the proposals would be inappropriate, it may determine that the requirement to implement proposals<sup>30</sup> is to cease to apply<sup>31</sup>. At the request of any prescribed body or persons, the National Assembly for Wales: (a) may modify the proposals after consulting such persons or bodies as may be prescribed<sup>32</sup>; and (b) where any approval was given subject to the occurrence of a specified event<sup>33</sup>, may specify a later date by which the event in question must occur<sup>34</sup>.

1     le published under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 28 (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARA 132 ante), s 29 (prospectively amended) (see PARA 134 ante) or s 31 (prospectively amended) (see PARA 136 ante): ss 28(8), 29(7), 31(8), Sch 6 para 5(1).

As from a day to be appointed, Sch 6 para 5(1) is amended so that it applies also to proposals published under s 28A (prospectively added) (see PARA 133 ante): Sch 6 para 5(1) (prospectively amended by the Education Act 2005 s 72, Sch 12 para 13(1), (6)(a)). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

Regulations may make provision modifying any provision contained in Sch 6 (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARAS 137 ante, 141 et seq post) in its application to proposals to establish a school as a federated school, within the meaning given by the Education Act 2002 s 24(2) (see PARA 213 post), or to the establishment of a school as a federated school: s 74(2), (3). Section 74 is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 June 2003 in relation to s 74(2), (3) (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 4 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/124, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. For these purposes, 'regulations' means regulations made under the Education Act 2002 by the Secretary of State (in relation to England) or by the National Assembly for Wales (in relation to Wales): s 212(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante; and as to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. For the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante. 7    Ibid Sch 6 para 5(1). See also notes 1, 3 supra.

Where an application has been confirmed by the school organisation committee, the board of trustees (in the case of a transition from an independent school to a voluntary aided school) has a statutory duty under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 to give effect to the transition, the duty arising in public law out of the arrangements between the parties and being enforceable by judicial review proceedings: R (on the application of Brent London Borough Council) v Fed 2000 [2005] EWHC 2679 (Admin), [2005] All ER (D) 291 (Oct). In the absence of any deferral by the school organisation committee pursuant to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 5 (as amended), the transition takes effect at the date stipulated in the proposal adopted by the local education authority executive and the committee: R (on the application of Brent London Borough Council) v Fed 2000 [2005] EWHC 2436 (QB), [2005] All ER (D) 58 (Nov).

10   Ie ibid Sch 6 para 5(1) (prospectively amended): see the text and notes 1-7 supra.

11   Ibid Sch 6 para 5(3). Where, by virtue of Sch 6 para 5(3), Sch 6 para 5(1) (prospectively amended) (see the text and notes 1-7 supra) ceases to apply to any proposals, those proposals must be treated for the purposes of Sch 6 (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARAS 137 ante, 141 et seq post) as if they had been rejected under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARA 138 ante): Sch 6 para 5(9) (amended by the Education Act 2002 ss 75, 215(2), Sch 10 paras 1, 5(1), (4), Sch 22 Pt 3). See also notes 1, 3 supra.

The committee may only make a determination under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 5(3) where proposals that it should do so have been published, in accordance with regulations, by the body or promoters who published the proposals referred to in Sch 6 para 5(1) (prospectively amended) (see the text and notes 1-7 supra): Sch 6 para 5(4). As to the meaning of 'promoters' see PARA 132 ante. Regulations may provide for any of the provisions of s 28 (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARA 132 ante), s 29 (prospectively amended) (see PARA 134 ante), s 31 (prospectively amended) (see PARA 136 ante), and Sch 6 Pt I (paras 1-5) (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARA 137 et seq ante) to have effect in relation to any such further proposals with or without modifications: see Sch 6 para 5(4). As to the meaning of 'modifications' see PARA 43 note 7 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). For these purposes, 'regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. As to the regulations made under Sch 6 para 5 (as amended; prospectively further amended) see the Education (Maintained Special Schools) (England) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2212 (amended by SI 2002/2469); and the Education (School Organisation Proposals) (England) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2213 (amended by SI 2000/2198; SI 2001/1405; SI 2003/1229; SI 2004/3052; SI 2005/1801; SI 2005/3342).

As from a day to be appointed, the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 5(4) is amended so that regulations may provide also for any of the provisions of s 28A (prospectively added) (see PARA 133 ante) to have effect in relation to any such further proposals with or without modifications: Sch 6 para 5(4) (prospectively amended by the Education Act 2005 Sch 12 para 13(1), (6)(a)). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

Where any approval under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended) (see PARA 138 ante) was given in accordance with Sch 6 para 3(3) (see PARA 138 ante), and the event so specified does not occur by the date in question (whether as specified under Sch 6 para 3(3) or as specified under Sch 6 para 5(2)(b)), then the requirement to implement proposals (ie Sch 6 para 5(1) (prospectively amended): see the text and notes 1-7 supra) ceases to apply to the proposals: Sch 6 para 5(8). Where, by virtue of Sch 6 para 5(8), Sch 6 para 5(1) (prospectively amended) ceases to apply to any proposals approved by the relevant committee under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended), those proposals must be regarded as requiring fresh approval under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended): Sch 6 para 5(10) (added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 10 paras 1, 5(1), (5)). Where, by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 5(8), Sch 6 para 5(1) (as amended; prospectively further amended) ceases to apply to any proposals approved by the adjudicator under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended), those proposals fall to be considered afresh by him under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended), and Sch 6 para 3(7) (as amended) (see PARA 138 ante) applies accordingly: Sch 6 para 5(11) (added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 10 paras 1, 5(1), (5)). For the meaning of 'adjudicator' see PARA 124 ante. See also notes 1, 3 supra.

As from a day to be appointed, the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 6 para 5(10) (as added) is amended so that proposals, rather than being regarded as requiring fresh approval, fall to be considered afresh by the committee under Sch 6 para 3 (as amended; prospectively further amended): Sch 6 para 5(10) (as so added; prospectively amended by the Education Act 2005 Sch 12 para 13(1), (6)(c)). ### 150. Local education authority's power to invite proposals for establishment of additional community, foundation or voluntary schools.

A local education authority<sup>2</sup> in England<sup>3</sup> may publish a notice<sup>4</sup> inviting proposals for the establishment<sup>5</sup> of a community, foundation or voluntary school<sup>6</sup> as an additional secondary school<sup>7</sup>. Such a notice must: (1) identify a possible site for the school<sup>8</sup>; (2) specify a date, being a date after the prescribed<sup>9</sup> interval, by which proposals must be submitted<sup>10</sup>; (3) specify such other matters as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>; and (4) be published in the prescribed manner<sup>12</sup>. Proposals made pursuant to such a notice must contain the prescribed information, and be submitted to the local education authority before the date specified in the notice<sup>13</sup>. After the date specified in a notice published by a local education authority, the authority: (a) must publish<sup>14</sup> any proposals submitted<sup>15</sup> pursuant to the notice<sup>16</sup>; and (b) may publish proposals of its own for the establishment of a community or foundation school as an additional secondary school<sup>17</sup>. Where the Secretary of State has given such a direction to a local education authority<sup>22</sup> and:

- 293 (i) the authority has not complied with the direction within the time specified in it<sup>23</sup>; or
- 294 (ii) the authority has complied with it, but the Secretary of State is not satisfied that the provision referred to in head (a) above will be secured<sup>24</sup>, the Secretary of State may make any such proposals as might have been made by the authority under head (1) above or, by virtue of head (2) above, under the power<sup>25</sup> it has to publish proposals of its own for the establishment of a community or foundation school as an additional secondary school<sup>26</sup>. Proposals so made by the Secretary of State must contain the prescribed<sup>27</sup> information<sup>28</sup>, be published by the Secretary of State in the prescribed manner<sup>29</sup>, and be sent by the Secretary of State to the school organisation committee<sup>30</sup> for the area to which they relate<sup>31</sup>.

Proposals<sup>2</sup> for the establishment<sup>3</sup> of foundation or voluntary schools<sup>4</sup> as secondary schools<sup>5</sup> in England<sup>6</sup> must be considered in the first instance by the school organisation committee<sup>7</sup>. The committee may<sup>8</sup> reject all the proposals<sup>9</sup>, approve any of the proposals without modification<sup>10</sup>, approve any of the proposals with such modifications as the committee thinks desirable after consulting such persons as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>, or, if the committee think it appropriate to do so, and subject to regulations, refer to the adjudicator all the proposals with any comments on them made by the committee<sup>12</sup>. However, this does not prevent the promoters<sup>13</sup> or local education authority by whom any proposals have been made from withdrawing those proposals by notice<sup>14</sup> in writing to the school organisation committee (except in a case where the proposals have been referred to the adjudicator, when withdrawal is made by notice in writing to the adjudicator), at any time before the proposals are determined<sup>15</sup>. Any approval so given may be expressed to take effect only if an event specified in the approval occurs by a date so specified; and regulations may prescribe the events that may be so specified<sup>16</sup>. When deciding whether or not to give approval, the committee must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>.

Regulations may make provision requiring the school organisation committee in prescribed cases to refer to the adjudicator all the proposals with any comments made on them by the committee<sup>18</sup>. The Secretary of State may at any time give a direction to a school organisation committee requiring it to refer to the adjudicator<sup>19</sup>:

- 295 (1) any proposals which have been submitted to the committee<sup>20</sup> but which, at the time when the direction is given, have not been determined by the committee<sup>21</sup>; and
- 296 (2) all subsequent proposals submitted to the committee<sup>22</sup> until the direction is revoked<sup>23</sup>, with any comments made on any of the proposals by the committee<sup>24</sup>.

Regulations may also, in relation to any proposals<sup>25</sup>, require any of the following, namely: (a) the authority or promoters who published the proposals; (b) the school organisation committee; and (c) the adjudicator, to provide such information relating to the proposals to such persons, and at such times, as may be prescribed<sup>26</sup>.

1 The Education Act 2005 s 66(12), Sch 10 is to be brought into force by order made by the Secretary of State under ss 125(4), 126(1), (3)(b) as from a day to be appointed. ## 162. Requirement to implement proposals.

Where any proposals<sup>2</sup> to establish<sup>3</sup> a community, foundation or voluntary school<sup>4</sup> as a secondary school<sup>5</sup> in England<sup>6</sup> have been approved<sup>7</sup>, or a local education authority<sup>8</sup> has determined<sup>9</sup> to implement any such proposals<sup>10</sup>, then the proposals must be implemented<sup>11</sup> in the form in which they were so approved or determined<sup>12</sup>.

At the request of any prescribed<sup>13</sup> person, the school organisation committee<sup>14</sup> may modify<sup>15</sup> the proposals after consulting such persons as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>, and, where any approval was given subject to the occurrence of a specified event by a specified date<sup>17</sup>, may specify a later date by which the event in question must occur<sup>18</sup>. If, after consulting such persons as may be prescribed, the school organisation committee is satisfied:

- 299 (1) that implementation of the proposals would be unreasonably difficult<sup>19</sup>; or
- 300 (2) that circumstances have so altered since approval was given<sup>20</sup> that implementation of the proposals would be inappropriate<sup>21</sup>, the committee may determine that the requirement to implement proposals<sup>22</sup> is to cease to apply to the proposals<sup>23</sup>. The committee may, if it thinks it appropriate to do so and subject to regulations, refer to the adjudicator any matter which would otherwise fall to be determined<sup>24</sup> by the committee<sup>25</sup>, and in prescribed cases must refer to the adjudicator any such matter<sup>26</sup>. Where any matter is referred to the adjudicator<sup>27</sup>, he must consider the matter afresh<sup>28</sup>, and such of the above provisions<sup>29</sup> as are relevant are to apply to him in connection with his decision on that matter as they apply to the committee<sup>30</sup>.

Regulations may require the local education authority to take prescribed steps for the purpose of promoting public awareness of any proposals which it has published<sup>11</sup>. After the date specified in a notice published by a local education authority, the authority: (a) must publish<sup>12</sup> any proposals submitted<sup>13</sup> pursuant to the notice<sup>14</sup>; and (b) may publish proposals of their own for the establishment of a foundation school or a foundation special school, or a community or community special school<sup>15</sup>.

4. Direction requiring discontinuance of community or foundation special school

The Secretary of State may, if he considers it expedient to do so in the interests of the health, safety or welfare of pupils<sup>1</sup> at a community or foundation special school<sup>2</sup> in England, give a direction to the local education authority by which the school is maintained requiring the school to be discontinued<sup>3</sup> on a date specified in the direction<sup>4</sup>. Such a direction may require the local education authority to notify any persons or class of persons specified in the direction<sup>5</sup>. Before giving such a direction, the Secretary of State must consult: (1) the local education authority<sup>6</sup>; (2) any other local education authority who would in his opinion be affected by the discontinuance of the school<sup>7</sup>; (3) in the case of a foundation special school which has a foundation<sup>8</sup>, the person who appoints the foundation governors<sup>9</sup>; and (4) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate<sup>10</sup>.

On giving such a direction, the Secretary of State must give notice in writing of the direction to the governing body<sup>11</sup> of the school and its head teacher<sup>12</sup>. Where a local education authority is given such a direction, it must discontinue the school in question on the date specified in the direction<sup>13</sup>.

5. Alterations to schools

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may prescribe<sup>2</sup> alterations to maintained schools<sup>3</sup> that may be implemented in pursuance of proposals<sup>4</sup>. The prescribed alterations may include other alterations of any nature, except (a) any change in the religious character<sup>8</sup> of the school<sup>9</sup>; (b) any change whereby the school would acquire or lose a religious character<sup>10</sup>; (c) any change of category from foundation or voluntary school to community school<sup>11</sup>; (d) any change of category from foundation special school to community special school<sup>12</sup>; (e) any change of category from mainstream school (ie a community, foundation or voluntary school) to community or foundation special school or from community or foundation special school to mainstream school<sup>13</sup>; (f) any change from maintained nursery school to any other kind of maintained school, or from any other kind of maintained school to maintained nursery school<sup>14</sup>.

Where, in the case of a maintained school, the local education authority or governing body proposes to make such a prescribed alteration to the school, that authority or governing body must publish its proposals<sup>15</sup>. Regulations may make provision about the publication and determination of proposals<sup>7</sup>, and regulations may make provision in connection with the implementation of proposals<sup>8</sup>.

now in force: SI 2006/2129.

RATIONALISATION OF SCHOOL PLACES IN ENGLAND/(A) The System under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998/(a) Directions to bring forward Rationalisation Proposals/168. Procedure after directions have been given.

168. Procedure after directions have been given.

Where the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> makes an order<sup>2</sup> in relation to the area of any local education authority<sup>3</sup> in England directing the making of proposals to remedy excessive or insufficient provision for primary<sup>4</sup> or secondary education<sup>5</sup> in maintained schools<sup>6</sup>, he must send a copy of the order to the school organisation committee<sup>7</sup> for the area<sup>8</sup>, and to any adjudicator<sup>9</sup> who appears to him to be likely to be considering proposals in relation to that area<sup>10</sup>. Where the school organisation committee or any adjudicator so receives a copy of the order, the committee or adjudicator must send to the Secretary of State: (1) a copy of all proposals<sup>11</sup> relating to the area which have been received by it or him but have not been determined<sup>12</sup> by the relevant time<sup>13</sup>; and (2) a copy of all proposals<sup>14</sup> relating to the area which it or he receives after the relevant time<sup>15</sup>. In such a case, then, unless the Secretary of State gives his consent:

- 307 (a) neither the school organisation committee nor the adjudicator may make any determination<sup>16</sup>; and in relation to any of those proposals during the period beginning with the relevant time and ending with the time when the Secretary of State notifies the committee or the adjudicator, as the case may be, that it or he may make any such determination or reference in relation to those proposals without the Secretary of State's consent<sup>19</sup>. At the end of that period the duty<sup>20</sup> of the school organisation committee or any adjudicator to send copies of proposals to the Secretary of State terminates<sup>21</sup>.
- 308 (b) the school organisation committee may not make any reference<sup>17</sup> to the adjudicator<sup>18</sup>,

Where a local education authority publishes any proposals in pursuance of an order<sup>22</sup> which relates to an area in England, those proposals require approval<sup>23</sup>.

Proposals made in pursuance of an order<sup>24</sup> relating to an area in England may not be withdrawn without the consent of the Secretary of State; and such consent may be given on such conditions (if any) as the Secretary of State considers appropriate<sup>25</sup>.

Proposals<sup>1</sup> relating to an area in England<sup>2</sup> which are published<sup>3</sup> by the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> require the approval of the school organisation committee<sup>5</sup> or of the adjudicator<sup>6</sup>. When deciding whether or not to give any approval, the committee must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>.

If, by the end of such period as may be specified in or determined in accordance with regulations, the committee has not voted on the question whether to give any approval<sup>14</sup>, and the Secretary of State requests the committee to refer his proposals to the adjudicator<sup>15</sup>, the committee must refer his proposals to the adjudicator<sup>16</sup>. If the committee has voted on any matter which falls<sup>17</sup> to be decided by it by a unanimous decision but has failed to reach such a decision on that matter<sup>18</sup>, or has decided not to give any approval<sup>19</sup>, it must refer the Secretary of State's proposals to the adjudicator<sup>20</sup>. Where any proposals are referred to the adjudicator in this way, the school organisation committee must also refer to the adjudicator<sup>21</sup>:

- 309 (1) any other proposals published<sup>22</sup> in relation to the area of the local education authority<sup>23</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>24</sup>;
- 310 (2) any proposals made by that authority in the exercise of its powers to make proposals for the establishment, alteration or discontinuance of schools<sup>25</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>26</sup>;
- 311 (3) any proposals made by the governing body<sup>27</sup> of any community, foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>28</sup> in the area in the exercise of its powers to make proposals for the alteration of its school<sup>29</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>30</sup>; and
- 312 (4) any proposals published under the provisions relating to inadequate sixth forms<sup>31</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>32</sup>, where those proposals are not determined before the adjudicator holds an inquiry<sup>33</sup>, and appear to the committee to be related to the proposals referred by it to the adjudicator under these provisions<sup>34</sup>.

Where proposals are made<sup>1</sup> for a school<sup>2</sup> in England<sup>3</sup> to cease to be an establishment which admits pupils<sup>4</sup> of one sex only<sup>5</sup>, and the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> sends<sup>7</sup> a copy of the published proposals to the school organisation committee<sup>8</sup>, then the sending of the published proposals to the school organisation committee by the Secretary of State is to be treated as an application by the responsible body<sup>9</sup> for the making by the school organisation committee of a transitional exemption order authorising discriminatory admissions during a specified transitional period<sup>10</sup>, and the committee may make such an order accordingly<sup>11</sup>. Where the school organisation committee has failed to reach a unanimous decision on whether to make a transitional exemption order<sup>12</sup>, or where the school organisation committee refers the proposals to the adjudicator<sup>13</sup>, the committee must refer the question whether to make a transitional exemption order to the adjudicator<sup>14</sup>. #### 175. Directions to bring forward proposals to remedy excessive provision of school places.

- 315 (1) direct the local education authority to exercise its powers to make or invite proposals for the establishment, alteration or discontinuance of schools<sup>9</sup>; and
- 316 (2) in the case of any foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>10</sup> maintained by the authority, direct the governing body<sup>11</sup> to exercise its powers to make proposals for the alteration of its school<sup>12</sup>.

Such a direction must require the direction to be complied with not later than such date as may be specified in the direction<sup>13</sup>, and require the body to whom the direction is given to apply such principles in giving effect to the direction as may be specified in the direction<sup>14</sup>.

Where any proposals<sup>15</sup> are published in pursuance of such a direction, the body concerned must<sup>16</sup> send a copy of the published proposals, and such information in connection with those proposals as may be prescribed<sup>17</sup>, to the Secretary of State<sup>18</sup>. Where a notice<sup>19</sup> is published in pursuance of such a direction, the local education authority concerned must send a copy of the published notice, and a copy of any proposals published<sup>20</sup> in pursuance of the notice, to the Secretary of State<sup>21</sup>.

RATIONALISATION OF SCHOOL PLACES IN ENGLAND/(B) The System under the Education Act 2005/(a) Directions to bring forward Rationalisation Proposals/177. Procedure after directions have been given.

177. Procedure after directions have been given.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> gives a direction<sup>3</sup> in relation to the area of any local education authority<sup>4</sup> in England<sup>5</sup> directing the making of proposals to remedy excessive or insufficient provision for primary<sup>6</sup> or secondary education<sup>7</sup> in maintained schools<sup>8</sup>, he must send a copy of the direction to the school organisation committee<sup>9</sup> for the area<sup>10</sup>, and to any adjudicator<sup>11</sup> who appears to him to be likely to be considering proposals in relation to that area<sup>12</sup>. Where the school organisation committee or any adjudicator so receives a copy of the direction, the committee or adjudicator must send to the Secretary of State: (1) a copy of all proposals<sup>13</sup> relating to the area which have been received by it or him but have not been determined<sup>14</sup> by the relevant time<sup>15</sup>; and (2) a copy of all proposals<sup>16</sup> relating to the area which it or he receives after the relevant time<sup>17</sup>. In such a case, then, unless the Secretary of State gives his consent:

- 319 (a) neither the school organisation committee nor the adjudicator may make any determination<sup>18</sup>; and
- 320 (b) the school organisation committee may not make any reference<sup>19</sup> to the adjudicator<sup>20</sup>,

in relation to any of those proposals during the period beginning with the relevant time and ending with the time when the Secretary of State notifies the committee or the adjudicator, as the case may be, that it or he may make any such determination or reference in relation to those proposals without the Secretary of State's consent<sup>21</sup>. At the end of that period, the duty<sup>22</sup> of the school organisation committee or any adjudicator to send copies of the proposals to the Secretary of State terminates<sup>23</sup>.

Where a local education authority publishes any proposals<sup>24</sup> in pursuance of a direction<sup>25</sup> which relates to an area in England, those proposals require approval<sup>26</sup>.

Proposals made by any person<sup>27</sup> in pursuance of a direction given to that person<sup>28</sup> may not be withdrawn without the consent of the Secretary of State, and such consent may be given on such conditions, if any, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate<sup>29</sup>.

Where the governing body<sup>30</sup> of a foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>31</sup> makes any proposals in pursuance of a direction given to the governing body<sup>32</sup>, the local education authority must reimburse any expenditure reasonably incurred by the governing body in making the proposals<sup>33</sup>.

Repealed: Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 3 paras 49, 53, Sch 18.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. RATIONALISATION OF SCHOOL PLACES IN ENGLAND/(B) The System under the Education Act 2005/(b) Procedure relating to Rationalisation Proposals/180. Requirement for approval of proposals.

180. Requirement for approval of proposals.

Proposals for the establishment<sup>2</sup>, alteration<sup>3</sup> or discontinuance<sup>4</sup> of schools<sup>5</sup> relating to an area in England<sup>6</sup> which are published<sup>7</sup> by the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> require the approval of the school organisation committee<sup>9</sup> or of the adjudicator<sup>10</sup>. Where the school organisation committee receives a copy of the proposals, it must<sup>11</sup> either approve them without modification<sup>12</sup>, or approve them with such modifications as the committee thinks desirable and to which the Secretary of State consents<sup>13</sup>, or refer them to the adjudicator<sup>14</sup>. Any approval so given may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, be expressed to take effect only if an event specified in the approval occurs by a date so specified<sup>15</sup>; and regulations may prescribe the events that may be so specified<sup>16</sup>. When deciding whether or not to give any approval, the committee must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>.

If, by the end of such period as may be specified in or determined in accordance with regulations, the committee has not voted on the question whether to give any approval<sup>18</sup>, and the Secretary of State requests the committee to refer his proposals to the adjudicator<sup>19</sup>, the committee must refer his proposals to the adjudicator<sup>20</sup>. If the committee has voted on any matter which<sup>21</sup> falls to be decided by it by a unanimous decision but has failed to reach such a decision on that matter<sup>22</sup>, or has decided not to give any approval<sup>23</sup>, it must refer the Secretary of State's proposals to the adjudicator<sup>24</sup>. The Secretary of State may at any time give a direction to a school organisation committee requiring it to refer to the adjudicator any proposals which have been submitted to the committee but which, at the time when the direction is given, have not been determined by the committee<sup>25</sup>, and all subsequent proposals submitted to it until the direction is revoked<sup>26</sup>. Where a school organisation committee refers any proposals to the adjudicator<sup>27</sup>, it must also refer to him any comments of the committee on the proposals<sup>28</sup>.

Where any proposals are referred to the adjudicator in this way<sup>29</sup>, the school organisation committee must also refer to him<sup>30</sup>:

- 321 (1) any other proposals published<sup>31</sup> in relation to the area of the local education authority<sup>32</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>33</sup>;
- 322 (2) any proposals made by that authority in the exercise of its powers to make or invite proposals for the establishment, alteration or discontinuance of schools<sup>34</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>35</sup>;
- 323 (3) any proposals published by that authority<sup>36</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>37</sup>;
- 324 (4) any proposals made by the governing body<sup>38</sup> of any community, foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>39</sup> in the area in the exercise of its powers to make proposals for the alteration of its school<sup>40</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>41</sup>; and
- 325 (5) any proposals published under the provisions relating to inadequate sixth forms<sup>42</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>43</sup>, where those proposals are not determined<sup>44</sup> before the adjudicator holds an inquiry<sup>45</sup>, and appear to the committee to be related to the proposals referred by it to the adjudicator under the provisions<sup>46</sup> relating to the giving of approval<sup>47</sup>.

RATIONALISATION OF SCHOOL PLACES IN WALES/(A) The System under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998/(b) Procedure relating to Rationalisation Proposals/189. Local inquiry into proposals relating to an area in Wales.

189. Local inquiry into proposals relating to an area in Wales.

Where, in relation to the area of any local education authority<sup>1</sup>, the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup> has made proposals to remedy deficiencies in the provision of school places<sup>3</sup> which it has not withdrawn<sup>4</sup>, and objections have been made<sup>5</sup> within the prescribed period<sup>6</sup>, then, unless all those objections have been withdrawn in writing within that period, the Assembly must cause a local inquiry to be held to consider its proposals, any proposals it refers to the inquiry and any such objections<sup>7</sup>. Any proposals referred to a local inquiry in this way require the approval of the Assembly<sup>8</sup>. Where the Assembly has a duty to cause such a local inquiry to be held, it must refer to the inquiry:

- 332 (1) any other proposals published<sup>9</sup> in relation to the area of the local education authority (and not withdrawn)<sup>10</sup>;
- 333 (2) any proposals made by that authority in the exercise of its powers to make proposals for the establishment, alteration or discontinuance of schools<sup>11</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>12</sup>;
- 334 (3) any proposals made by the governing body<sup>13</sup> of any foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>14</sup> in the area in the exercise of its powers to make proposals for the alteration of its school<sup>15</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>16</sup>; and
- 335 (4) any proposals published under the provisions relating to inadequate sixth forms<sup>17</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>18</sup>, where those proposals are not determined<sup>19</sup> before the Assembly causes the inquiry to be held and appear to it to be related to the proposals<sup>20</sup> in respect of which it is required to cause the inquiry to be held<sup>21</sup>. If, before the Assembly causes the inquiry to be held, it forms the opinion that any proposals ought to be implemented, the provisions described above do not require it to refer those proposals to the inquiry unless before the proceedings on the inquiry are concluded, or (if earlier) the proposals are determined, the Assembly subsequently forms a different opinion<sup>22</sup>.

Where, in relation to the area of any local education authority<sup>2</sup>, the National Assembly for Wales<sup>3</sup> has made proposals<sup>4</sup> which it has not withdrawn<sup>5</sup>, and objections have been made<sup>6</sup> within the prescribed period<sup>7</sup>, then, unless all those objections have been withdrawn in writing within that period, the Assembly must cause a local inquiry to be held to consider its proposals, any proposals it refers to the inquiry and any such objections<sup>8</sup>. Any proposals referred to a local inquiry in this way require the approval of the Assembly<sup>9</sup>.

Where the Assembly has a duty to cause such a local inquiry to be held, it must refer to the inquiry<sup>10</sup>:

- 345 (1) any other proposals published<sup>11</sup> in relation to the area of the local education authority (and not withdrawn)<sup>12</sup>;
- 346 (2) any proposals made by that authority in the exercise of its powers to make proposals for the establishment, alteration or discontinuance of schools<sup>13</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>14</sup>;
- 347 (3) any proposals made by the governing body<sup>15</sup> of any foundation, voluntary or foundation special school<sup>16</sup> in the area in the exercise of its powers to make proposals for the alteration of its school<sup>17</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>18</sup>; and
- 348 (4) any proposals published under the provisions relating to inadequate sixth forms<sup>19</sup> (and not withdrawn)<sup>20</sup>, where those proposals are not determined<sup>21</sup> before the Assembly causes the inquiry to be held and appear to it to be related to the proposals<sup>22</sup> in respect of which it is required to cause the inquiry to be held<sup>23</sup>. If, before the Assembly causes the inquiry to be held, it forms the opinion that any proposals ought to be implemented, the provisions described above<sup>24</sup> do not require it to refer those proposals to the inquiry unless before the proceedings on the inquiry are concluded, or (if earlier) the proposals are determined, the Assembly subsequently forms a different opinion<sup>25</sup>.

203. Governing bodies.

Each maintained school in England<sup>1</sup> must have a governing body<sup>2</sup>, which is a body corporate<sup>3</sup>. Regulations<sup>4</sup> must provide for a governing body to consist of:

- 358 (1) persons elected or appointed as parent governors<sup>5</sup>;
- 359 (2) persons elected or appointed as staff governors<sup>6</sup>;

- 365 (b) the person or persons by whom, and the manner in which, governors are to be elected or appointed<sup>16</sup>;

In discharging any function conferred by such regulations, a local education authority or the governing body of a maintained school must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>28</sup>.

The governing body<sup>29</sup> is to be known as 'The governing body of . . .' with the addition of the name of the school as for the time being set out in the school's instrument of government<sup>30</sup>.

If the school is discontinued, the governing body is dissolved<sup>31</sup> on the discontinuance date<sup>32</sup>, or on such later date as the Secretary of State may specify by order made before the discontinuance date<sup>33</sup>.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/A. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND/(A) Constitution of Governing Bodies/213. Federations of schools.

213. Federations of schools.

- 400 (1) of two or more maintained schools<sup>3</sup>;
- 401 (2) of an existing federation<sup>4</sup> and of one or more maintained schools<sup>5</sup>; or
- 402 (3) of two or more existing federations<sup>6</sup>,

may, after complying with prescribed conditions, and in accordance with prescribed procedure, provide for their respective schools to be federated<sup>7</sup>. Where any schools are so federated<sup>8</sup>, they must have a single governing body constituted under a single instrument of government<sup>9</sup>, and, in prescribed cases, be treated as a single school for the purposes of such enactments<sup>10</sup> as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>. Regulations<sup>12</sup> may make provision:

- 403 (a) as to the dissolution of governing bodies on the formation of a federation<sup>13</sup>;
- 404 (b) enabling the governing body of a federation to continue in existence as a body corporate<sup>14</sup> when one or more schools join or leave the federation<sup>15</sup>;
- 405 (c) as to the circumstances in which and manner in which a federation may be dissolved, or one or more schools may leave a federation<sup>16</sup>;
- 406 (d) enabling the governing body of a federation that is dissolved to be replaced either by governing bodies for each of the constituent schools or by governing bodies which include the governing body of a new federation<sup>17</sup>;
- 407 (e) as to the transition from one governing body to another<sup>18</sup>;
- 408 (f) as to the transfer of property, rights and liabilities between governing bodies, or between local education authorities<sup>19</sup> and governing bodies<sup>20</sup>; and
- 409 (g) as to such other matters relating to federations, federated schools or the formation or dissolution of federations as the Secretary of State considers appropriate<sup>21</sup>.

If such regulations<sup>22</sup> allow the formation of a federation comprising schools within different categories<sup>23</sup>, the regulations may make provision modifying any enactment which relates to schools within a particular category, or to the governing bodies of schools within a particular category, in the application of the enactment to schools forming part of such a federation or to the governing bodies of such federations<sup>24</sup>. Regulations may also make provision modifying certain provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>25</sup> in the application of those provisions to federated schools or their governing bodies<sup>26</sup>.

In any enactment: (i) any reference to the governing body or governors<sup>27</sup> of a school is to be construed, in relation to a federated school, as a reference to the governing body or governors of the federation<sup>28</sup>; and (ii) any reference to the instrument of government of a school is to be construed, in relation to a federated school, as a reference to the instrument of government of the federation<sup>29</sup>.

214 Collaboration between schools

TEXT AND NOTES--As to collaboration between maintained schools and further education bodies see PARA 597A.

NOTE 1--SI 2003/1963 replaced: School Staffing (England) Regulations 2009, SI 2009/2680. SI 2003/1962 amended: SI 2007/957.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/A. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND/(A) Constitution of Governing Bodies/215. Governing bodies consisting of interim executive members.

215. Governing bodies consisting of interim executive members.

Where a notice has been given in respect of any maintained school<sup>1</sup> either by the local education authority<sup>2</sup> or by the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> that, as from the date specified in the notice, the governing body<sup>4</sup> is to consist of interim executive members<sup>5</sup>, the following provisions<sup>6</sup> have effect<sup>7</sup>. The governing body of the school must consist of members appointed by the appropriate authority<sup>8</sup>. The governing body as so constituted<sup>9</sup> is referred to as 'the interim executive board'<sup>10</sup>, and the members of the governing body as so constituted are referred to as 'interim executive members'<sup>11</sup>. On the date specified in the notice given either by the local education authority<sup>12</sup> or by the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>, the existing governors<sup>14</sup> must vacate office<sup>15</sup>.

During the interim period<sup>16</sup>, the interim executive board must conduct the school so as to secure, so far as is practicable to do so, the provision of a sound basis for future improvement in the conduct of the school<sup>17</sup>. During the same period, the local education authority may not exercise any power to appoint additional governors<sup>18</sup>, nor may the Secretary of State<sup>19</sup>. At any time during the interim period, the interim executive board may, if it thinks fit, make a report to the local education authority and the Secretary of State recommending that the school be discontinued<sup>20</sup>, and stating the reasons for that recommendation<sup>21</sup>. Where during the interim period, the Secretary of State gives a direction to close the school<sup>22</sup> or gives a direction requiring the discontinuance of a community or foundation special school<sup>23</sup>, or where the local education authority determines to discontinue the school<sup>24</sup>, the interim period continues until the discontinuance date<sup>25</sup>, even where it would otherwise end before that date<sup>26</sup>. However, where such a direction is not given by the Secretary of State and where the local education authority does not make such a determination to discontinue the school and where the notice stating that the governing body is to consist of interim executive members<sup>27</sup> did not specify the duration of the interim period, the appropriate authority may give notice to the specified persons specifying a date on which the governing body is to become a normally constituted governing body<sup>28</sup>. The persons specified for this purpose are: (1) every interim executive member<sup>29</sup>; (2) where the local education authority is the appropriate authority, the Secretary of State<sup>30</sup>; (3) where the Secretary of State is the appropriate authority, the local education authority<sup>31</sup>; (4) in the case of a foundation or voluntary school which is a Church of England school, a Church in Wales school or a Roman Catholic Church school, the appropriate diocesan authority<sup>32</sup>; and (5) in the case of any other foundation or voluntary school, the person or persons by whom the foundation governors are appointed<sup>33</sup>.

5 For the meaning of 'interim executive members' see the text and note 11 infra.

6 Ie the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 19A, Sch 1A (both as added in relation to England).

7 Ibid s 19A (added by the Education Act 2002 s 59(1)).

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 19A, Sch 1A (both as added) come into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 2 September 2002 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 1) Order 2002, SI 2002/2002, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

8 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 2(1) (Sch 1A added by the Education Act 2002 s 59(2), Sch 6). See note 7 supra. For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A (as added in relation to England), 'the appropriate authority' means: (1) where Sch 1A (as added in relation to England) applies by virtue of a notice under s 16A(1) (as added in relation to England) (see PARA 1270 post), the local education authority which gave the notice; and (2) where Sch 1A (as added in relation to England) applies by virtue of a notice under s 18A(1) (as added and amended in relation to England) (see PARA 1272 post), the Secretary of State: Sch 1A para 1(1) (as so added). The text refers to a governing body constituted in accordance with Sch 1A (as added in relation to England) instead of being constituted in accordance with regulations made by virtue of the Education Act 2002 s 19 (see PARA 203 ante): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 2(1) (as so added).

9 Ie constituted in accordance with ibid Sch 1A (as added in relation to England).

10 Regulations made by virtue of the Education Act 2002 s 19(2) or (3) (see PARA 203 ante) do not apply in relation to the interim executive board: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 13(1) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra. The instrument of government of the school does not, so far as it relates to the constitution of the governing body, have effect in relation to the interim executive board: Sch 1A para 13(2) (as so added).

The interim executive board may determine its own procedure (Sch 1A para 11(1) (as so added)); and may make such arrangements as it thinks fit for the discharge of its functions by any other person (Sch 1A para 11(2) (as so added)).

11 Ibid Sch 1A para 2(2) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra.

The number of interim executive members must not be less than two: Sch 1A para 4(1) (as so added). The initial appointment of interim executive members must be made so as to take effect on the date specified in the notice under s 16A(1) (as added in relation to England) (see PARA 1270 post) or s 18A(1) (as added and amended in relation to England) (see PARA 1272 post): Sch 1A para 4(2) (as so added). The appropriate authority may appoint further interim executive members at any time during the interim period: Sch 1A para 4(3) (as so added). For the meaning of 'the interim period' see note 16 infra.

Every appointment of an interim executive member must be made by an instrument in writing setting out the terms of his appointment: Sch 1A para 5(1) (as so added). An interim executive member holds office in accordance with the terms of his appointment and subject to Sch 1A para 18 (as added in relation to England) (see the text and notes 34-39 infra) (Sch 1A para 5(2)(a) (as so added)), and may at any time be removed from office by the appropriate authority for incapacity or misbehaviour (Sch 1A para 5(2)(b) (as so added)). The terms of appointment of an interim executive member may provide for his appointment to be terminable by the appropriate authority by notice: Sch 1A para 5(3) (as so added).

The appropriate authority must give a copy of the notice under s 16A(1) (as added in relation to England) or s 18A(1) (as added and amended in relation to England) and of every instrument of appointment of an interim executive member: (1) to every interim executive member; (2) to every existing governor of the school; (3) where the local education authority is the appropriate authority, to the Secretary of State; (4) where the Secretary of State is the appropriate authority, to the local education authority; (5) in the case of a foundation or voluntary school which is a Church of England school, a Church in Wales school or a Roman Catholic Church school, to the appropriate diocesan authority, and (6) in the case of any other foundation or voluntary school, to the person or persons by whom the foundation governors are appointed: Sch 1A para 6(1) (as so added). A failure to comply with Sch 1A para 6(1) (as added) does not invalidate the notice or appointment: Sch 1A para 6(2) (as so added). For the meanings of 'Church of England school', 'Church in Wales school', 'Roman Catholic Church school' and 'appropriate diocesan authority' see PARA 42 note 15 ante. As to foundation and voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

The appropriate authority may nominate one of the interim executive members to be chairman of the interim executive board (Sch 1A para 8 (as so added)); and may pay to any interim executive member such remuneration and allowances as the appropriate authority may determine (Sch 1A para 9 (as so added)).

14 'Existing governors', in relation to a school in respect of which a notice under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 16A(1) (as added in relation to England) (see PARA 1270 post) or s 18A(1) (as added and amended in relation to England) (see PARA 1272 post) has been given, means the governors who hold office immediately before the governing body becomes constituted in accordance with Sch 1A (as added in relation to England): Sch 1A para 1(1) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra.

15 Ibid Sch 1A para 3(1) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra. Schedule 1A para 3(1) (as added in relation to England) does not prevent the appointment of an existing governor as an interim executive member: Sch 1A para 3(2) (as so added).

If immediately before the date specified in a notice under s 16A(1) (as added in relation to England) (see PARA 1270 post) or s 18A(1) (as added and amended in relation to England) (see PARA 1272 post) the school does not have a delegated budget, the suspension of the governing body's right to a delegated budget is revoked with effect from that date: Sch 1A para 12(1) (as so added). Schedule 1A para 12(1) (as added in relation to England) is to be construed in accordance with s 49(7) (see PARA 320 post): Sch 1A para 12(4) (as so added). If a notice under s 51, Sch 15 para 1 (suspension of delegated budget for mismanagement: see PARA 322 post) has been given to the governing body before the date specified in a notice under s 16A(1) (as added in relation to England) or s 18A(1) (as added and amended in relation to England) but has not yet taken effect, the notice ceases to have effect on that date: Sch 1A para 12(2) (as so added). During the interim period, the local education authority may not exercise the power conferred by s 17 (as amended in relation to England) (power to suspend right to delegated budget: see PARA 1269 post): Sch 1A para 12(3) (as so added).

16 For these purposes, 'the interim period', in relation to a school in respect of which a notice under ibid s 16A(1) (as added in relation to England) (see PARA 1270 post) or s 18A(1) (as added and amended in relation to England) (see PARA 1272 post) has been given, means the period during which the governing body is constituted in accordance with Sch 1A (as added in relation to England): Sch 1A para 1(1) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra. During the interim period, any reference in any provision contained in, or made under, the Education Acts to a governor or foundation governor of a school has effect, in relation to the school, as a reference to an interim executive member (School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 3(3) (as so added)); and s 83 (modification of provisions making governors of foundation or voluntary school ex officio trustees: see PARA 250 post) has effect in relation to the school with the substitution for s 83(1)(a)-(c) of a reference to the interim executive members: (Sch 1A para 3(4) (as so added)). The appropriate authority may in the notice under s 16A(1) (as added in relation to England) or s 18A(1) (as added and amended in relation to England) specify the duration of the interim period: Sch 1A para 7 (as so added). For the meaning of 'the Education Acts' see PARA 1 note 14 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

17 Ibid Sch 1A para 10(1) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra. Schedule 1A para 10(1) (as added) is without prejudice to the other duties of the interim executive board as governing body: Sch 1A para 10(2) (as so added).

18 Ibid Sch 1A para 14(a) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra. The power to appoint additional governors referred to in the text is the power under s 16 (as amended in relation to England) (see PARA 1268 post).

19 Ibid Sch 1A para 14(b) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra. The power to appoint additional governors referred to in the text is the power under s 18 (as amended in relation to England) (see PARA 1271 post).

20 In ibid Sch 1A (as added in relation to England), any reference to the discontinuance of a maintained school is a reference to the local education authority ceasing to maintain it: Sch 1A para 1(2) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra.

21 Ibid Sch 1A para 15(1) (as added: see note 8 supra). See note 7 supra. However, the interim executive board may not: (1) publish under s 29(2) (proposals for discontinuance of community, foundation, voluntary or maintained nursery school: see PARA 134 ante) proposals to discontinue the school; or (2) serve notice under s

30(2) (notice by governing body to discontinue foundation or voluntary school: see PARA 135 ante): Sch 1A para 15(2) (as so added).

For these purposes, 'a normally constituted governing body' means a governing body constituted in accordance with regulations made by virtue of the Education Act 2002 s 19 (see PARA 203 ante): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 1(1) (as so added).

(B) THE GOVERNORS AND CLERK

216. Election and appointment of parent governors.

The appropriate authority<sup>1</sup> must make all the necessary arrangements for the election of parent governors<sup>2</sup>. Any election which is contested must be held by ballot<sup>3</sup>, and the necessary arrangements so made must provide for every person who is entitled to vote to have an opportunity to do so by post<sup>4</sup>, although the arrangements may provide also for every person who is entitled to vote to have an opportunity to do so by electronic means<sup>5</sup>. Where a vacancy for a parent governor arises, the appropriate authority must take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that every person who is known to it to be a parent<sup>6</sup> of a registered pupil<sup>7</sup> at the school, and, where the school is a maintained nursery school, a parent of a child for whom educational or other provision is made<sup>8</sup> on the premises of the school<sup>9</sup>, is informed of the vacancy and that it is required to be filled by election<sup>10</sup>, is informed that he is entitled to stand as a candidate and vote in the election<sup>11</sup>, and is given the opportunity to do so<sup>12</sup>.

The number of parent governors required must be made up by parent governors appointed by the governing body, if one or more vacancies for parent governors arises and either:

- 413 (1) the number of parents standing for election is less than the number of vacancies<sup>13</sup>;
- 414 (2) at least 50 per cent of the registered pupils at the school are boarders<sup>14</sup> and it would, in the opinion of the appropriate authority, be impractical for there to be an election of parent governors<sup>15</sup>; or
- 415 (3) in the case of a school which is a community special or foundation special school established in a hospital, it would, in the opinion of the appropriate authority, be impractical for there to be an election of parent governors<sup>16</sup>.

The governing body must appoint as a parent governor a parent of a registered pupil at the school<sup>17</sup>, a parent of a former registered pupil at the school<sup>18</sup>, or a parent of a child under or of compulsory school age<sup>19</sup>. However, where the school is a community special school or a foundation special school, the governing body must appoint a parent of a registered pupil at the school<sup>20</sup>, a parent of a former registered pupil at the school<sup>21</sup>, a parent of a child under or of compulsory school age with special educational needs<sup>22</sup> for which the school is approved<sup>23</sup>, or a parent with experience of educating a child with special educational needs<sup>24</sup>.

1 For this purpose, 'appropriate authority' means: (1) in relation to a community school, a community special school, a maintained nursery school or a voluntary controlled school, the local education authority; (2) in relation to a voluntary aided school, foundation school or foundation special school, the governing body: School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/348, reg 4(4) (added by SI 2003/1916), School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/348, Sch 1 para 1. Where a local education authority is the appropriate authority in relation to a school, that authority may delegate to the head teacher of the school any of its functions under Sch 1 (as amended): Sch 1 para 2. The local education authority may be the appropriate authority in relation to a school within head (2) supra if the governing body and the local education authority so agree: Sch 1 para 3. In the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/348 (as amended): (a) any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(a)); and

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/A. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND/(B) The Governors and Clerk/221. Qualifications and disqualifications.

221. Qualifications and disqualifications.

No person is qualified to be a governor<sup>1</sup> unless he is aged 18 or over<sup>2</sup> at the date of his election or appointment<sup>3</sup>. Save as otherwise provided<sup>4</sup>, the fact that a person is qualified to be elected or appointed as a governor of a particular category<sup>5</sup> at a school<sup>6</sup> does not disqualify him from election or appointment or from continuing as a governor of any other category at that school<sup>7</sup>. However, no person may at any time hold the office of more than one governor of the same school<sup>8</sup>.

Any governor who is not a governor by virtue of his office and who, without the consent of the governing body, has failed to attend meetings for a continuous period of six months beginning with the date of the first such meeting he failed to attend, is, on the expiry of that period, disqualified from continuing to hold office as a governor of that school<sup>9</sup>.

A person is also disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a governor of a school:

- 418 (1) at any time when he is detained under the Mental Health Act 1983<sup>10</sup>;
- 419 (2) if he has been adjudged bankrupt or sequestration of his estate has been awarded and (in either case) he has not been discharged and the bankruptcy order has not been annulled or rescinded<sup>11</sup>, or if he has made a composition or arrangement with, or granted a trust deed for, his creditors and has not been discharged in respect of it<sup>12</sup>;
- 420 (3) at any time when he is subject to a disqualification order or disqualification undertaking in relation to company directorship<sup>13</sup> or is subject to an order made<sup>14</sup> for failure to pay under a county court administration order<sup>15</sup>;
- 421 (4) if he has been removed from the office of trustee for a charity by an order made by the Charity Commissioners or the High Court on the grounds of any misconduct or mismanagement in the administration of the charity for which he was responsible or to which he was privy, or to which he contributed or which he facilitated by his conduct<sup>16</sup>;
- 422 (5) at any time when his employment is subject to certain restrictions or prohibitions<sup>17</sup> associated with the protection of children<sup>18</sup>;
- 423 (6) where, subject to certain conditions, he has been convicted, whether in the United Kingdom<sup>19</sup> or elsewhere, of any offence and has had passed on him a sentence of imprisonment<sup>20</sup>, or has been convicted under the provisions relating to nuisance and disturbance on educational premises<sup>21</sup> of an offence and has been sentenced to a fine<sup>22</sup>; or
- 424 (7) at any time when he refuses a request by the clerk to the governing body<sup>23</sup> to make an application<sup>24</sup> for a criminal records certificate<sup>25</sup>.

Where, by virtue of any of heads (2) to (6) above, a person is disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a governor of a school, and he is, or is proposed to become, a governor, he must give notice of that fact to the clerk to the governing body<sup>26</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> Any reference in the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/348 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision

TEXT AND NOTES--SI 2003/348 regs 23-26 now School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/957 regs 24-27, which apply, with modifications, in relation to the governing body of a federation and its members: School Governance (Federations) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/960, reg 30, Sch 7 (Sch 7 amended by SI 2007/3464).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/A. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND/(B) The Governors and Clerk/224. Governors' allowances.

224. Governors' allowances.

The governing body of a maintained school<sup>1</sup> which has a delegated budget<sup>2</sup> may determine<sup>3</sup> to pay to a member of that governing body or any associate member thereof payments by way of allowance<sup>4</sup> in respect of expenditure necessarily incurred by that person for the purpose of enabling him to perform any duty as a governor or as an associate member being either travel payments for private vehicles<sup>5</sup> or payments at a rate determined by the governing body and made on provision of a receipt<sup>6</sup> for the relevant amount<sup>7</sup>.

- 433 (1) a governor of a maintained school which does not have a delegated budget<sup>11</sup>;
- 434 (2) a person appointed to represent the local education authority on the governing body of any institution providing higher education<sup>12</sup> or further education<sup>13</sup> (or both)<sup>14</sup>;
- 435 (3) a person appointed to represent the local education authority on the governing body of any independent school<sup>15</sup> or special school<sup>16</sup> which is not maintained by that authority<sup>17</sup>.

The payments prescribed by way of allowance are in respect of expenditure necessarily incurred by a person listed in heads (1) to (3) above for the purpose of enabling him to perform any duty as a governor or as a person appointed to represent the local education authority, being either travel payments for private vehicles<sup>18</sup> or payments at a rate determined by the authority and made on provision of a receipt for the relevant amount<sup>19</sup>.

Where a maintained school does not have a delegated budget, the local education authority may pay to an associate member of the governing body<sup>20</sup>, payments by way of allowance in respect of expenditure necessarily incurred by that person for the purposes of enabling him to perform any duty as an associate member, being either travel payments for private vehicles<sup>21</sup> or payments at a rate determined by the authority and made on provision of a receipt for the relevant amount<sup>22</sup>.

Payments for travel expenses incurred through the use of private cars, pedal cycles and motorcycles must be at a rate not exceeding the HM Revenue and Customs authorised mileage rate, as published from time to time<sup>23</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'governing body' in relation to a maintained school includes a temporary governing body constituted under the Education Act 2002 s 34 (see PARA 212 ante): Education (Governors' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/523, reg 2(1). Such a scheme may not make different provision in relation to members of the governing body and associate members thereof or in relation to different categories of governor: reg 4(3). For these purposes, 'associate member' means a person appointed by the governing body as a member of one or more of its committees but who is not a member of the governing body for the purposes of the Education Act 2002 s 19 (see PARA 202 ante); and 'governor' in relation to a maintained school includes a member of a temporary governing body: Education (Governors' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/523, reg 2(1). Regulation 2(1) refers to the Education Act 2002 s 18 (repeal of specific grant-making powers: see PARA 65 note 6 ante), but it is submitted that the reference should be a reference to s 19 (governing bodies). As to the different categories of governor see PARAS 204-205 ante; and as to temporary governing bodies see PARA 212 ante.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/A. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND/(C) General Powers and Duties of Governing Bodies/232. Power of governing body to provide community facilities etc.

232. Power of governing body to provide community facilities etc.

The governing body of a maintained school<sup>1</sup> has the power to provide any facilities or services whose provision furthers any charitable purpose for the benefit of pupils<sup>2</sup> at the school or their families, or people who live or work in the locality in which the school is situated<sup>3</sup>. This power<sup>4</sup> includes, in particular, power for a governing body to: (1) incur expenditure<sup>5</sup>; (2) enter into arrangements or agreements with any person<sup>6</sup>; (3) co-operate with, or facilitate or co-ordinate the activities of, any person<sup>7</sup>; and (4) provide staff, goods, services and accommodation to any person<sup>8</sup>. A governing body may charge for any services or facilities so provided<sup>9</sup>.

However, the power to provide community facilities<sup>10</sup> does not enable a governing body to do anything which it is unable to do by virtue of any prohibition, restriction or limitation on its powers which is contained in the school's instrument of government<sup>11</sup>, or any local education authority's financial scheme<sup>12</sup> which relates to the school<sup>13</sup>. Regulations<sup>14</sup> may make provision preventing governing bodies from doing<sup>15</sup> anything which is specified, or is of a description specified, in the regulations<sup>16</sup>. A governing body must exercise the power to provide community facilities<sup>17</sup> only if, and to the extent that, it is satisfied that anything which it proposes to do will not to a significant extent interfere with the performance of any duty imposed on it either in relation to its general responsibility to conduct the school with a view to promoting high standards of educational achievement<sup>18</sup>, or by any other provision of the Education Acts<sup>19</sup>.

Before exercising the power to provide community facilities, a governing body:

- 459 (a) must consult the local education authority, the staff of the school, and the parents<sup>20</sup> of registered pupils<sup>21</sup> of the school<sup>22</sup>;
- 460 (b) where the proposed exercise of the power would affect registered pupils of the school and the governing body considers it appropriate in view of their age and understanding to consult all or some of them, must consult the registered pupils or such of them as the governing body considers it appropriate to consult<sup>23</sup>; and
- 461 (c) must consult such other persons as the governing body considers appropriate<sup>24</sup>.

Except as provided by regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(3)(b) (see PARA 321 post), no expenditure incurred by the governing body of a maintained school in the exercise of the power referred to in s 51A(1) (as added) is to be met from the school's budget share for any funding period: s 51A(2) (as so added; amended by the Education Act 2005 s 117, Sch 18

(E) INSTRUMENTS OF GOVERNMENT

241. Instruments of government.

For every maintained school<sup>1</sup> there must be an instrument ('the instrument of government')<sup>2</sup> which determines the constitution of the governing body<sup>3</sup> and other matters relating to the school<sup>4</sup>.

Regulations<sup>5</sup> must make provision with respect to the making of instruments of government, the matters to be dealt with in such instruments, the form of such instruments, and the review and variation of such instruments<sup>6</sup>.

The governing body of a maintained school must not conduct the school under a name other than the one for the time being set out in the school's instrument of government<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 98 note 3 ante.

2 As to the form and content of instruments of government see PARA 242 post; and as to the procedure for making instruments of government see PARA 243 post.

3 As to the constitution of governing bodies of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante. As to the governance of schools in Wales see PARA 251 et seq post.

4 Education Act 2002 s 20(1). Section 20(1) has effect subject to s 24 (federations of schools: see PARA 213 ante): s 20(4).

A local education authority must make an instrument of government in accordance with the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/348 (as amended) for each school which is maintained by it, no later than 31 August 2006: reg 33. For these purposes, any reference to the local education authority is a reference to the local education authority that maintains the school: reg 3(2)(c). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

5 'Regulations' means regulations made under the Education Act 2002: s 212(1). Regulations under s 20(2) may require any person responsible for the making, review or variation of an instrument of government to have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State: s 20(3). Regulations under s 20(2) may also include provision with respect to instruments of government for federations: s 20(4). See note 4 supra. For the meaning of 'federation' see PARA 213 note 4 ante. As to the making of regulations under the Education Act 2002 generally see PARA 79 note 2 ante. As to the regulations made under s 20(2)-(4) see the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/348 (amended by SI 2003/1916; SI 2003/1558; SI 2004/450; SI 2004/696; SI 2004/3264; SI 2005/1730); and the School Governance (Federations) (England) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/2042 (amended by SI 2005/1730).

Procedure for making of instruments of government.

243. Procedure for making of instruments of government.

The governing body<sup>1</sup> of a maintained school must prepare a draft of the instrument of government<sup>2</sup> and submit it to the local education authority<sup>3</sup>. Where the school has foundation governors<sup>4</sup>, the governing body may not submit the draft to the authority unless it has been approved by: (1) the foundation governors<sup>5</sup>; (2) any trustees of any trust<sup>6</sup> relating to the school<sup>7</sup>; (3) in the case of a Church of England school<sup>8</sup> or Roman Catholic Church school<sup>9</sup>, the appropriate diocesan authority<sup>10</sup>; and (4) in the case of any other school designated as having a religious character<sup>11</sup>, the appropriate religious body<sup>12</sup>.

On receiving the draft, the local education authority must consider whether it complies with all applicable statutory provisions<sup>13</sup>, and if the authority is content that the draft so complies<sup>14</sup>, or if there is agreement between the authority, the governing body and (if the school has foundation governors) the persons mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above that the draft should be revised to any extent, and the revised draft complies with all the applicable statutory provisions<sup>15</sup>, then the instrument must be made by the authority in the form of the draft or, as the case may be, in the form of the revised draft<sup>16</sup>. If, in the case of a school which has foundation governors, there is at any time disagreement as to the contents of the draft among the persons mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above, any of those persons may refer the draft to the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>. The Secretary of State must then give such direction as he thinks fit having regard, in particular, to the category of school to which the school belongs<sup>18</sup>.

If, in the case of a school which does not have foundation governors, the local education authority is not content with the draft<sup>19</sup> and there is no agreement as to the revision of the draft<sup>20</sup>, the authority must: (a) inform the governing body of the reasons why it is not content with the draft instrument<sup>21</sup>; and (b) give the governing body a reasonable opportunity to reach agreement with the authority on revising the draft<sup>22</sup>. The instrument must be made by the local education authority either in the form of a revised draft agreed between the authority and the governing body or, in the absence of such agreement, in such form as the authority thinks fit having regard, in particular, to the category of school to which the school belongs<sup>23</sup>.

In respect of the making of instruments of government, the matters to be dealt with in such instruments, the form of such instruments, and the review and variation of such instruments, governing bodies and local education authorities must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>24</sup>.

SI 2003/348 regs 27, 28, 30 now SI 2007/957 regs 28, 29, 31, which apply, with modifications, in relation to the governing body of a federation and its members: School Governance (Federations) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/960, reg 30, Sch 7 (Sch 7 amended by SI 2007/3464).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/A. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND/(E) Instruments of Government/244. Review of instruments of government.

244. Review of instruments of government.

The governing body<sup>1</sup> or the local education authority<sup>2</sup> may review the instrument of government<sup>3</sup> for a maintained school at any time after it is made<sup>4</sup>. Where on any review the governing body or the authority decides that the instrument should be varied, the governing body or, as the case may be, the authority must notify the other of its proposed variation together with its reasons for proposing such a variation<sup>5</sup>. Where the governing body has received such a notification, it must inform the authority as to whether or not it is content with the proposed variation and, if not content, its reasons<sup>6</sup>. Where the school has foundation governors<sup>7</sup>, the governing body must not give the authority any notification of a proposed variation<sup>8</sup>, or inform the authority<sup>9</sup> that it is content with the authority's proposed variation, unless that variation has been approved by: (1) the foundation governors; (2) any trustees of any trust relating to the school<sup>10</sup>; (3) in the case of a Church of England school<sup>11</sup> or Roman Catholic Church school<sup>12</sup>, the appropriate diocesan authority<sup>13</sup>; and (4) in the case of any other school designated as having a religious character<sup>14</sup>, the appropriate religious body<sup>15</sup>. If whichever of the governing body and the local education authority is the recipient of a notification of a proposed variation<sup>16</sup> agrees with the proposed variation<sup>17</sup>, or if there is agreement between the authority, the governing body and (if the school has foundation governors) the persons listed in heads (1) to (4) above that some other variation should be made instead<sup>18</sup>, then the instrument must be varied accordingly by the authority<sup>19</sup>. If, in the case of a school which has foundation governors, there is at any time disagreement as to the proposed variation among the persons listed in heads (1) to (4) above, any of those bodies or persons may refer the proposed variation to the Secretary of State<sup>20</sup>. On such a reference, the Secretary of State must then give such direction as he thinks fit having regard, in particular, to the category of school to which the school belongs<sup>21</sup>.

If, in the case of a school which does not have foundation governors, the governing body or the local education authority (as the case may be) does not agree with the proposed variation<sup>22</sup> and there is no agreement that some other variation should be made instead<sup>23</sup>, the authority must: (a) inform the governing body of the reasons why it is not content with the governing body's proposed variation, or as the case may be, why it wishes to proceed with its own variation<sup>24</sup>; and (b) give the governing body a reasonable opportunity to reach agreement with the authority with regard to the variation<sup>25</sup>. The instrument must be varied by the local education authority either in the manner agreed between the authority and the governing body or, in the absence of such agreement, in such manner as the authority thinks fit having regard, in particular, to the category of school to which the school belongs<sup>26</sup>.

Where an instrument of government is so varied, the instrument must set out the date on which the variation takes effect<sup>27</sup>.

Nothing in the provisions described above is to be taken as requiring the local education authority to vary the instrument of government if it does not consider it appropriate to do so<sup>28</sup>.

(H) EX OFFICIO TRUSTEES

250. Governors of foundation or voluntary school as ex officio trustees.

Where any provision of a trust deed<sup>1</sup> or other instrument made before 1 July 1981 would otherwise have the effect that the persons who are for the time being governors of a foundation or voluntary school<sup>2</sup> were by virtue of their office trustees of any property held for the purposes of, or in connection with, the school<sup>3</sup>, that provision instead has effect as if the only governors of the school were: (1) the foundation governors<sup>4</sup>; (2) those appointed by the local education authority<sup>5</sup>; and (3) any co-opted governor nominated by a minor authority<sup>6</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'trust deed' see PARA 104 note 6 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

2 As to foundation and voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

3 As to the meaning of 'land or other property held on trust, or by trustees, for the purposes of a school' see PARA 104 note 6 ante.

4 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 83(1)(a). For the meaning of 'foundation governor' see PARA 104 note 6 ante.

5 Ibid s 83(1)(b). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

6 Ibid s 83(1)(c). Section 83(1) is without prejudice to any power to amend any such provision as is mentioned in s 83(1): s 83(2).

For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, a maintained school serves an area for which there are one or more minor authorities if the area served by the school is:

70 (1) a parish or, in Wales, a community (s 141(1)(a));

71 (2) an area in England which is not within a parish and is not situated in: (a) a county for which there is no council; or (b) a county in which there are no district councils (s 141(1)(b)); or 72 (3) an area comprising two or more areas each of which falls within head (1) or head (2) supra (s 141(1)(c)).

References in s 141 to the area served by a school are references to the area appearing to the local education authority to be served by the school: s 141(7). As to local government areas and authorities in England see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 24 et seq. As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

Where the area served by the school is a parish, the parish council (if there is one) or the parish meeting (if there is no parish council) is the minor authority in relation to the school: s 141(2). Where the area served by the school is a community, the community council is the minor authority in relation to the school: s 141(3).

Where the area served by the school is an area falling within head (2) supra, any district council for the whole or part of the area is a minor authority in relation to the school: s 141(4).

Where the area served by the school is an area falling within head (3) supra, each of the relevant authorities is a minor authority in relation to the school: s 141(5). For these purposes, 'the relevant authorities' means the bodies which, if the two or more constituent areas referred to in head (3) supra were taken separately, would be minor authorities in relation to the school: s 141(6).

B. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN WALES

(A) CONSTITUTION OF GOVERNING BODIES

251. Governing bodies.

Each maintained school in Wales<sup>1</sup> must have a governing body<sup>2</sup>, which is a body corporate<sup>3</sup>. Regulations<sup>4</sup> must provide for a governing body to consist of:

- 506 (1) persons elected or appointed as parent governors<sup>5</sup>;
- 507 (2) persons elected or appointed as staff governors<sup>6</sup>;
- 508 (3) persons appointed as LEA (local education authority) governors<sup>7</sup>;
- 509 (4) except in the case of a voluntary aided school<sup>8</sup>, persons appointed as community governors<sup>9</sup>;
- 510 (5) in the case of a foundation school, a foundation special school or a voluntary school<sup>10</sup>, persons appointed as foundation governors<sup>11</sup> or partnership governors<sup>12</sup>; and
- 511 (6) such other persons as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>.

Regulations<sup>14</sup> may also make provision as to:

- 512 (a) the number of governors, or of governors falling within any category<sup>15</sup>;
- 513 (b) the person or persons by whom, and the manner in which, governors are to be elected or appointed<sup>16</sup>;
- 514 (c) eligibility for election or appointment as governors of any category, or for voting in an election of such governors<sup>17</sup>;
- 515 (d) the term of office of governors<sup>18</sup>;
- 516 (e) resignation or removal from office of governors<sup>19</sup>;
- 517 (f) the payment of allowances to governors<sup>20</sup>;
- 518 (g) meetings and proceedings of governing bodies<sup>21</sup>;
- 519 (h) the election by the governors of a chairman and vice-chairman of the governing body<sup>22</sup>;
- 520 (i) the establishment by a governing body of committees<sup>23</sup>;
- 521 (j) the appointment of persons other than governors to serve on committees of governing bodies<sup>24</sup>;
- 522 (k) the delegation of functions<sup>25</sup> by governing bodies<sup>26</sup>; and
- 523 (l) other matters relating to the constitution or procedure of governing bodies<sup>27</sup>.

In discharging any function conferred by such regulations, a local education authority or the governing body of a maintained school must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>28</sup>.

The governing body<sup>29</sup> is to be known as 'The governing body of . . .' with the addition of the name of the school as for the time being set out in the school's instrument of government<sup>30</sup>.

If the school is discontinued, the governing body is dissolved<sup>31</sup> on the discontinuance date<sup>32</sup>, or on such later date as the Assembly may specify by order made before the discontinuance date<sup>33</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 98 note 3 ante. For the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

In relation to Wales, despite the coming into force of the definition of 'maintained school' in the Education Act 2002 s 39 (see PARA 98 note 3 ante), the requirements imposed by s 19(1) in so far as they relate to maintained nursery schools need not be met until 31 March 2006 and transitional provisions apply: see the Education Act 2002 (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2913, reg 7.

2 le a governing body constituted in accordance with regulations (see heads (1)-(6), (a)-(l) in the text). The governing body of a maintained school is a public authority for the purposes of the Human Rights Act 1998: A v Head Teacher and Governors of Lord Grey School [2004] EWCA Civ 382 at [36]-[38], [2004] QB 1231 at [36]-[38], [2004] 4 All ER 628 at [36]-[38] per Sedley LJ. As to the significance of a body being designated a public authority for these purposes see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 6; CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS.

3 Education Act 2002 s 19(1). Section 19(1) has effect subject to s 24 (federations of schools: see PARA 264 post): s 19(8).

Section 19(8) is to come into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

4 'Regulations' means regulations made under the Education Act 2002: s 212(1). As to the making of regulations under the Education Act 2002 generally see PARA 79 note 2 ante. As to the regulations made under s 19(2) in relation to Wales see the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (amended by SI 2005/3200); and the School Councils (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/3200.

Regulations under the Education Act 2002 s 19 may include provision with respect to the governing bodies of federations (s 19(8)); but may not apply to any temporary governing body (s 34(8)). As to federations see PARA 264 post; and as to temporary governing bodies see PARA 263 post. See note 3 supra.

5 Ibid s 19(2)(a).

6 Ibid s 19(2)(b).

7 Ibid s 19(2)(c). Functions exercisable by or on behalf of a local education authority under regulations made under s 19, so far as relating to the appointment of persons as LEA (local education authority) governors, are relevant functions for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 127 (as amended) (code of practice for securing effective relationships between local education authorities and maintained schools: see PARA 99 ante): s 127(6)(m) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 110(1), (3)(c)). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; and for the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools in Wales see PARA 251 ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

2 As to community schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

3 As to the meaning of 'head teacher' under the Education Act 1996 see PARA 93 note 13 ante.

4 Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, reg 13(1)(a). As to resignation of a position see reg 26(1); and PARA 272 post.

5 Ibid reg 13(1)(b).

6 Ibid reg 13(1)(b), Table. Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies: reg 3(2)(b). For these purposes, 'parent governor' (or 'rhiant-lywodraethwr') means: (1) a person who is elected in accordance with reg 4, Sch 1 paras 4-9 (see PARA 267 post) as a governor by parents of registered pupils at the school and is himself such a parent at the time when he or is elected (reg 4(1)(a)); or (2) a person who is appointed as a parent governor in accordance with Sch 1 paras 10-12 (see PARA 267 post) (reg 4(1)(b)). As to the meaning of 'parent' generally see PARA 510 note 1 post. For the meaning of 'registered pupil' see PARA 512 post; for the meaning of 'child' see PARA 16 note 2 ante; and for the meaning of 'young person' see PARA 38 note 4 ante. A person is disqualified from appointment as a parent governor in accordance with Sch 1 paras 10-12 if he is: (a) an elected member of the local education authority; (b) employed by the local education authority in connection with its functions as a local education authority; or (c) paid to work at the school for more than 500 hours in any 12-month period commencing on 1 August and finishing on 31 July, unless he or is a parent of a registered pupil at the school: reg 4(2). A person is not disqualified from continuing to hold office as a parent governor when he ceases to be a parent of a registered pupil at the school or to fulfil any of the requirements set out in Sch 1 para 11 and Sch 1 para 12 (see PARA 267 post), as the case may be, unless he is otherwise disqualified under the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended): reg 4(3). For these purposes, any reference to the local education authority is a reference to the local education authority that maintains the school: reg 3(2)(c). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

The number of parent governors for a secondary school is normally six although there is an option, if the school has less than 600 registered pupils, for the number to be five: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(a), Table. The number of parent governors for a primary school is normally four or five although there is an option, if the school has less than 100 registered pupils, for the number to be three: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(b), Table. As regards the alternative numbers specified, the governing body of a primary school must be constituted in such a way as to reflect either the first alternative for all categories of governor or the second alternative for all categories of governor: reg 13(3). For the meanings of 'secondary school' and 'primary school' see PARA 81 ante.

7 Ibid reg 13(1)(b), Table. For these purposes, 'LEA (local education authority) governor' (or 'llywodraethwr AALI') means a person who is appointed as a governor by the local education authority: reg 7(1). A person is disqualified from appointment or continuing to hold office as an LEA (local education authority) governor of a school if he is eligible to be a teacher or staff governor of the school: reg 7(2). For the meaning of 'teacher governor' see note 8 infra; and for the meaning of 'staff governor' see note 9 infra.

The number of LEA (local education authority) governors for a secondary school is normally five although there is an option, if the school has less than 600 registered pupils, for the number to be four: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(a), Table. The number of LEA (local education authority) governors for a primary school is normally three or four although there is an option, if the school has less than 100 registered pupils, for the number to be two: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(b), Table. As regards the alternative numbers specified, the governing body of a primary school must be constituted in such a way as to reflect either the first alternative for all categories of governor or the second alternative for all categories of governor: reg 13(3).

Where a vacancy in the office of a LEA (local education authority) governor arises, the clerk to the governing body must as soon as is reasonably practicable give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(1), (5)(b). The clerk to the governing body must, at least two months before the date of the expiry of the term of office of an appointed member, give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(2). However, reg 21(1), (2) does not apply where the person entitled to appoint a person to the office in question has already notified the clerk to the governing body in writing of the person appointed or nominated: reg 21(3). Where any person other than a governing body makes an appointment or nominates a person to be appointed to the governing body, he must give written notice of the appointment or the nomination to the clerk to the governing body specifying the name and usual place of residence of the person so appointed or nominated: reg 21(4). As to the clerk to the governing body see PARA 276 post.

8 Ibid reg 13(1)(b), Table. For these purposes, 'teacher governor' (or 'athro neu athrawes lywodraethwr') means a person: (1) who is elected in accordance with reg 5, Sch 2 (see PARA 268 post) as a governor by school teachers at the school; and (2) who is himself such a school teacher at a time when he is elected: reg 5(1). For this purpose, 'school teacher' (or 'athro neu athrawes ysgol') is to be interpreted in accordance with the Education Act 2002 s 122 (see PARA 864 post): Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, reg 3(1). As to the employment of teachers, and staffing generally, see PARA 354 et seq post. Upon ceasing to work at the school, a teacher governor is disqualified from continuing to hold office as such a governor: reg 5(2).

The number of teacher governors for a secondary school is two, whatever the number of registered pupils at the school: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(a), Table. The number of teacher governors for a primary school is normally one or two although there is an option, if the school has less than 100 registered pupils, for the number to be one: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(b), Table. As regards the alternative numbers specified, the governing body of a primary school must be constituted in such a way as to reflect either the first alternative for all categories of governor or the second alternative for all categories of governor: reg 13(3).

9 Ibid reg 13(1)(b), Table. For these purposes, 'staff governor' (or 'staff lywodraethwr') means a person: (1) who is elected in accordance with Sch 2 (see PARA 268 post) as a governor by persons employed to work at the school otherwise than as school teachers; and (2) who is himself so employed at a time when he is elected: reg 6(1). For this purpose, 'employed' means employed under a contract of employment or a contract for services: reg 6(1). As to contracts of employment and contracts for services generally see EMPLOYMENT vol 39 (2009) PARA 2. Where the instrument of government of a maintained nursery school makes provision in accordance with reg 14(3) (see PARA 253 post), 'staff governor' (or 'staff lywodraethwr') means a person: (a) who is elected in accordance with Sch 2 (see PARA 268 post) as a governor by persons employed to work at the school; and (b) who is himself so employed at a time when he is elected: reg 6(2). For this purpose, 'employed' means employed under a contract of employment or a contract for services: reg 6(2). Upon ceasing to work at the school, a staff governor of a school is disqualified from continuing to hold office as such a governor: reg 6(3).

The number of staff governors for a secondary school is one, whatever the number of registered pupils at the school: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(a), Table. The number of staff governors for a primary school is normally one although there is an option, if the school has less than 100 registered pupils, for the number to be one or zero: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(b), Table.

10 Ibid reg 13(1)(b), Table. For these purposes, 'community governor' (or 'llywodraethwr cymunedol') means a person who is appointed as a governor by the governing body and who is: (1) a person who lives or works in the community served by the school (reg 8(1)(a)); or (2) a person who, in the opinion of the governing body, is committed to the good government and success of the school (reg 8(1)(b)). A person is disqualified from appointment or continuing to hold office as a community governor of a school if he is: (a) a registered pupil at the school; (b) eligible to be a teacher or staff governor of the school: reg 8(2). A person is also disqualified if he is an elected member of the local education authority: reg 8(3). However, the provisions of reg 8(2), (3) do not apply in the case of an additional community governor: reg 8(4). 'Additional community governor' (or 'llywodraethwr cymunedol ychwanegol') means a governor appointed in accordance with reg 20 (see PARA 259 post): reg 8(1).

The number of community governors for a secondary school is normally five although there is an option, if the school has less than 600 registered pupils, for the number to be four: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(a), Table. The number of community governors for a primary school is normally three or four although there is an option, if the school has less than 100 registered pupils, for the number to be two: see reg 13(1)(b), (2)(b), Table. As regards the alternative numbers specified, the governing body of a primary school must be constituted in such a way as to reflect either the first alternative for all categories of governor or the second alternative for all categories of governor: reg 13(3).

Where a vacancy in the office of a community governor (including an additional community governor) arises, the clerk to the governing body must as soon as is reasonably practicable give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(1), (5)(c). The option of having a smaller governing body is available whatever the number of registered pupils at the school: reg 15(2). As regards the alternative numbers specified, the governing body of a community special school must be constituted in such a way as to reflect either the first alternative for all categories of governor or the second alternative for all categories of governor: reg 15(3).

8 Ibid reg 15(1)(b), Table. For the meaning of 'teacher governor' see PARA 252 note 8 ante. The number of teacher governors for a community special school is normally one or two, although there is an option for the number to be one: see reg 15(1)(b), Table. The option of having a smaller governing body is available whatever the number of registered pupils at the school: reg 15(2). As regards the alternative numbers specified, the governing body of a community special school must be constituted in such a way as to reflect either the first alternative for all categories of governor or the second alternative for all categories of governor: reg 15(3).

9 Ibid reg 15(1)(b), Table. For the meaning of 'staff governor' see PARA 252 note 9 ante. The number of staff governors for a community special school is normally one, although there is an option for the number to be one or zero: see reg 15(1)(b), Table. The option of having a smaller governing body is available whatever the number of registered pupils at the school: reg 15(2).

10 Ibid reg 15(1)(b), Table. For the meaning of 'community governor' see PARA 252 note 10 ante. The number of community governors for a community special school is normally three or four, although there is an option for the number to be two: see reg 15(1)(b), Table. The option of having a smaller governing body is available whatever the number of registered pupils at the school: reg 15(2). As regards the alternative numbers specified, the governing body of a community special school must be constituted in such a way as to reflect either the first alternative for all categories of governor or the second alternative for all categories of governor: reg 15(3).

Where a community special school is established in a hospital, the local education authority must designate as the appropriate body: (1) one local health board or more than one board to act jointly; or (2) the National Health Service trust with which the school is most closely associated, and the appropriate body must appoint a representative governor to take the place of one of the number of community governors specified in whichever of the options for numbers applies to the school: reg 15(4). As to health boards and National Health Service trusts see generally HEALTH SERVICES. Where the school is not established in a hospital, then: (a) the local education authority may designate one voluntary organisation or more than one such organisation to act jointly, as the appropriate voluntary organisation concerned with matters in respect of which the school is specially organised; or (b) where an appropriate voluntary organisation is so designated, it must appoint the representative governor to take the place of one of the number of community governors specified in whichever of the options for numbers applies to the school: reg 15(5). For these purposes, 'representative governor' (or 'llywodraethwr cynrychiadol') means a person who is appointed as such in accordance with reg 15(4) or (5): reg 12.

Where a vacancy in the office of a representative governor arises, the clerk to the governing body must as soon as is reasonably practicable give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(1), (5)(d). The clerk to the governing body must, at least two months before the date of the expiry of the term of office of an appointed member, give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(2). However, the provisions of reg 21(1), (2) do not apply where the person entitled to appoint a person to the office in question has already notified the clerk to the governing body in writing of the person appointed or nominated: reg 21(3). Where any person other than a governing body makes an appointment or nominates a person to be appointed to the governing body, he must give written notice of the appointment or the nomination to the clerk to the governing body specifying the name and usual place of residence of the person so appointed or nominated: reg 21(4). As to the clerk to the governing body see PARA 276 post.

Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies: reg 3(2)(b). 10 For these purposes, 'foundation governor' (or 'llywodraethwr sefydliedig') means a person who is appointed as a governor otherwise than by the local education authority and who: (1) where the school has a particular religious character, is appointed for the purpose of securing that that character is preserved and developed (ibid reg 9(1)(a)); (2) where there is a trust relating to the school, is appointed for the purpose of securing that the school is conducted in accordance with that trust (reg 9(1)(b)); or (3) where the school does not have a religious character and there is no trust relating to it, is appointed as a foundation governor of the school (reg 9(1)(c)). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to foundation schools having a particular religious character see PARA 953 post. As to educational trusts see PARA 1430 et seq post.

Where a vacancy in the office of a foundation governor arises, the clerk to the governing body must as soon as is reasonably practicable give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(1), (5)(a). The clerk to the governing body must, at least two months before the date of the expiry of the term of office of an appointed member, give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(2). However, reg 21(1), (2) does not apply where the person entitled to appoint a person to the office in question has already notified the clerk to the governing body in writing of the person appointed or nominated: reg 21(3). Where any person other than a governing body makes an appointment or nominates a person to be appointed to the governing body, he must give written notice of the appointment or the nomination to the clerk to the governing body specifying the name and usual place of residence of the person so appointed or nominated: reg 21(4). For these purposes, 'partnership governor' (or 'llywodraethwr partneriaeth') means a person who is nominated as a partnership governor and appointed as such in accordance with reg 10, Sch 3 (see PARA 269 post): reg 10(1). ## 259. Additional governors for maintained primary schools.

The instrument of government<sup>1</sup> for any community, voluntary or foundation school<sup>2</sup> which is a primary school<sup>3</sup>, and any maintained nursery school<sup>4</sup>, which serves an area for which there are one or more community councils<sup>5</sup>, must provide for the governing body<sup>6</sup> to include one additional community governor<sup>7</sup> nominated by the community council<sup>8</sup>. Where any such school serves an area for which there are two or more community councils, the governing body may seek nominations from one or more of those councils<sup>9</sup>.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/B. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(A) Constitution of Governing Bodies/260. Substitutes for ex officio foundation governors.

A 'substitute governor' (or 'dirprwy lywodraethwr') is a foundation governor<sup>1</sup> appointed to act in the place of an ex officio foundation governor<sup>2</sup> who is unwilling or unable to act as a governor<sup>3</sup> or to act in the place of an ex officio foundation governor who has been removed from office<sup>3</sup>, or to act in the place of an ex officio foundation governor if there is a vacancy in the office by virtue of which such a governorship exists<sup>4</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'foundation governor' in relation to Wales see PARA 255 note 10 ante. Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(b)); and any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(a)). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; and for the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools in Wales see PARA 251 ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

2 For these purposes, 'ex officio foundation governor' (or 'llywodraethwr sefydliedig ex officio') means a foundation governor who is the holder of an office by virtue of which he is entitled to be a foundation governor: ibid reg 9(1). An ex officio foundation governor will, upon ceasing to hold the office from which his governorship derives, be disqualified from continuing to hold office as such a governor: reg 9(2). As to governors of foundation or voluntary schools acting as ex officio trustees see PARA 301 post.

261. Adjustment in number of governors.

Where a maintained school<sup>1</sup> has more governors of a particular category<sup>2</sup> than are provided for by the instrument of government for the school<sup>3</sup>, such number of governors of that category as is required to eliminate the excess must cease to hold office, unless a sufficient number resign<sup>4</sup>. The governors who are to cease to hold office are to be determined on the basis of seniority, the governors whose current period of office as a governor of any category at the school is the shortest being the first to cease to hold office<sup>5</sup>.

For these purposes, additional community governors<sup>6</sup> are treated as if they constituted a separate category of governor<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante.

2 Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(b)); and any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(a)). 262. Powers where there is no properly constituted governing body.

Where it appears to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>1</sup> that, by reason of the default of any person, there is no properly constituted governing body<sup>2</sup> of any community, foundation or voluntary school or any community or foundation special school<sup>3</sup>, the Assembly may make such appointments and give such directions as it thinks desirable for the purpose of securing that there is a properly constituted governing body of that school<sup>4</sup>. The Assembly may also give directions rendering valid any acts or proceedings which in its opinion are invalid or otherwise defective by reason of the default<sup>5</sup>.

Where proposals for the establishment of a maintained school<sup>1</sup> fall to be implemented under any enactment<sup>2</sup>, the local education authority<sup>3</sup> must make arrangements providing for the constitution of a temporary governing body for the school<sup>4</sup>. Once constituted<sup>5</sup>, the temporary governing body continues in existence until such time as the governing body is constituted for the school under an instrument of government<sup>6</sup>. The local education authority must secure that the governing body is so constituted before such date as may be determined in accordance with regulations<sup>7</sup>.

The temporary governing body of a school must be treated for the purposes of the Education Acts<sup>8</sup> as if it were the governing body during the period beginning with the school opening date<sup>9</sup> and ending with the time when the governing body is constituted for the school under an instrument of government<sup>10</sup>.

Regulations<sup>11</sup> may make provision with respect to:

- 544 (1) the making and termination of arrangements for the constitution of temporary governing bodies<sup>12</sup>;
- 545 (2) the constitution, meetings and proceedings of temporary governing bodies, the payment of allowances to temporary governors<sup>13</sup>, and the appointment of clerks to such bodies<sup>14</sup>;
- 546 (3) the exercise by a temporary governing body before the school opening date of the power to provide community facilities<sup>15</sup>;
- 547 (4) the transition from a temporary governing body to a governing body constituted under an instrument of government<sup>16</sup>; and
- 548 (5) such other matters relating to temporary governing bodies as the National Assembly for Wales considers appropriate<sup>17</sup>.

For the purposes of s 30(3) (see PARA 296 post) and the Education Act 1996 ss 495-498 (general default powers: see PARAS 56 et seq, 262 ante), the temporary governing body of a school is also so treated at any time falling before the school opening date: Education Act 2002 s 34(7). Despite s 34(7), nothing in any of the following provisions, namely: (1) s 20(1) (see PARA 241 ante); (2) (subject to any regulations made under s 34(5)) s 19(6), Sch 1 (see PARA 203 ante); or (3) (subject to any regulations made under s 34(5)) regulations made under s 19 (see PARA 203 ante), s 20 (see PARA 241 ante) or s 23 (see PARA 226 ante), applies to any temporary governing body: s 34(8). 13 In the case of temporary governors of a new school, nothing in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(3) (effect of financial delegation: see PARA 321 post) is to be read as authorising the payment of allowances to governors otherwise than in accordance with regulations under the Education Act 2002 s 34(5): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(5) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 101). NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/B. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(A) Constitution of Governing Bodies/264. Federations of schools.

264. Federations of schools.

- 549 (1) of two or more maintained schools<sup>4</sup>;
- 550 (2) of an existing federation<sup>5</sup> and of one or more maintained schools<sup>6</sup>; or
- 551 (3) of two or more existing federations<sup>7</sup>,

may, after complying with prescribed conditions and in accordance with prescribed procedure, provide for their respective schools to be federated<sup>8</sup>. Where any schools are so federated<sup>9</sup>, they must have a single governing body constituted under a single instrument of government<sup>10</sup>, and, in prescribed cases, they must be treated as a single school for the purposes of such enactments<sup>11</sup> as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>. Regulations<sup>13</sup> may make provision:

- 552 (a) as to the dissolution of governing bodies on the formation of a federation<sup>14</sup>;
- 553 (b) enabling the governing body of a federation to continue in existence as a body corporate<sup>15</sup> when one or more schools join or leave the federation<sup>16</sup>;
- 554 (c) as to the circumstances in which and manner in which a federation may be dissolved, or one or more schools may leave a federation<sup>17</sup>;
- 555 (d) enabling the governing body of a federation that is dissolved to be replaced either by governing bodies for each of the constituent schools or by governing bodies which include the governing body of a new federation<sup>18</sup>;
- 556 (e) as to the transition from one governing body to another<sup>19</sup>;
- 557 (f) as to the transfer of property, rights and liabilities between governing bodies, or between local education authorities<sup>20</sup> and governing bodies<sup>21</sup>; and
- 558 (g) as to such other matters relating to federations, federated schools or the formation or dissolution of federations as the National Assembly for Wales, considers appropriate<sup>22</sup>.

If such regulations<sup>23</sup> allow the formation of a federation comprising schools within different categories<sup>24</sup>, the regulations may make provision modifying any enactment which relates to schools within a particular category, or to the governing bodies of schools within a particular category, in the application of the enactment to schools forming part of such a federation or to the governing bodies of such federations<sup>25</sup>. Regulations may also make provision modifying certain provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>26</sup> in the application of those provisions to federated schools or their governing bodies<sup>27</sup>.

In any enactment: (i) any reference to the governing body or governors<sup>28</sup> of a school is to be construed, in relation to a federated school, as a reference to the governing body or governors of the federation<sup>29</sup>; and (ii) any reference to the instrument of government of a school is to be construed, in relation to a federated school, as a reference to the instrument of government of the federation<sup>30</sup>.

Governing bodies consisting of interim executive members.

266. Governing bodies consisting of interim executive members.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Where a notice has been given in respect of any maintained school<sup>2</sup> either by the local education authority<sup>3</sup> or by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>4</sup> that, as from the date specified in the notice, the governing body<sup>5</sup> is to consist of interim executive members<sup>6</sup>, the following provisions<sup>7</sup> have effect<sup>8</sup>. The governing body of the school must consist of members appointed by the appropriate authority<sup>9</sup>. The governing body as so constituted<sup>10</sup> is referred to as 'the interim executive board'<sup>11</sup>, and the members of the governing body as so constituted are referred to as 'interim executive members'<sup>12</sup>. On the date specified in the notice given either by the local education authority<sup>13</sup> or by the Assembly<sup>14</sup>, the existing governors<sup>15</sup> must vacate office<sup>16</sup>.

During the interim period<sup>17</sup>, the interim executive board must conduct the school so as to secure, so far as is practicable to do so, the provision of a sound basis for future improvement in the conduct of the school<sup>18</sup>. During the same period, the local education authority may not exercise any power to appoint additional governors<sup>19</sup>, nor may the Assembly<sup>20</sup>. At any time during the interim period, the interim executive board may, if it thinks fit, make a report to the local education authority and the Assembly recommending that the school be discontinued<sup>21</sup>, and stating the reasons for that recommendation<sup>22</sup>. Where during the interim period, the Assembly gives a direction to close the school<sup>23</sup> or gives a direction requiring the discontinuance of a community or foundation special school<sup>24</sup>, or where the local education authority determines to discontinue the school<sup>25</sup>, the interim period continues until the discontinuance date<sup>26</sup>, even where it would otherwise end before that date<sup>27</sup>. However, where such a direction is not given by the Assembly and where the local education authority does not make such a determination to discontinue the school and where the notice stating that the governing body is to consist of interim executive members<sup>28</sup> did not specify the duration of the interim period, the appropriate authority may give notice to the specified persons specifying a date on which the governing body is to become a normally constituted governing body<sup>29</sup>. The persons specified for this purpose are: (1) every interim executive member<sup>30</sup>; (2) where the local education authority is the appropriate authority, the Assembly<sup>31</sup>; (3) where the Assembly is the appropriate authority, the local education authority<sup>32</sup>; (4) in the case of a foundation or voluntary school which is a Church of England school, a Church in Wales school or a Roman Catholic Church school, the appropriate diocesan authority<sup>33</sup>; and (5) in the case of any other foundation or voluntary school, the person or persons by whom the foundation governors are appointed<sup>34</sup>.

The interim executive members must vacate office: (a) on the discontinuance date<sup>35</sup>; (b) at the end of the specified period<sup>36</sup>; and (c) in any other case, on the date specified<sup>37</sup> as the date on which the governing body is to become a normally constituted governing body<sup>38</sup>. However, this does not prevent the termination of the appointment of an interim executive member at any earlier time<sup>39</sup> or in accordance with the terms of his appointment<sup>40</sup>. Where interim executive members are to vacate office on the date referred to in head (b) or head (c) above, the local education authority must make arrangements providing for the constitution of the governing body on and after that date<sup>41</sup>. Regulations<sup>42</sup> may make provision with respect to the transition from an interim executive board to a normally constituted governing body<sup>43</sup>.

1 The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 19A (added by the Education Act 2002 s 59(1)) and the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A (added by the Education Act 2002 s 59(2), Sch 6) come into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. As to governing bodies in England consisting of interim executive members see PARA 215 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante.

3 Ie under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 16A (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales): see PARA 1270 post. As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

4 Ie under ibid s 18A (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales): see PARA 1272 post. As to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 52 ante.

5 As to the governing body of a maintained school in Wales see PARA 251 et seq ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

6 For the meaning of 'interim executive members' see the text and note 12 infra.

7 Ie the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 19A, Sch 1A (both prospectively added in relation to Wales): see the text and notes 8-43 infra.

8 Ibid s 19A (as added: see note 1 supra).

9 Ibid Sch 1A para 2(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). For the purposes of Sch 1A (prospectively added in relation to Wales), 'the appropriate authority' means: (1) where Sch 1A (prospectively added in relation to Wales) applies by virtue of a notice under s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1270 post), the local education authority which gave the notice; and (2) where Sch 1A (prospectively added in relation to Wales) applies by virtue of a notice under s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1272 post), the National Assembly for Wales: Sch 1A para 1(1) (as so added). The text refers to a governing body constituted in accordance with Sch 1A (prospectively added in relation to Wales) instead of being constituted in accordance with regulations made by virtue of the Education Act 2002 s 19 (see PARA 203 ante): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 2(1) (as so added).

10 Ie constituted in accordance with ibid Sch 1A (prospectively added in relation to Wales).

11 Regulations made by virtue of the Education Act 2002 s 19(2) or (3) (see PARA 203 ante) do not apply in relation to the interim executive board: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 13(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). The instrument of government of the school does not, so far as it relates to the constitution of the governing body, have effect in relation to the interim executive board: Sch 1A para 13(2) (as so added).

The interim executive board may determine its own procedure (Sch 1A para 11(1) (as so added)); and may make such arrangements as it thinks fit for the discharge of its functions by any other person (Sch 1A para 11(2) (as so added)).

12 Ibid Sch 1A para 2(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

The number of interim executive members must not be less than two: Sch 1A para 4(1) (as so added). The initial appointment of interim executive members must be made so as to take effect on the date specified in the notice under s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1270 post) or s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1272 post): Sch 1A para 4(2) (as so added). The appropriate authority may appoint further interim executive members at any time during the interim period: Sch 1A para 4(3) (as so added). For the meaning of 'the interim period' see note 17 infra.

Every appointment of an interim executive member must be made by an instrument in writing setting out the terms of his appointment: Sch 1A para 5(1) (as so added). An interim executive member holds office in accordance with the terms of his appointment and subject to Sch 1A para 18 (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see the text and notes 35-40 infra) (Sch 1A para 5(2)(a) (as so added)), and may at any time be removed from office by the appropriate authority for incapacity or misbehaviour (Sch 1A para 5(2)(b) (as so added)). The terms of appointment of an interim executive member may provide for his appointment to be terminable by the appropriate authority by notice: Sch 1A para 5(3) (as so added).

The appropriate authority must give a copy of the notice under s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) or s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) and of every instrument of appointment of an interim executive member: (1) to every interim executive member; (2) to every existing governor of the school; (3) where the local education authority is the appropriate authority, to the National Assembly for Wales; (4) where the National Assembly for Wales is the appropriate authority, to the local education authority; (5) in the case of a foundation or voluntary school which is a Church of England school, a Church in Wales school or a Roman Catholic Church school, to the appropriate diocesan authority; and (6) in the case of any other foundation or voluntary school, to the person or persons by whom the foundation governors are appointed: Sch 1A para 6(1) (as so added). A failure to comply with Sch 1A para 6(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) does not invalidate the notice or appointment: Sch 1A para 6(2) (as so added). For the meanings of 'Church of England school', 'Church in Wales school', 'Roman Catholic Church school' and 'appropriate diocesan authority' see PARA 42 note 15 ante. As to foundation and voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

The appropriate authority may nominate one of the interim executive members to be chairman of the interim executive board (Sch 1A para 8 (as so added)); and may pay to any interim executive member such remuneration and allowances as the appropriate authority may determine (Sch 1A para 9 (as so added)).

14 See note 4 supra.

15 'Existing governors', in relation to a school in respect of which a notice under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1270 post) or s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1272 post) has been given, means the governors who hold office immediately before the governing body becomes constituted in accordance with Sch 1A (prospectively added in relation to Wales): Sch 1A para 1(1) (as added: see note 1 supra).

16 Ibid Sch 1A para 3(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). Schedule 1A para 3(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) does not prevent the appointment of an existing governor as an interim executive member: Sch 1A para 3(2) (as so added).

If immediately before the date specified in a notice under s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1270 post) or s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1272 post) the school does not have a delegated budget, the suspension of the governing body's right to a delegated budget is revoked with effect from that date: Sch 1A para 12(1) (as so added). Schedule 1A para 12(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) is to be construed in accordance with s 49(7) (see PARA 320 post): Sch 1A para 12(4) (as so added). If a notice under s 51, Sch 15 para 1 (suspension of delegated budget for mismanagement: see PARA 322 post) has been given to the governing body before the date specified in a notice under s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) or s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) but has not yet taken effect, the notice ceases to have effect on that date: Sch 1A para 12(2) (as so added). During the interim period, the local education authority may not exercise the power conferred by s 17 (as amended) (power to suspend right to delegated budget: see PARA 1269 post): Sch 1A para 12(3) (as so added).

17 For these purposes, 'the interim period', in relation to a school in respect of which a notice under ibid s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1270 post) or s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1272 post) has been given, means the period during which the governing body is constituted in accordance with Sch 1A (prospectively added in relation to Wales): Sch 1A para 1(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). During the interim period, any reference in any provision contained in, or made under, the Education Acts to a governor or foundation governor of a school has effect, in relation to the school, as a reference to an interim executive member (School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 3(3) (as so added)); and s 83 (modification of provisions making governors of foundation or voluntary school ex officio trustees: see PARA 301 post) has effect in relation to the school with the substitution for s 83(1)(a)-(c) of a reference to the interim executive members (Sch 1A para 3(4) (as so added)). The appropriate authority may in the notice under s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) or s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) specify the duration of the interim period: Sch 1A para 7 (as so added). For the meaning of 'the Education Acts' see PARA 1 note 14 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

18 Ibid Sch 1A para 10(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). Schedule 1A para 10(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) is without prejudice to the other duties of the interim executive board as governing body: Sch 1A para 10(2) (as so added).

19 Ibid Sch 1A para 14(a) (as added: see note 1 supra). The power to appoint additional governors referred to in the text is the power under s 16 (as amended; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1268 post).

20 Ibid Sch 1A para 14(b) (as added: see note 1 supra). The power to appoint additional governors referred to in the text is the power under s 18 (as amended; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1271 post).

21 In ibid Sch 1A (prospectively added in relation to Wales), any reference to the discontinuance of a maintained school is a reference to the local education authority ceasing to maintain it: Sch 1A para 1(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

22 Ibid Sch 1A para 15(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). However, the interim executive board may not: (1) publish under s 29(2) (proposals for discontinuance of community, foundation, voluntary or maintained nursery school: see PARA 134 ante) proposals to discontinue the school; or (2) serve notice under s 30(2) (notice by governing body to discontinue foundation or voluntary school: see PARA 135 ante): Sch 1A para 15(2) (as so added).

24 Ibid Sch 1A para 16(1)(a) (as added: see note 1 supra). The text refers to a direction given under s 32(1) (see PARA 149 ante).

25 Ibid Sch 1A para 16(1)(b) (as added: see note 1 supra).

26 For the purposes of ibid Sch 1A para 16 (prospectively added in relation to Wales), 'the discontinuance date' means: (1) the date on which proposals for discontinuing the school are implemented under ss 28(8), 29(7), 31(8), Sch 6 Pt 3 paras 11-15 (as amended) (see PARAS 141-144 ante); (2) the date on which the school is discontinued under s 30 (as amended) (notice by governing body to discontinue foundation or voluntary school: see PARA 135 ante); or (3) the date specified in the direction under s 19(1) (as substituted; prospectively further substituted in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1273 post) or s 32(1) (see PARA 149 ante), as the case may be: Sch 1A para 16(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

27 Ibid Sch 1A para 16(1) (as added: see note 1 supra).

28 Ie the notice under ibid s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1270 post) or under s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1272 post).

29 Ibid Sch 1A para 17(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). For these purposes, 'a normally constituted governing body' means a governing body constituted in accordance with regulations made by virtue of the Education Act 2002 s 19 (see PARA 203 ante): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 1(1) (as so added).

31 Ibid Sch 1A para 17(2)(b) (as added: see note 1 supra).

34 Ibid Sch 1A para 17(2)(e) (as added: see note 1 supra).

35 Ibid Sch 1A para 18(1)(a) (as added: see note 1 supra). The date referred to in the text is the discontinuance date within the meaning of Sch 1A para 16 (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see the text and notes 23-27 supra), in a case where Sch 1A para 16 (prospectively added in relation to Wales) applies: Sch 1A para 18(1)(a) (as so added).

36 Ibid Sch 1A para 18(1)(b) (as added: see note 1 supra). The period referred to in the text is the period specified in a case where Sch 1A para 16 (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see the text and notes 23-27 supra) does not apply and the notice under s 16A(1) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1270 post) or under s 18A(1) (prospectively added and amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 1272 post) specified the duration of the interim period: Sch 1A para 18(1)(b) (as so added).

38 Ibid Sch 1A para 18(1)(c) (as added: see note 1 supra).

40 Ibid Sch 1A para 18(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

41 Ibid Sch 1A para 19(1) (as added: see note 1 supra).

42 For these purposes, 'regulations' means regulations made by the National Assembly for Wales: ibid s 142(1). Such regulations may in connection with that transition: (1) modify any provision made under any of the Education Act 2002 s 19 (governing bodies: see PARA 203 ante), s 20 (instruments of government: see PARA 241 ante) and s 23 (clerk to the governing body: see PARA 226 ante) or by s 19(6), Sch 1 (incorporation and powers of governing body: see PARA 228 ante); (2) apply any such provision with or without modifications; and (3) make provision corresponding to or similar to any such provision: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 1A para 19(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

43 Ibid Sch 1A para 19(2) (as added: see note 1 supra). The provision that may be made by virtue of Sch 1A para 19(2) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) includes, in particular, provision enabling governors to be elected or appointed, and to exercise functions, before the end of the interim period: Sch 1A para 19(3) (as so added). At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under Sch 1A paras 19(2), (3) (prospectively added in relation to Wales) in relation to Wales.

Election and appointment of parent governors.

(B) THE GOVERNORS AND CLERK

267. Election and appointment of parent governors.

The appropriate authority<sup>1</sup> must make all the necessary arrangements for the election of parent governors<sup>2</sup>. Any election which is contested must be held by secret ballot<sup>3</sup>, and the necessary arrangements so made must provide for every person who is entitled to vote to have an opportunity to do so by post<sup>4</sup>, although the arrangements may provide also for every person who is entitled to vote to have an opportunity to do so by electronic means<sup>5</sup>. Where a vacancy for a parent governor arises, the appropriate authority must take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that every person who is known to it to be a parent<sup>6</sup> of a registered pupil<sup>7</sup> at the school is informed of the vacancy and that it is required to be filled by election<sup>8</sup>, is informed that he is entitled to stand as a candidate and vote in the election<sup>9</sup>, and is given the opportunity to do so<sup>10</sup>.

The number of parent governors required must be made up by parent governors appointed by the governing body, if one or more vacancies for parent governors arises and either:

- 562 (1) the number of parents standing for election is less than the number of vacancies<sup>11</sup>;
- 563 (2) at least 50 per cent of the registered pupils at the school are boarders<sup>12</sup> and it would, in the opinion of the appropriate authority, be impractical for there to be an election of parent governors<sup>13</sup>; or
- 564 (3) in the case of a school which is a community special or foundation special school established in a hospital, it would, in the opinion of the appropriate authority, be impractical for there to be an election of parent governors<sup>14</sup>.

The governing body must appoint as a parent governor a parent of a registered pupil at the school<sup>15</sup>, or a parent of a child of compulsory school age or, in the case of a maintained nursery school, of or under compulsory school age<sup>16</sup>. However, where the school is a community special school or a foundation special school, the governing body must appoint a parent of a registered pupil at the school<sup>17</sup>, a parent of a child of compulsory school age with special educational needs<sup>18</sup>, a parent of a child of any age with special educational needs<sup>19</sup>, or a parent of a child of compulsory school age<sup>20</sup>.

1 For this purpose, 'appropriate authority' (or 'awdurdod priodol') means: (1) in relation to a community school, a community special school, a maintained nursery school or a voluntary controlled school, the local education authority; (2) in relation to a voluntary aided school, foundation school or foundation special school, the governing body: Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, reg 4, Sch 1 para 1. Where a local education authority is the appropriate authority in relation to a school, that authority may delegate to the head teacher of the school any of its functions under Sch 1: Sch 1 para 2. The local education authority is the appropriate authority in relation to a school within head (2) supra if the governing body and the local education authority so agree: Sch 1 para 3. Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to: (a) the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2) (a)); and (b) any reference to the local education authority is a reference to the local education authority that maintains the school (reg 3(2)(c)). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to community schools, foundation schools, voluntary schools and community and foundation special schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

As to special schools see PARA 1027 et seq post. For the meaning of 'maintained nursery school' see PARA 94 note 4 ante. For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante. As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools in Wales see PARA 251 ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

2 Ibid Sch 1 para 4. Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies: reg 3(2)(b). For the meaning of 'parent governor' see PARA 252 note 6 ante. The power conferred by Sch 1 para 4 does not include power to impose any requirements as to the minimum number of votes required to be cast for a candidate to be elected but does include the power to make provision as to qualifying dates: Sch 1 para 6. The appropriate authority is to determine, for the purposes of an election of parent governors, any question whether a person is a parent of a registered pupil at the school: Sch 1 para 5.

3 Ibid Sch 1 para 7.

4 Ibid Sch 1 para 8(1). For this purpose, 'post' includes delivery by hand: Sch 1 para 8(2).

268. Election and appointment of teacher governors and staff governors.

1 For these purposes, 'appropriate authority' (or 'awdurdod priodol') has the same meaning as in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, reg 4, Sch 1 (see PARA 216 note 1 ante); reg 5, Sch 2 para 1. Where an authority is the appropriate authority in relation to a school, that authority may delegate to the head teacher of the school any of its functions under Sch 2: Sch 2 para 2. For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante. As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'teacher governor' see PARA 252 note 8 ante.

3 Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, Sch 2 para 3. Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(b)); and any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(a)). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; and for the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante. For the meaning of 'staff governor' see PARA 252 note 9 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools in Wales and the categories of governor see PARA 251 ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

The power conferred by Sch 2 para 3 does not include power to impose any requirements as to the minimum number of votes required to be cast for a candidate to be elected, but does include the power to make provision as to qualifying dates: Sch 2 para 5. The appropriate authority is to determine for the purposes of an election of teacher or staff governors whether a person is a school teacher or otherwise employed to work at the school: Sch 2 para 4.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/B. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(B) The Governors and Clerk/269. Appointment of partnership governors.

269. Appointment of partnership governors.

Where a partnership governor<sup>1</sup> is required, the governing body must seek nominations from parents<sup>3</sup> of registered pupils<sup>4</sup> at the school, and from such other persons in the community served by the school as it considers appropriate<sup>5</sup>. No person may nominate for appointment, or appoint, a person as a partnership governor unless that person would be eligible for appointment by the governing body as a community governor<sup>6</sup>; and no governor may nominate a person for appointment as a partnership governor<sup>7</sup>.

The governing body must appoint such number of partnership governors as is required by the instrument of government<sup>8</sup> from among eligible nominees<sup>9</sup>. If the number of eligible nominees is less than the number of vacancies, the number of partnership governors required may be made up by persons selected by the governing body<sup>10</sup>.

The governing body must make all necessary arrangements for and determine all other matters relating to the nomination and appointment of partnership governors<sup>11</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'partnership governor' see PARA 255 note 12 ante. See further PARAS 255-256 ante. Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(b)); and any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(a)). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; and for the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools in Wales and the categories of governor see PARA 251 ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

5 Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, reg 10, Sch 3 para 1. Where a vacancy in the office of a partnership governor arises, the clerk to the governing body must as soon as is reasonably practicable give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(1), (5)(f). The clerk to the governing body must, at least two months before the date of the expiry of the term of office of an appointed member, give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(2). However, reg 21(1), (2) does not apply where the person entitled to appoint a person to the office in question has already notified the clerk to the governing body in writing of the person appointed or nominated: reg 21(3). Where any person other than a governing body makes an appointment or nominates a person to be appointed to the governing body, he must give written notice of the appointment or the nomination to the clerk to the governing body specifying the name and usual place of residence of the person so appointed or nominated: reg 21(4). As to the clerk to the governing body see PARA 276 post.

6 Ibid Sch 3 para 2. For the meaning of 'community governor' see PARA 252 note 10 ante.

7 Ibid Sch 3 para 4. This provision is subject to Sch 3 para 5(2) (see the text and note 10 infra). As to the need for notification of appointments see PARA 252 note 7 ante.

8 As to instruments of government see PARA 241 et seq ante.

9 Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, Sch 3 para 5(1). In the case of a foundation special school without a foundation, the governing body must appoint at least one person with experience of education for children with special educational needs as a partnership governor, unless no eligible nominee has such experience: Sch 3 para 3(1). In seeking nominations for partnership governors for foundation special schools, the governing body must take steps to secure that persons making nominations are aware of the requirement in Sch 3 para 3(1): Sch 3 para 3(2).

10 Ibid Sch 3 para 5(2). Where the governing body makes an appointment under Sch 3 para 5(2), having rejected any person nominated under Sch 3 para 1 (see the text and notes 1-5 supra), it must give written reasons for its decision to the local education authority and to the person rejected: Sch 3 para 6. In the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended), any reference to the local education authority is a reference to the local education authority that maintains the school: reg 3(2)(c). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

270. Election and appointment of sponsor governors.

Where a school<sup>1</sup> has one or more sponsors<sup>2</sup>, the governing body may determine that the instrument of government<sup>3</sup> will provide for the governing body to appoint sponsor governors<sup>4</sup>, not exceeding two<sup>5</sup>. The governing body must seek nominations for such appointments from the sponsor or (as the case may be) from one or more of the sponsors<sup>6</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'sponsor' (or 'noddwr') in relation to a school means: (1) a person who gives or has given substantial financial assistance (which for these purposes includes benefits in kind) to the school other than pursuant to statutory obligation; or (2) any other person (not being otherwise represented on the governing body) who provides or has provided substantial services to the school: Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, reg 11, Sch 4 para 1. Any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies: reg 3(2)(a). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; and for the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools in Wales see PARA 251 ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

3 As to instruments of government see PARA 241 et seq ante.

4 For these purposes, 'sponsor governor' (or 'noddwr-lywodraethwr') means a person who is nominated as a sponsor governor and is appointed as such by the governing body in accordance with the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, reg 11, Sch 4: reg 11.

5 Ibid Sch 4 para 2. The text refers to sponsor governors nominated in accordance with Sch 4 para 3 (see the text and note 6 infra).

6 Ibid Sch 4 para 3. Where a vacancy in the office of a sponsor governor arises, the clerk to the governing body must as soon as is reasonably practicable give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(1), (5)(e). The clerk to the governing body must, at least two months before the date of the expiry of the term of office of an appointed member, give notice in writing of that fact to the person entitled to appoint or nominate a person to that office: reg 21(2). However, reg 21(1), (2) does not apply where the person entitled to appoint a person to the office in question has already notified the clerk to the governing body in writing of the person appointed or nominated: reg 21(3). Where any person other than a governing body makes an appointment or nominates a person to be appointed to the governing body, he must give written notice of the appointment or the nomination to the clerk to the governing body specifying the name and usual place of residence of the person so appointed or nominated: reg 21(4). As to the clerk to the governing body see PARA 276 post.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/B. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(B) The Governors and Clerk/271. Qualifications and disqualifications.

271. Qualifications and disqualifications.

No person is qualified to be a governor<sup>1</sup> unless he is aged 18 or over<sup>2</sup> at the date of his election or appointment<sup>3</sup>. Save as otherwise provided<sup>4</sup>, the fact that a person is qualified to be elected or appointed as a governor of a particular category<sup>5</sup> at a school does not disqualify him from election or appointment or from continuing as a governor of any other category at that school<sup>6</sup>. However, no person may at any time hold the office of more than one governor of the same school<sup>7</sup>, or at any time hold office as governor in more than two schools<sup>8</sup>.

Any governor who is not a governor by virtue of his office and who, without the consent of the governing body, has failed to attend meetings for a continuous period of six months beginning with the date of the first such meeting he failed to attend, is, on the expiry of that period, disqualified from continuing to hold office as a governor of that school<sup>9</sup>.

A person is also disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a governor of a school:

- 565 (1) at any time when he is liable to be detained under the Mental Health Act 1983<sup>10</sup>;
- 566 (2) if he has been adjudged bankrupt or sequestration of his estate has been awarded and (in either case) he has not been discharged and the bankruptcy order has not been annulled or rescinded<sup>11</sup>, or if he has made a composition or arrangement with, or granted a trust deed for, his creditors and has not been discharged in respect of it<sup>12</sup>;
- 567 (3) at any time when he is subject to a disqualification order or disqualification undertaking in relation to company directorship<sup>13</sup>, or is subject to an order made<sup>14</sup> for failure to pay under a county court administration order<sup>15</sup>;
- 568 (4) if he has been removed from the office of trustee for a charity by an order made by the Charity Commissioners or the High Court on the grounds of any misconduct or mismanagement in the administration of the charity for which he was responsible or to which he was privy, or to which he contributed or which he facilitated by his conduct<sup>16</sup>;
- 569 (5) at any time when his employment is subject to certain restrictions or prohibitions<sup>17</sup> associated with the protection of children<sup>18</sup>;
- 570 (6) where, subject to certain conditions, he has been convicted, whether in the United Kingdom<sup>19</sup> or elsewhere, of any offence and has had passed on him a sentence of imprisonment<sup>20</sup>, or has been convicted under the provisions relating to nuisance and disturbance on educational premises<sup>21</sup> of an offence and has been sentenced to a fine<sup>22</sup>; or
- 571 (7) at any time when he refuses a request by the clerk to the governing body to make an application<sup>23</sup> for a criminal records certificate<sup>24</sup>.

Where, by virtue of any of heads (2) to (6) above, a person is disqualified from holding, or from continuing to hold, office as a governor of a school, and he is, or is proposed to become, a governor, he must give notice of that fact to the clerk to the governing body<sup>25</sup>.

- 1 Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(b)); and any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(a)). ## 272. Tenure of office.

A governor<sup>1</sup> holds office for a fixed period of four years from the date of his election or appointment<sup>2</sup>. However, these provisions do not prevent a governor from:

- 572 (1) being elected or appointed for a further term<sup>3</sup>;
- 573 (2) resigning his office<sup>4</sup>;
- 574 (3) being removed from office<sup>5</sup>; or
- 575 (4) being disqualified<sup>6</sup> from holding or continuing to hold office<sup>7</sup>.

A governor may at any time resign his office by giving written notice to the clerk to the governing body<sup>8</sup>.

The governing body may by resolution suspend a governor for all or any meetings of the governing body, or of a committee, for a fixed period of up to six months on one or more of the following grounds<sup>9</sup>:

- 576 (a) that the governor, being a person paid to work at the school, is the subject of disciplinary proceedings in relation to his employment<sup>10</sup>;
- 577 (b) that the governor is the subject of proceedings in any court or tribunal, the outcome of which may be that he is disqualified from continuing to hold office as a governor<sup>11</sup>;
- 578 (c) that the governor has acted in a way that is inconsistent with the ethos or with the religious character of the school and has brought or is likely to bring the school or the governing body or his office into disrepute<sup>12</sup>; or
- 579 (d) that the governor is in breach of his duty of confidentiality to the school or to any member of staff or to any pupil at the school<sup>13</sup>.

1 Any reference in the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended) to a governor is a reference to a member of a governing body of any school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(b)); and any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies (reg 3(2)(a)). The governing body of a maintained school<sup>1</sup> which has a delegated budget<sup>2</sup> may make to a member of that governing body or to a member of any committee of that governing body<sup>3</sup> payments by way of allowance<sup>4</sup> in respect of expenditure necessarily incurred by a member of the governing body for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duty as a governor or as a member of a committee of the governing body<sup>5</sup> being either travel or subsistence expenses<sup>6</sup> or payments at a rate determined by the governing body and made on provision of a receipt<sup>7</sup> for the relevant amount<sup>8</sup>.

- 582 (1) a governor of a maintained school which does not have a delegated budget<sup>12</sup>;
- 583 (2) a person appointed to represent the local education authority on the governing body of any institution providing higher education<sup>13</sup> or further education<sup>14</sup> (or both)<sup>15</sup>;
- 584 (3) a person appointed to represent the local education authority on the governing body of any independent school<sup>16</sup> or special school<sup>17</sup> which is not maintained by that authority<sup>18</sup>.

The payments prescribed by way of allowance are in respect of expenditure necessarily incurred by a person listed in heads (1) to (3) above for the purpose of enabling him to perform any duty as a governor or as a person appointed to represent the local education authority being either travel or subsistence payments<sup>19</sup> or payments at a rate determined by the authority and made on provision of a receipt for the relevant amount<sup>20</sup>.

Where a maintained school does not have a delegated budget, the local education authority may pay to members of committees of the governing body who are not governors such payments by way of allowance<sup>21</sup> in respect of expenditure necessarily incurred by that person for the purposes of enabling him to perform any duty as a member of a committee being either travel or subsistence payments<sup>22</sup> or payments at a rate determined by the authority and made on provision of a receipt for the relevant amount<sup>23</sup>.

The governing body of a maintained school<sup>2</sup> has the power to arrange the provision to pupils<sup>3</sup> at the school, whether by teachers at the school or other persons, of: (1) courses in preparation for professional examinations at a higher level<sup>4</sup>; or (2) courses providing education at a higher level (whether or not in preparation for an examination)<sup>5</sup>. A governing body may exercise this power in relation to a particular pupil only if it is satisfied that the provision to that pupil of the course in question will not to any significant extent interfere with the other education with which he is being provided at the school<sup>6</sup>.

The National Assembly for Wales<sup>7</sup> may give, or make arrangements for the giving of, financial assistance to any person in connection with the provision of courses mentioned in heads (1) and (2) above by the governing body of a maintained school in Wales<sup>8</sup>.

The power so conferred<sup>9</sup> has effect notwithstanding the fact that nothing in the Education Act 1996 confers any functions with respect to higher education<sup>10</sup>.

281 Power of governing body to form or invest in companies to provide services etc

NOTE 3--Education Act 2002 s 11(9) amended: SI 2009/1941.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/B. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(C) General Powers and Duties of Governing Bodies/282. Power of governing body to provide community facilities etc.

282. Power of governing body to provide community facilities etc.

The governing body of a maintained school<sup>1</sup> has the power to provide any facilities or services whose provision furthers any charitable purpose for the benefit of pupils<sup>2</sup> at the school or their families, or people who live or work in the locality in which the school is situated<sup>3</sup>. This power<sup>4</sup> includes, in particular, power for a governing body to: (1) incur expenditure<sup>5</sup>; (2) enter into arrangements or agreements with any person<sup>6</sup>; (3) co-operate with, or facilitate or co-ordinate the activities of, any person<sup>7</sup>; and (4) provide staff, goods, services and accommodation to any person<sup>8</sup>. A governing body may charge for any services or facilities so provided<sup>9</sup>.

However, the power to provide community facilities<sup>10</sup> does not enable a governing body to do anything which it is unable to do by virtue of any prohibition, restriction or limitation on its powers which is contained in the school's instrument of government<sup>11</sup>, or any local education authorities' financial scheme<sup>12</sup> which relates to the school<sup>13</sup>. Regulations<sup>14</sup> may make provision preventing governing bodies from doing<sup>15</sup> anything which is specified, or is of a description specified, in the regulations<sup>16</sup>. A governing body must exercise the power to provide community facilities<sup>17</sup> only if, and to the extent that, it is satisfied that anything which it proposes to do will not to a significant extent interfere with the performance of any duty imposed on it either in relation to its general responsibility to conduct the school with a view to promoting high standards of educational achievement<sup>18</sup>, or by any other provision of the Education Acts<sup>19</sup>.

Before exercising the power to provide community facilities, a governing body:

- 608 (a) must consult the local education authority, the staff of the school, and the parents<sup>20</sup> of registered pupils<sup>21</sup> of the school<sup>22</sup>;
- 609 (b) where the proposed exercise of the power would affect registered pupils of the school and the governing body considers it appropriate in view of their age and understanding to consult all or some of them, must consult the registered pupils or such of them as the governing body considers it appropriate to consult<sup>23</sup>; and
- 610 (c) must consult such other persons as the governing body considers appropriate<sup>24</sup>.

For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

The reference to a 'maintained school' in s 27(1) has effect, in relation to Wales, until the commencement of the definition in s 39(1) (see PARA 98 note 3 ante), as if it were a reference to a maintained school as defined by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 20(7) (see PARA 94 ante): Education Act 2002 (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1717, reg 3(2).

5 Ibid s 27(2)(a). Except as provided by regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(3)(b) (see PARA 321 post), no expenditure incurred by the governing body of a maintained school in the exercise of the power referred to in s 51A(1) (as added) is to be met from the school's budget share for any financial year: s 51A(2) (as so added). Section 51A(2) (as added) applies at a time when the school does not have a delegated budget by virtue of any suspension under s 17 (as amended) (see PARA 1269 post) or s 51, Sch 15 (as amended) (see PARA 322 et seq post), as well as a time when it does have a delegated budget: s 51A(3) (as so added). As to delegated budgets see PARA 320 et seq post. As to the requirement for maintained schools to have budget shares see PARA 312 post. As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

As from a day to be appointed, the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 51A(2) (as added) is amended so that the reference to 'financial year' is to be read as a reference to 'funding period': s 51A(2) (prospectively amended by the Education Act 2005 s 117, Sch 18 para 9). ## (E) INSTRUMENTS OF GOVERNMENT

For every maintained school<sup>1</sup> there must be an instrument ('the instrument of government')<sup>2</sup> which determines the constitution of the governing body<sup>3</sup> and other matters relating to the school<sup>4</sup>.

Regulations<sup>5</sup> must make provision with respect to the making of instruments of government, the matters to be dealt with in such instruments, the form of such instruments, and the review and variation of such instruments<sup>6</sup>.

The governing body of a maintained school must not conduct the school under a name other than the one for the time being set out in the school's instrument of government<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 98 note 3 ante. In relation to Wales, despite the coming into force of the definition of maintained school in the Education Act 2002 s 39 (see PARA 98 note 3 ante), the requirements imposed by s 20(1) in so far as they relate to maintained nursery schools need not be met until 31 March 2006 and transitional provisions apply: see the Education Act 2002 (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2913, reg 7. For the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

2 As to the form and content of instruments of government see PARA 242 ante; and as to the procedure for making instruments of government see PARA 243 ante.

3 As to the constitution of governing bodies in Wales see PARA 251 et seq ante. As to the governance of schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante.

4 Education Act 2002 s 20(1). Section 20(1) has effect subject to s 24 (federations of schools: see PARA 213 ante); s 20(4). Section 20(4) is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). However, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

A local education authority must make an instrument of government in accordance with the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended): (1) for each nursery school which is maintained by it no later than 31 March 2006; and (2) for all other schools maintained by it, no later than 31 August 2008: reg 37. For these purposes, any reference to the local education authority is a reference to the local education authority that maintains the school: reg 3(2)(c). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. Regulation 37 does not apply to instruments of government of schools which change category see the Change of Category of Maintained Schools (Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2916, reg 10, Sch 3.

In relation to Wales, despite the coming into force of the Education Act 2002 s 20(1) and the repeal of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 37(1) and Sch 12, all instruments of government of maintained schools remain in force until replaced by a new instrument of government made in accordance with the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (as amended): see the Education Act 2002 (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2913, reg 5.

5 'Regulations' means regulations made under the Education Act 2002: s 212(1). As to the making of regulations under the Education Act 2002 generally see PARA 79 note 2 ante. Regulations under s 20(2) may require any person responsible for the making, review or variation of an instrument of government to have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the National Assembly for Wales: s 20(3). As to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. Regulations under s 20(2) may also include provision with respect to instruments of government for federations: s 20(4). See note 4 supra. For the meaning of 'federation' see PARA 213 note 4 ante. As to the regulations made under s 20(2), (3) in relation to Wales see the Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914 (amended by SI 2005/3200); and the School Councils (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/3200.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/B. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(E) Instruments of Government/293. Procedure for making of instruments of government.

293. Procedure for making of instruments of government.

The governing body<sup>1</sup> of a maintained school must prepare a draft of the instrument of government<sup>2</sup> and submit it to the local education authority<sup>3</sup>. Where the school has foundation governors<sup>4</sup>, the governing body must not submit the draft to the local education authority unless it has been approved by: (1) the foundation governors<sup>5</sup>; (2) any trustees of any trust<sup>6</sup> relating to the school<sup>7</sup>; (3) in the case of a Church in Wales school<sup>8</sup> or Roman Catholic Church school<sup>9</sup>, the appropriate diocesan authority<sup>10</sup>; and (4) in the case of any other school designated as having a religious character<sup>11</sup>, the appropriate religious body<sup>12</sup>.

On receiving the draft, the local education authority must consider whether it complies with all applicable statutory provisions<sup>13</sup>, and if the authority is content that the draft so complies<sup>14</sup>, or if there is agreement between the authority, the governing body and (if the school has foundation governors) the persons mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above, that the draft should be revised to any extent, and the revised draft complies with all the applicable statutory provisions<sup>15</sup>, then the instrument must be made by the authority in the form of the draft or, as the case may be, in the form of the revised draft<sup>16</sup>. If, in the case of a school which has foundation governors, there is at any time disagreement as to the contents of the draft among the persons mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above, any of those persons may refer the draft to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>17</sup>. The Assembly must then give such direction as it thinks fit having regard, in particular, to the category of school to which the school belongs<sup>18</sup>.

If, in the case of a school which does not have foundation governors, the local education authority is not content with the draft<sup>19</sup> and there is no agreement as to the revision of the draft<sup>20</sup>, the local education authority must: (a) inform the governing body of the reasons why it is not content with the draft instrument of government<sup>21</sup>; and (b) give the governing body a reasonable opportunity to reach agreement with the authority on revising the draft<sup>22</sup>. The instrument of government must be made by the local education authority either in the form of a revised draft agreed between the authority and the governing body or, in the absence of such agreement, in such form as the authority thinks fit having regard, in particular, to the category of school to which the school belongs<sup>23</sup>.

In respect of the making of instruments of government, the matters to be dealt with in such instruments, the form of such instruments, and the review and variation of such instruments, governing bodies and local education authorities must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Assembly<sup>24</sup>.

1 For these purposes, any reference to the governing body or to the governing body of a school is a reference to the governing body of any maintained school to which the provision applies: Government of Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2914, reg 3(2)(a). NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(iv) Governance of Schools/B. GOVERNANCE OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(E) Instruments of Government/294. Review of instruments of government.

294. Review of instruments of government.

The governing body<sup>1</sup> or the local education authority<sup>2</sup> may review the instrument of government<sup>3</sup> for a maintained school at any time after it is made<sup>4</sup>. Where on any review the governing body or the local education authority decides that the instrument should be varied, the governing body or, as the case may be, the local education authority must notify the other of its proposed variation together with its reasons for proposing such a variation<sup>5</sup>. Where the governing body has received such a notification, it must inform the local education authority as to whether or not it is content with the proposed variation and, if not content, its reasons<sup>6</sup>. Where the school has foundation governors<sup>7</sup>, the governing body must not give the local education authority any notification of a proposed variation<sup>8</sup>, or inform the authority<sup>9</sup> that it is content with the authority's proposed variation, unless that variation has been approved by: (1) the foundation governors; (2) any trustees of any trust relating to the school<sup>10</sup>; (3) in the case of a Church in Wales school<sup>11</sup> or Roman Catholic Church school<sup>12</sup>, the appropriate diocesan authority<sup>13</sup>; and (4) in the case of any other school designated as having a religious character<sup>14</sup>, the appropriate religious body<sup>15</sup>. If whichever of the governing body and the local education authority is the recipient of a notification of a proposed variation<sup>16</sup> agrees with the proposed variation<sup>17</sup>, or if there is agreement between the local education authority, the governing body and (if the school has foundation governors) the persons listed in heads (1) to (4) above that some other variation should be made instead<sup>18</sup>, then the instrument must be varied accordingly by the authority<sup>19</sup>. If, in the case of a school which has foundation governors, there is at any time disagreement as to the proposed variation among the persons listed in heads (1) to (4) above, any of those bodies or persons may refer the proposed variation to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>20</sup>. On such a reference, the Assembly must then give such direction as it thinks fit having regard, in particular, to the category of school to which the school belongs<sup>21</sup>.

If, in the case of a school which does not have foundation governors, the governing body or the local education authority (as the case may be) does not agree with the proposed variation<sup>22</sup> and there is no agreement that some other variation should be made instead<sup>23</sup>, the local education authority must: (a) inform the governing body of the reasons why it is not content with the governing body's proposed variation, or, as the case may be, why it wishes to proceed with its own variation<sup>24</sup>; and (b) give the governing body a reasonable opportunity to reach agreement with the authority with regard to the variation<sup>25</sup>. The instrument of government must be varied by the local education authority either in the manner agreed between the authority and the governing body or, in the absence of such agreement, in such manner as the authority thinks fit having regard, in particular, to the category of school to which the school belongs<sup>26</sup>.

Where an instrument of government is so varied, the instrument must set out the date on which the variation takes effect<sup>27</sup>.

Nothing in the provisions described above is to be taken as requiring the local education authority to vary the instrument of government if it does not consider it appropriate to do so<sup>28</sup>.

(F) REPORTS

296. Governors' reports and other information relating to maintained schools.

Once in every school year<sup>1</sup> the governing body of a maintained school<sup>2</sup> in Wales<sup>3</sup> must prepare a report (a 'governors' report') dealing with such matters, and otherwise complying with such requirements, as may be specified in regulations<sup>4</sup>. Such regulations may:

- 642 (1) impose requirements on the governing body of a maintained school<sup>5</sup> with respect to the giving of copies of a governors' report to such persons as may be prescribed<sup>6</sup>, and making such copies available for inspection at the school<sup>7</sup>;
- 643 (2) make provision for: (a) enabling the governing body to determine the language or languages in which a governors' report is to be produced and the form or forms in which it is to be produced<sup>8</sup>; (b) requiring it to comply with any direction given by the local education authority<sup>9</sup> with respect to any additional language to be used or with respect to any additional form in which the report is to be produced<sup>10</sup>;
- 644 (3) enable the governors' report to be combined with any other document whose preparation by the governing body is required by or under any enactment<sup>11</sup>.

The governing body of a maintained school must provide the local education authority with such reports in connection with the discharge of its functions<sup>12</sup> as the authority may require (either on a regular basis or from time to time) for the purposes of the exercise of any of its functions<sup>13</sup>.

The head teacher<sup>14</sup> of a maintained school must provide the governing body or, as the case may be, the local education authority with such reports in connection with the discharge of his functions as the governing body or the authority may require (either on a regular basis or from time to time) for the purposes of the exercise of any of its functions<sup>15</sup>. Where such a requirement is imposed on the head teacher by the local education authority, the authority must notify the governing body of that requirement<sup>16</sup>, and the head teacher must give the governing body a copy of any report made by him in complying with it<sup>17</sup>.

297. Annual parents' meetings.

- 645 (1) all parents<sup>5</sup> of registered pupils<sup>6</sup> at the school<sup>7</sup>;

The governing body<sup>6</sup> of a foundation, voluntary controlled or foundation special school is<sup>7</sup> not responsible for any of the expenses of maintaining the school<sup>8</sup>. However, this does not apply to the repayment of the principal of, or interest on, a loan made to the governing body<sup>9</sup>.

FOUNDATION, VOLUNTARY AND FOUNDATION SPECIAL SCHOOLS/(C) Voluntary Aided Schools/308. Obligations of local education authorities and governing bodies.

(C) VOLUNTARY AIDED SCHOOLS

308. Obligations of local education authorities and governing bodies.

In the case of a voluntary aided school in England<sup>1</sup>, the duty of the local education authority<sup>2</sup> to maintain<sup>3</sup> the school includes the duty of defraying all the expenses of maintaining it, except any expenditure that is<sup>4</sup> to be met, by the governing body<sup>5</sup>, and the duty under any enactment of providing new premises<sup>6</sup> for the school<sup>7</sup>. In the case of a voluntary aided school, the governing body of the school is responsible for meeting all capital expenditure in relation to school premises<sup>8</sup>. However, this duty does not extend to: (1) capital expenditure<sup>9</sup> in relation to playing fields<sup>10</sup> or any building or other structure erected thereon in connection with the use of playing fields, but does extend to capital expenditure in relation to boundary walls and fences<sup>11</sup>; (2) capital expenditure necessary in consequence of the use of the school premises, in pursuance of a direction or requirement of the local education authority, for purposes other than those of the school<sup>12</sup>; or (3) capital expenditure on the provision of any new site which the local education authority is<sup>13</sup> to provide<sup>14</sup>.

In the case of a voluntary aided school in Wales<sup>15</sup>, the local education authority's duty to maintain the school includes the duty of defraying all the expenses of maintaining it, except any expenses that are<sup>16</sup> payable by the governing body<sup>17</sup>, and the duty under any enactment of providing new premises for the school<sup>18</sup>. In the case of a voluntary aided school, the expenses of discharging any liability<sup>19</sup> incurred by or on behalf of the governing body of the school, any former governors of the school, or any trustees of the school in connection with the provision of premises or specified equipment<sup>20</sup> for the purposes of the school are payable by the governing body of the school<sup>21</sup>. In addition, any expenses incurred in making to the school buildings<sup>22</sup> of a voluntary aided school such alterations<sup>23</sup> as may be required by the local education authority for the purpose of securing that the school premises conform to the prescribed<sup>24</sup> standards<sup>25</sup>, or in effecting repairs to the school buildings are payable by the governing body of the school<sup>26</sup>. However, the governing body of a voluntary aided school is not responsible for repairs to the interior of the school buildings<sup>27</sup>, or to those buildings necessary in consequence of the use of the school premises in pursuance of a direction or requirement of the local education authority for purposes other than those of the school<sup>28</sup>.

In England or Wales, a local education authority may give to the governing body of a voluntary aided school such assistance as the authority thinks fit in relation to the carrying out by the governing body of these obligations<sup>29</sup>. Where such assistance consists of the provision of any premises for use for the purposes of a school, the local education authority must transfer its interest in the premises to the trustees of the school, to be held by them on trust for the purposes of the school<sup>30</sup>, or if the school has no trustees, to the school's foundation body<sup>31</sup>, to be held by that body for the relevant purposes<sup>32</sup>.

1 As to voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

2 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

3 'Maintain', in relation to schools falling within the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 22(5) (as amended), is to be read in accordance with s 22(5) (as amended): s 22(8)(b).

4 le by virtue of ibid s 22(7), Sch 3 para 3 (as substituted in relation to England): see the text and notes 8-14 infra.

5 Ibid s 22(5)(a) (amended by the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 3). As to the governing bodies of maintained schools in England see PARA 203 et seq ante; and as to maintained schools generally see PARA 94 et seq ante.

6 As to the meaning of 'premises' see PARA 1352 note 3 post; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

7 Ibid s 22(5)(b) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215, Sch 21 para 96(1), (4)). As to the duty to provide premises for foundation, voluntary controlled and foundation special schools see PARA 1352 et seq post. As to the disposal of a voluntary aided school's land by a local education authority in England see PARA 1363 post.

8 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 3(1) (Sch 3 para 3 substituted, in relation to England, by the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 5).

9 For these purposes, 'capital expenditure' has the meaning given by the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 13, as it has effect from time to time: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 3(3) (as substituted: see note 8 supra). Accordingly, for the purposes of Sch 3 and Sch 22 (as amended) (see PARA 1363 et seq post), 'capital expenditure' means expenditure on:

76 (1) the acquisition, reclamation, enhancement or laying out of any land;

77 (2) the acquisition, construction, preparation, enhancement, replacement or demolition of any building or part of a building (including any fixtures and fittings affixed to a building), wall, fence or other structure, or any playground or other hard-standing;

78 (3) the acquisition, installation or replacement of any movable or immovable, plant, machinery, apparatus or furniture, used or intended to be used for the purposes of the school: Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 13(1). For these purposes, 'enhancement', in relation to any asset, means the carrying out of works which are intended: (a) to lengthen substantially the useful life of the asset; or (b) to increase substantially the open market value of the asset; or (c) to increase substantially the extent to which the asset can or will be used for the purposes of or in connection with the school concerned, but expenditure on the enhancement of an asset is not to be regarded as capital expenditure unless it should be so regarded in accordance with proper practices: art 13(2). 'Proper practices' are those accounting practices: (i) which the governing body or the maintaining local education authority is required to follow by virtue of any enactment; or (ii) which, whether by reference to any generally recognised published code or otherwise, are regarded as proper accounting practices to be followed in the keeping of the accounts of local authorities, either generally or of the description concerned; but in the event of any conflict in any respect between the practices falling within head (i) supra and those falling within head (ii) supra, only those falling within head (i) supra are to be regarded as proper practices: art 13(3). Despite the other provisions of art 13, any expenditure of an amount less than £2,000 does not constitute 'capital expenditure' for these purposes: art 13(4). Article 13(1)-(4) constitutes subordinate provisions for the purposes of the Regulatory Reform Act 2001 s 4 and a subordinate provisions order (within the meaning of s 4(4)) made in respect of those provisions is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 13(5).

308 Obligations of local education authorities and governing bodies

NOTE 9--For the purposes of the 1998 Act Sch 3, references to capital expenditure, in the case of a voluntary aided school, are references to expenditure which falls to be capitalised in accordance with proper accounting practices: see Sch 3 paras 9A, 9B (Sch 3 para 3(3) revoked, PARAS 9A, 9B added by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 35). Any expenditure by an appropriate body or any promoters in respect of a new voluntary aided school of an amount less than £2,000 does not constitute capital

309. Grants in respect of expenditure on premises or equipment.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make grants to the governing body<sup>2</sup> of a voluntary aided school<sup>3</sup> in England<sup>4</sup> in respect of capital expenditure<sup>5</sup> incurred or to be incurred by it<sup>6</sup>, or to a relevant body<sup>7</sup>, in the case of such a school, in respect of capital expenditure incurred or to be incurred by that body on behalf of the governing body<sup>8</sup>. The amount of any such grant in respect of any such expenditure must not exceed 90 per cent of the expenditure or, if the Secretary of State considers that the circumstances are exceptional, must not exceed 100 per cent of the expenditure<sup>9</sup>, and in the case of any prescribed class or description of such expenditure<sup>10</sup>, must be such as may be determined in accordance with regulations<sup>11</sup>. The times at which, and the manner in which, payments are made in respect of such grants are such as may be determined from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>12</sup>.

Any body to whom any payment is made in respect of such a grant must comply with such requirements determined by the Secretary of State as he may from time to time impose<sup>21</sup>. Such requirements may be imposed on, or at any time after, the making of any payment by reference to which they are imposed<sup>22</sup>, and may at any time be waived, removed or varied by the Secretary of State<sup>23</sup>; but such requirements may be imposed after the making of any such payment only if the Secretary of State is satisfied that in all the circumstances it is reasonable for them to be so imposed<sup>24</sup>. Such requirements may, in particular, if any conditions specified in the requirements are satisfied:

- 654 (1) require the application for purposes connected with the provision of education in appropriate schools<sup>25</sup> of: (a) any premises or equipment in respect of which the grant has been paid<sup>26</sup>; or (b) an amount equal to so much of the value of any such premises or equipment as is determined in accordance with the requirements to be properly attributable to the payment of the grant<sup>27</sup>; and
- 655 (2) in the event that that requirement is not complied with, require the payment to the Secretary of State of the whole or any part of the relevant amount<sup>28</sup>.

When deciding whether to make any grant to a body in circumstances where he considers that it would be appropriate to impose requirements<sup>29</sup>, the Secretary of State may have regard to whether, if such requirements were imposed, that body would have an enforceable right against some other person to be given by that person such financial assistance as would be necessary to enable it to pay to the Secretary of State the relevant amount<sup>30</sup>.

No grant may be paid under this provision in respect of any expenses incurred in the provision of any premises which it is the duty of the local education authority to provide<sup>31</sup>.

The National Assembly for Wales<sup>32</sup> may make grants to the governing body<sup>33</sup> of a voluntary aided school in Wales<sup>34</sup> in respect of qualifying expenditure<sup>35</sup> incurred by it<sup>36</sup>, or to a relevant body, in the case of such a school, in respect of qualifying expenditure incurred by that body on behalf of the governing body<sup>37</sup>. The amount of any such grant in respect of any such expenditure must not exceed 85 per cent of the expenditure<sup>38</sup>, and in the case of any prescribed<sup>39</sup> class or description of such expenditure, must be such as may be determined in accordance with regulations<sup>40</sup>. The times at which, and the manner in which, payments are made in respect of such grants are such as may be determined from time to time by the Assembly<sup>41</sup>. Without prejudice to any other of its duties, the Assembly must, in performing functions relating to the exercise of the power to make grants in respect of expenditure on the alterations to school buildings<sup>42</sup> or the repair of school buildings, give priority to paying grants in respect of expenditure which is necessary for the performance by governing bodies of their duties; and the amount of any grant paid in the exercise of that power in respect of such expenditure on the repair of school buildings must be 85 per cent of the expenditure<sup>43</sup>.

Any body to whom any payment is made in respect of such a grant must comply with such requirements determined by the Assembly as it may from time to time impose<sup>44</sup>. Such requirements may be imposed on, or at any time after, the making of any payment by reference to which they are imposed<sup>45</sup>, and may at any time be waived, removed or varied by the Assembly<sup>46</sup>; but such requirements may be imposed after the making of any such payment only if the Assembly is satisfied that in all the circumstances it is reasonable for them to be so imposed<sup>47</sup>. Such requirements may, in particular, if any conditions specified in the requirements are satisfied:

- 656 (i) require the application for purposes connected with the provision of education in appropriate schools of: (A) any premises or equipment in respect of which the grant has been paid<sup>48</sup>; or (B) an amount equal to so much of the value of any such premises or equipment as is determined in accordance with the requirements to be properly attributable to the payment of the grant<sup>49</sup>; and
- 657 (ii) in the event that that requirement is not complied with, require the payment to the Assembly of the whole or any part of the relevant amount<sup>50</sup>.

When deciding whether to make any grant to a body in circumstances where it considers that it would be appropriate to impose requirements<sup>51</sup>, the Assembly may have regard to whether, if such requirements were imposed, that body would have an enforceable right against some other person to be given by that person such financial assistance as would be necessary to enable it to pay to the Assembly the relevant amount<sup>52</sup>.

No grant may be paid under this provision in respect of any expenses incurred in the provision of any premises which it is the duty of the local education authority to provide<sup>53</sup>.

The Secretary of State may pay grants<sup>1</sup>:

- 658 (1) to the governing body<sup>2</sup> of a voluntary aided school<sup>3</sup> in respect of preliminary expenditure incurred or to be incurred by it for the purposes of any scheme for the transfer of the school to a new site or the enlargement<sup>4</sup> or alteration<sup>5</sup> of the school premises<sup>6</sup>; or
- 659 (2) to a relevant body<sup>7</sup> in the case of such a school, in respect of any preliminary expenditure incurred or to be incurred by it, on behalf of the governing body, for the purposes of any such scheme<sup>8</sup>.

Where any persons propose or are considering whether to propose the establishment<sup>9</sup> of a voluntary aided school, the Secretary of State may pay grants to them in respect of any preliminary expenditure incurred or to be incurred by them for the purposes of a scheme for the provision of a site for the school or of any buildings which would be used for the purposes of the school<sup>10</sup>. Such grants<sup>11</sup> must not exceed 90 per cent of the expenditure or, if the Secretary of State considers that the circumstances are exceptional, must not exceed 100 per cent of the expenditure, in respect of which it is paid<sup>12</sup>.

Such grants may be paid in respect of schemes for the transfer of the school to a new site or for the enlargement or alteration of the school premises or for the provision of a site for the school or of any buildings whether or not:

- 660 (a) the details of such a scheme had been formulated at the time when the expenditure was incurred<sup>13</sup>;
- 661 (b) where such details were not formulated at that time, they are subsequently formulated<sup>14</sup>;
- 662 (c) the governing body or persons in question had determined to proceed with such a scheme at that time<sup>15</sup>; or
- 663 (d) where they had not determined to proceed with such a scheme at that time, they subsequently determine to proceed with such a scheme<sup>16</sup>.

Expenditure in respect of which such grants are payable includes, in particular, costs incurred in connection with the preparation of plans and specifications for any proposed construction, enlargement or alteration of buildings which are or would be used for the purposes of the school<sup>17</sup>, and estimating the sums which would be expended if any such works were carried out<sup>18</sup>, but does not include any sums expended in carrying out any such works<sup>19</sup>. Where a grant is paid<sup>20</sup> in the case of any voluntary aided school, or a grant is paid<sup>21</sup> in the case of any school which is established as a voluntary aided school, the grant must, for the purposes of the provision requiring the consent of the Secretary of State if expenditure has been incurred on school premises (otherwise than in connection with repairs) before a notice to discontinue a foundation or voluntary school can be given<sup>22</sup>, be treated as expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State, otherwise than in connection with repairs, in respect of the school premises<sup>23</sup>.

311. Loans in respect of initial expenses.

Where, on the application of the governing body<sup>1</sup> of a voluntary aided school<sup>2</sup> and after consulting persons representing the governing body, the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> is satisfied that the governing body's share of any initial expenditure<sup>4</sup> required in connection with the school premises<sup>5</sup> will involve capital expenditure<sup>6</sup>, and having regard to all the circumstances of the case, considers that that capital expenditure ought properly to be met by borrowing<sup>7</sup>, he may make a loan to the governing body for the purpose of helping it meet that expenditure<sup>8</sup>. The amount, rate of interest and other terms and conditions applicable to the loan are such as may be specified in an agreement made between the Secretary of State and the governing body with the consent of the Treasury<sup>9</sup>. These principles<sup>10</sup> apply for the purpose of enabling loans to be made to a relevant body<sup>11</sup> in respect of expenditure incurred by that body on behalf of the governing body as they apply to expenditure incurred by the governing body<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante. See note 12 infra.

2 As to voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

3 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

4 The governing body's share of any initial expenditure must be taken to be so much of the expenditure as remains to be borne by the governing body after taking into account the amount of any grant under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 5 (as amended in relation to England) (see PARA 309 ante) that may be paid or payable in respect of them: Sch 3 para 7(4) (amended, in relation to England, by the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 10(e)). For these purposes, 'initial expenditure' is expenditure to be incurred in providing: (1) a site or buildings for a voluntary aided school in connection with the implementation of any proposals for a prescribed alteration to the school published under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 28 (as amended) (see PARA 132 ante), or the transfer of the school to a new site; or (2) a site or buildings for a new voluntary aided school, being expenditure in respect of which grants may be paid under Sch 3 para 5 (as amended in relation to England) (see PARA 309 ante): Sch 3 para 7(3) (amended, in relation to England, by the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 10(c), (d)). As to the meaning of 'alteration' see PARA 132 note 6 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

The provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 7(3), (4) have not been amended in relation to Wales, and must be read as referring to 'initial expenses' rather than 'initial expenditure'. In relation to Wales, the governing body's share of any initial expenses must be taken to be so much of the expenses as remains to be borne by the governing body after taking into account the amount of any grant under s 22(7), Sch 3 para 5 (see PARA 309 ante) that may be paid or payable in respect of them: Sch 3 para 7(4). For these purposes, 'initial expenses' are expenses to be incurred in providing: (a) a site or school buildings for a voluntary aided school in connection with the implementation of any proposals for a prescribed alteration to the school published under s 28 (as amended) (see PARA 132 ante), or the transfer of the school to a new site; or (b) a site or school buildings for a new voluntary aided school, being expenses in respect of which grants may be paid under Sch 3 para 5 (see PARA 309 ante): Sch 3 para 7(3). For the meaning of 'school building' see PARA 1353 note 18 post; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 7(1) has not been amended in relation to Wales, and must be read as referring to initial expenses rather than initial expenditure (see note 4 supra).

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 7(1) has not been amended in relation to Wales, and must be read as referring simply to expenditure rather than capital expenditure.

8 Ibid Sch 3 para 7(1). The statutory requirement for the consent of the Secretary of State or the local education authority (see s 36(2), Sch 10 para 3(3); and PARA 278 ante) does not apply to any borrowing by a governing body under Sch 3 para 7 (as amended): Sch 3 para 7(6).

As to the obligations of local education authorities and governing bodies towards voluntary aided schools in England see PARA 308 ante; and as to grants to voluntary aided schools in respect of expenditure on premises or equipment in England see PARA 309 ante. As to the obligations of local education authorities and governing bodies towards voluntary aided schools in Wales see PARA 308 ante; and as to grants to voluntary aided schools in respect of expenditure on premises or equipment in Wales see PARA 309 ante.

11 Ie within the meaning of ibid Sch 3 para 5 (as amended in relation to England) (see PARA 309 note 7 ante).

12 Ibid Sch 3 para 7(5) (amended, in relation to England, by the Regulatory Reform (Voluntary Aided Schools Liabilities and Funding) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/906, art 10(f)). The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 3 para 7(5) has not been amended in relation to Wales, and must be read as referring to expenses rather than expenditure.

In the provisions of Sch 3 para 7(1)-(4) (as amended in relation to England), as they apply in relation to a new voluntary aided school, references to the governing body are to be read as references to the promoters: Sch 3 para 7(5). As to the meaning of 'promoters' see s 28(2); and PARA 132 ante.

311 Loans in respect of initial expenses

NOTE 12--In the 1998 Act Sch 3 paras 2A-9B 'promoters', in relation to a school in England, means persons who are for the purposes of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 2 the proposers in relation to proposals for the establishment of the school: 1998 Act Sch 3 para 2A (added by the 2006 Act Sch 3 para 31).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(vi) Financing of Maintained Schools/312. Maintained schools to have budget shares.

(vi) Financing of Maintained Schools

312. Maintained schools to have budget shares.

For the purposes of the financing of maintained schools<sup>1</sup> by local education authorities<sup>2</sup>, every such school must have, for each funding period<sup>3</sup>, a budget share<sup>4</sup> which is allocated to it by the authority which maintains it<sup>5</sup>. For the purposes of Part II of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>6</sup>:

- 664 (1) a maintained school's 'budget share' for a funding period is such amount as the local education authority may determine, in accordance with regulations<sup>7</sup>, to allocate to the school out of the authority's individual schools budget for that year<sup>8</sup>;
- 665 (2) a local education authority's 'individual schools budget' for a funding period is the amount remaining after deducting from the authority's schools budget for that period such planned expenditure by the authority in respect of that period as it may determine should be so deducted in accordance with regulations<sup>9</sup>;
- 666 (3) a local education authority's 'schools budget' for a funding period is the amount<sup>10</sup> appropriated by the authority for meeting all expenditure by the authority in that period of a class or description prescribed for the purpose, which may include expenditure incurred otherwise than in respect of schools<sup>11</sup>; and
- 667 (4) a local education authority's 'local education authority budget' for a relevant period<sup>12</sup> is the amount appropriated by the authority for meeting all expenditure by the authority in that period of a class or description prescribed for the purpose<sup>13</sup>.

1 In the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt II Ch IV (ss 45-53A) (as amended), 'maintained school' means: (1) a community, foundation or voluntary school; (2) a community or foundation special school; or (3) a maintained nursery school: s 45(1A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 99(1), (2)). In relation to Wales, the application of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt II Ch IV (as amended) to maintained nursery schools, made by the amendment of s 45 by the Education Act 2002 Sch 21 para 99(1), (2), has effect in the period ending immediately before 1 April 2006 only for the purpose of financing maintained nursery schools in any financial year beginning on and after that date: see the Education Act 2002 (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2913, reg 8. As to community schools, foundation schools, voluntary schools and community and foundation special schools see PARA 102 et seq ante. As to special schools see PARA 1027 et seq post. For the meaning of 'maintained nursery school' see PARA 94 note 4 ante. For the meaning of 'maintained school' generally see PARA 94 ante; and for the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante.

2 In the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt II Ch IV (as amended):

- 79 (1) references to schools maintained by a local education authority do not include pupil referral units (as to which see PARA 457 post) (s 45(3)(a) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 99(1), (3)(a)));
- 80 (2) references, in a context referring to a local education authority, to a maintained school or to a school maintained by such an authority must be read as including a new school: (a) which on implementation of proposals under any enactment will be a community, foundation or voluntary school or a community or foundation special school maintained by the authority; and (b) which has a temporary governing body (School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 45(3)(b) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 21 para 99(1), (3)(b))); and
- 81 (3) references to the governing body of a maintained school or of a school maintained by a local education authority must accordingly be read as including the temporary governing body of a new school falling within the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 45(3)(b) (as amended) (see head (2) supra) (s 45(3)(c)).

As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante. 'New school' (without more) means a school or proposed school for which there is a temporary governing body constituted under the Education Act 2002 s 34 (see PARAS 212, 263 ante), or for which there is no such body but for which such a body is required to be so constituted by virtue of s 34(1) (see PARAS 212, 263 ante), or may be so constituted in accordance with such anticipatory arrangements as are mentioned in s 34(5) (a) (see PARAS 212, 263 ante); School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 72(3) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 21 para 106); definition applied for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt II Ch IV (as amended) by virtue of s 45(4). As to new schools generally see PARAS 202, 212, 263 ante.

3 For the purposes of ibid Pt II Ch IV (as amended), 'funding period' means a financial year or such other period as may be prescribed: s 45(1B) (added by the Education Act 2005 Sch 16 para 2(1), (3)). For the meaning of 'financial year' see PARA 68 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations: s 142(1); and 'regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. In relation to England, a school's budget share for the financial year beginning on 1 April 2004 may only be redetermined in the financial year beginning on 1 April 2005 in accordance with the provisions of the Financing of Maintained Schools (England) (No 2) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3247 (as amended) if such redetermination makes provision for: (1) pupils permanently excluded or admitted following a permanent exclusion; or (2) the correction of errors, whether in calculation or data, under any of the provisions of those regulations: Financing of Maintained Schools (England) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/3130, reg 2(2).

The amendments made to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 45A(1) (as added) by the Education Act 2005 Sch 16 para 3(1), (2)(a), (b) have effect as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(vi) Financing of Maintained Schools/314. Determination of local education authority's schools budget in Wales.

314. Determination of local education authority's schools budget in Wales.

Until a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect in relation to Wales<sup>1</sup>.

Before the schools budget deadline<sup>2</sup> in any financial year<sup>3</sup>, a local education authority<sup>4</sup> must determine the proposed amount of its schools budget<sup>5</sup> for the following financial year and give notice of its determination to the National Assembly for Wales<sup>6</sup> and to the governing body of every school maintained by the authority<sup>7</sup>. If it appears to the Assembly that, in all the circumstances, the amount proposed in such a notice<sup>8</sup> as a local education authority's schools budget for a financial year is inadequate, the Assembly may, within the period of 14 days beginning with the schools budget deadline in the financial year preceding that financial year, give the authority a notice<sup>9</sup>, which either:

- 677 (1) determines the minimum amount of the authority's schools budget for the year under consideration<sup>10</sup>; or
- 678 (2) specifies the amount which the Assembly would have determined as the minimum amount of the authority's schools budget for the year under consideration if it had acted under head (1) above and states the Assembly's intention to determine the minimum amount of the authority's schools budget for the following financial year<sup>11</sup>.

If, at the schools budget deadline in any financial year, a local education authority has failed to give the Assembly a notice<sup>12</sup> in relation to its schools budget for the following financial year, the Assembly may, at any time after that deadline, give the authority a notice under head (1) or head (2) above<sup>13</sup>.

The local education authority may, within the period of 14 days beginning with the date of a notice given under head (1) above, give the Assembly notice of its objection to its determination, giving reasons for the objection<sup>14</sup>. Where the local education authority has given notice of its objection in this way, the notice given under head (1) above ceases to have effect, but the Assembly may by order prescribe<sup>15</sup> the minimum amount of the authority's schools budget for the year under consideration<sup>16</sup>. However, where a notice under head (1) above has been given to a local education authority and no notice of objection has been given during the period specified<sup>17</sup>, or where an order has been made by the Assembly<sup>18</sup>, the local education authority must determine a schools budget for the year under consideration which is not less than the amount specified in relation to the authority in the notice or order<sup>19</sup>.

1 As from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b), the provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 45A(5), (6) (as added and amended) are repealed by the Education Act 2005 ss 101, 123, Sch 16 para 3(1), (8), Sch 19 Pt 4, and the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 ss 45B-45C (as added) are substituted by the Education Act 2005 Sch 16 para 5. In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Regulations<sup>1</sup> may require a local education authority<sup>2</sup> in England<sup>3</sup>, not later than the prescribed date<sup>4</sup>, to make an initial determination of its schools budget<sup>5</sup> for a funding period<sup>6</sup>. Such regulations may: (1) authorise or require local education authorities in England to take account of matters arising after the initial determination of their schools budgets for any funding period but before the beginning of the funding period, by redetermining their schools budgets for the period in accordance with the regulations<sup>7</sup>; and (2) require notice of any initial determination or revised determination to be given in accordance with the regulations to the governing bodies of schools maintained by the local education authority<sup>8</sup>.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(vi) Financing of Maintained Schools/316. New provisions relating to the determination of local education authority's school's budget in Wales.

316. New provisions relating to the determination of local education authority's school's budget in Wales.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

Before the schools budget deadline<sup>2</sup> in any funding period<sup>3</sup>, a local education authority in Wales must: (1) determine the proposed amount of its schools budget<sup>4</sup> for the following funding period<sup>5</sup>; and (2) give notice of its determination to the National Assembly for Wales and to the governing body of every school maintained by the authority<sup>6</sup>.

Regulations may require a local education authority in Wales, not later than the prescribed date<sup>7</sup>, to make an initial determination of its schools budget for a funding period<sup>8</sup>. Such regulations may: (a) authorise or require local education authorities in Wales to take account of matters arising after the initial determination of their schools budgets for the funding period but before the beginning of the funding period, by redetermining their schools budgets for the period in accordance with the regulations<sup>9</sup>; and (b) require notice of any initial determination or revised determination to be given in accordance with the regulations to the Assembly and to the governing bodies of schools maintained by the local education authority<sup>10</sup>.

If it appears to the Assembly that, in all the circumstances, the proposed amount of a local education authority's schools budget for a funding period<sup>11</sup> is inadequate, the Assembly may, within the period of 14 days beginning with the schools budget deadline<sup>12</sup> in the funding period preceding that funding period, give the authority a notice<sup>13</sup>, which either:

- 679 (i) determines the minimum amount of the authority's schools budget for the period under consideration<sup>14</sup>; or
- 680 (ii) specifies the amount which the Assembly would have determined as the minimum amount of the authority's schools budget for the period under consideration if it had acted under head (i) above and states the Assembly's intention to determine the minimum amount of the authority's schools budget for the following funding period<sup>15</sup>.

If, at the schools budget deadline in any funding period, a local education authority in Wales has failed to give the Assembly a notice<sup>16</sup>, the Assembly may, at any time after that deadline, give the authority a notice under head (i) or head (ii) above<sup>17</sup>.

The local education authority may, within the period of 14 days beginning with the date of a notice given under head (i) above, give the Assembly notice of its objection to the Assembly's determination, giving reasons for its objection<sup>18</sup>. Where the local education authority has given notice of its objection in this way, the notice given under head (i) above ceases to have effect, but the Assembly may by order prescribe the minimum amount of the authority's schools budget for the period under consideration<sup>19</sup>. However, where a notice under head (i) above has been given to a local education authority and no notice of objection has been given during the period specified<sup>20</sup>, or where an order has been made by the Assembly<sup>21</sup>, the local education authority must determine a schools budget for the period under consideration which is not less than the amount specified in relation to the authority in the notice or order<sup>22</sup>.

Schools forums to advise on matters relating to the local education authority's schools budget.

317. Schools forums to advise on matters relating to the local education authority's schools budget.

Every local education authority<sup>1</sup> must in accordance with regulations<sup>2</sup> establish for its area<sup>3</sup> before such date as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup> a body, to be known as a schools forum, representing the governing bodies and head teachers<sup>5</sup> of schools maintained by the authority<sup>6</sup> and, if the authority so determines, also representing such bodies as the authority may from time to time in accordance with regulations determine<sup>7</sup>.

The purpose of a schools forum is:

- 681 (1) to advise the relevant authority<sup>8</sup> on such matters relating to the authority's schools budget<sup>9</sup> as may be prescribed by regulations<sup>10</sup>; and
- 682 (2) to exercise any function that may be imposed on the schools forum by virtue of the provisions relating to the determination of specified budgets of a local education authority<sup>11</sup> or by virtue of the provisions authorising local education authorities in prescribed cases to determine (or redetermine) budget shares<sup>12</sup>.

Regulations<sup>13</sup> may include provision requiring a relevant authority to have regard to advice given by its schools forum, or requiring a relevant authority to consult its schools forum in relation to prescribed matters or before taking prescribed decisions<sup>14</sup>.

Regulations may make provision as to the constitution, meetings and proceedings of a schools forum<sup>15</sup>. Regulations may also make provision with respect to expenses of a schools forum<sup>16</sup>. Except as provided by regulations, the expenses of a schools forum must be defrayed by the relevant authority<sup>17</sup>.

Each local education authority<sup>1</sup> must prepare a scheme dealing with such matters connected with the financing of the schools maintained by the authority<sup>2</sup> or the exercise by the governing bodies<sup>3</sup> of such schools of the power to provide community facilities<sup>4</sup>, as are required to be dealt with in the scheme<sup>5</sup> by or by virtue of regulations made by the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup>, or any provision of Part II of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>7</sup>. Such regulations may, in particular, require a scheme to deal with:

- 683 (1) the carrying forward from one funding period to another of surpluses and deficits arising in relation to schools' budget shares<sup>8</sup>;
- 684 (2) amounts which may be charged against schools' budget shares<sup>9</sup>;
- 685 (3) amounts received by schools which may be retained by their governing bodies and the purposes for which such amounts may be used<sup>10</sup>;
- 686 (4) the imposition, by or under the scheme, of conditions which must be complied with by schools in relation to the management of their delegated budgets, including conditions prescribing financial controls and procedures<sup>11</sup>;
- 687 (5) the imposition, by or under the scheme, of conditions which must be complied with by schools in relation to the exercise by the governing bodies of maintained schools of the power to provide community facilities etc<sup>12</sup>, including conditions prescribing financial controls and procedures<sup>13</sup>;
- 688 (6) terms on which services and facilities are provided by the authority for schools maintained by it<sup>14</sup>.

Where there is any inconsistency between a scheme prepared by a local education authority<sup>15</sup> and any other rules or regulations made by the authority which relate to the funding or financial management of schools which it maintains, the terms of the scheme must prevail<sup>16</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'maintained school' for these purposes see PARA 312 note 1 ante; and as to the meaning of 'schools maintained by a local education authority' see PARA 312 note 2 ante. For the meaning of 'maintained school' generally see PARA 94 ante.

3 As to the meaning of 'governing body of a school maintained by a local education authority' see PARA 312 note 2 ante.

4 I.e. the power conferred by the Education Act 2002 s 27 (see PARA 227 ante). Expenditure incurred by the governing body of a maintained school in the exercise of the power conferred by s 27 must, as against third parties, be treated as part of the expenses of maintaining the school under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 22 (as amended) (see PARA 302 et seq ante) but if met by the local education authority may be recovered by it from the governing body: s 51A(1) (s 51A added by the Education Act 2002 s 40, Sch 3 para 4). Except as provided by regulations under s 50(3)(b) (see PARA 321 post), no expenditure incurred by the governing body of a maintained school in the exercise of the power referred to in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 51A(1) (as added) will be met from the school's budget share for any funding period: s 51A(2) (as so added; and amended by the Education Act 2005 s 117, Sch 18 para 9). For the meaning of 'funding period' see PARA 312 note 3 ante. The amendment made to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 51A(2) (as added) by the Education Act 2005 Sch 18 para 9 has effect as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until such a day is appointed in relation to Wales, the words 'funding period' are to be read as 'financial year'. For the meaning of 'financial year' see PARA 68 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). Section 51A(2) (as added) applies at a time when the school does not have a delegated budget by virtue of any suspension under s 17 (as amended) (see PARA 1269 post) or s 51, Sch 15 (as amended) (see PARAS 322-325 post), as well as a time when it does have a delegated budget: s 51A(3) (as so added). For the meaning of 'budget share' see PARA 312 ante. For the meaning of 'school having a delegated budget' see PARA 320 post. As to the application of s 51A (as added) in relation to federated schools and their governing bodies (as to which see PARA 213 ante) see the School Governance (Federations) (England) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/2042, reg 33.

5 In the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt II (ss 20-83) (as amended) (see PARA 102 et seq ante) any reference to 'the scheme', in relation to a maintained school, is a reference to the scheme prepared (or by virtue of s 48(4), Sch 14 para 1(6) (see PARA 319 post) treated as prepared) by the local education authority under s 48 (as amended), as from time to time revised under Sch 14 para 2 (see PARA 319 post): s 48(5).

6 'Regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. As to the required content of such schemes applicable to the financial year beginning on 1 April 2005 in relation to England see the Financing of Maintained Schools (England) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/3130, reg 29, Sch 3; and as to the required content of such schemes applicable to the financial year beginning after 31 March 2005 in relation to Wales see the Education (LEA Financial Schemes) (Wales) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/2507, reg 4, Schedule. The statutory instrument containing the first regulations to be made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 48(1) (as originally enacted) was not subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament but a draft instrument containing the regulations had to be laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament: see s 138(5)(b)(ii).

7 Ibid s 48(1) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 3 para 2(1), (2)). The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 48(1) (as amended) applies in relation to the preparation by the authority of any revision of a scheme under Sch 14 para 2 (see PARA 319 post) as it applies in relation to the preparation by the authority of a scheme: Sch 14 para 2(2).

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under s 48 (as amended) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 2 para (k). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

8 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 48(2)(a) (amended by the Education Act 2005 Sch 18 para 7). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until such a day is appointed in relation to Wales, the words 'funding period' are to be read as 'financial year'.

319. Approval, imposition or revision of financial schemes.

A financial scheme prepared by a local education authority<sup>1</sup> must be submitted to the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> on or before such date as he may by order direct, whether generally, or in relation to that authority or to any class or description of local education authorities to which that authority belongs<sup>3</sup>. In preparing such a scheme a local education authority must take into account any guidance given by the Secretary of State whether generally, or, in relation to that authority or to any class or description of local education authorities to which that authority belongs, as to the provisions he regards as appropriate for inclusion in the scheme<sup>4</sup>. Before preparing such a scheme the local education authority must consult, in relation to any time on or after 1 September 1999<sup>5</sup>, the governing body<sup>6</sup> and the head teacher<sup>7</sup> of every school maintained by the authority<sup>8</sup>.

Such a scheme does not come into force until it has been approved by the Secretary of State or until such date as he may, in giving his approval, specify, and he may approve such a scheme either without modifications<sup>9</sup> or with such modifications as he thinks fit after consulting the authority concerned, and subject to such conditions as he may specify in giving his approval<sup>10</sup>. If in the case of any local education authority either the authority fails to submit a scheme as so required<sup>11</sup>, or it appears to the Secretary of State that a scheme submitted by the authority as so required does not accord with any guidance given by him for these purposes and cannot be made to do so merely by modifying it, he may, after consulting the authority and such other persons as he thinks fit, impose a scheme making such provision<sup>12</sup> as he considers appropriate<sup>13</sup>. A scheme must be published in such manner as may be prescribed<sup>14</sup> on its coming into force, and on such subsequent occasions as may be prescribed<sup>15</sup>.

A local education authority may<sup>16</sup> revise the whole or any part of the scheme prepared<sup>17</sup> by it<sup>18</sup>. As regards any proposed variation of the scheme, the authority must first consult every governing body and head teacher whom it is obliged to consult<sup>19</sup>, and must then submit a copy of its proposals to the Secretary of State for his approval<sup>20</sup>. The Secretary of State may by a direction revise the whole or any part of any scheme as from such date as may be specified in the direction<sup>21</sup>. Before giving such a direction the Secretary of State must consult the local education authority and such other persons as he thinks fit<sup>22</sup>.

UPDATE

319 [Revision of local education authority schemes]

TEXT AND NOTES 1-13--School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 14 para 1(1)-(6) repealed: Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 5 para 5(4)(a), Sch 18 Pt 6.

TEXT AND NOTES 14, 15--Now refers to a scheme maintained by a local education authority under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 48(1) (see PARA 318) and for 'prescribed on its coming into force' read 'prescribed on its coming into force as revised by Sch 14': Sch 14 para 1(7) (substituted by Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 5 para 5(4)(b)).

NOTES 14, 15--SI 2004/3130 now replaced by School Finance (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/228 (see PARA 312 NOTE 7).

TEXT AND NOTES 16-22--School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 14 para 2 replaced by Sch 14 paras 2A, 2B (substituted by Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 5 para 5(5)).

TEXT AND NOTES 16-18--For 'prepared' read 'maintained': School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 14 para 2A(1) (see TEXT AND NOTES 16-22). In revising the scheme, the local education authority must take into account any guidance given by the Secretary of State, whether generally or in relation to that authority or any class or description of local education authorities to which that authority belongs, as to the provisions the Secretary of State regards as appropriate for inclusion in the scheme: Sch 14 para 2A(2).

TEXT AND NOTES 19, 20--For 'whom it is obliged to consult' read 'of every school maintained by the authority', and for 'Secretary of State for his approval' read 'authority's schools forum for its approval': School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 14 para 2A(3) (see TEXT AND NOTES 16-22). Schedule 14 para 2(4) not replicated.

TEXT AND NOTES 21, 22--Regulations may make provision preventing schemes as revised from coming into force unless they are approved in accordance with the regulations by the local education authority's schools forum or by the Secretary of State: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 14 para 2B(1) (see TEXT AND NOTES 16-22). The regulations may in particular (1) prescribe circumstances in which proposals which have been submitted to a local education authority's schools forum may be submitted to the Secretary of State; (2) enable the schools forum or the Secretary of State to approve proposals with modifications; and (3) enable the schools forum or the Secretary of State, in giving their or his approval, to specify the date on which the scheme as revised is to come into force: Sch 14 para 2B(2). Schedule 14 para 2(5), (6) not replicated. The power of the Secretary of State under these provisions is exercisable in relation to Wales by the National Assembly for Wales: see Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 180.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(vi) Financing of Maintained Schools/320. Maintained schools to have delegated budgets.

320. Maintained schools to have delegated budgets.

Every maintained school<sup>1</sup> must have a 'delegated budget'<sup>2</sup>, which means that the governing body of the school<sup>3</sup> is entitled to manage the school's budget share<sup>4</sup>. Where a school has a delegated budget the governing body is accordingly said to 'have a right to a delegated budget'<sup>5</sup>. A new school<sup>6</sup> must have a delegated budget as from the school opening date<sup>7</sup>, unless a different date applies<sup>8</sup>.

A school must have a delegated budget:

- 689 (1) as from a date earlier than the school opening date if the local education authority so determines<sup>9</sup>;
- 690 (2) as from a later date if the authority so determines with the written approval of the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup>; or
- 691 (3) as from such date as the Secretary of State may determine, if the authority has determined that the school should have a delegated budget as from a later date but that date is not approved by him<sup>11</sup>.

Subject to:

- 692 (a) the right<sup>12</sup> of a governing body to spend the school's budget share where the school has a delegated budget<sup>13</sup>;
- 693 (b) the power<sup>14</sup> of governing body to spend amounts out of the budget share where the delegation of the budget is suspended<sup>15</sup>;
- 694 (c) education standards grants<sup>16</sup>; and
- 695 (d) any provisions of the local education authority scheme<sup>17</sup>, a local education authority may not delegate to the governing body of any maintained school the power to spend any part of the authority's local education authority budget or schools budget<sup>18</sup>.

Any amount made available by a local education authority to the governing body of a maintained school<sup>19</sup> remains the property of the authority until spent by the governing body or the head teacher<sup>20</sup>, and when spent by the governing body or the head teacher, must be taken to be spent by it or him as the authority's agent<sup>21</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'maintained school' for these purposes see PARA 312 note 1 ante. For the meaning of 'maintained school' generally see PARA 94 ante.

2 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 49(1). A maintained school falling within s 49(1) did not have a delegated budget as from the day on which s 49 came into force (ie 1 April 1999) if the governing body's right to a delegated budget had been suspended under the Education Act 1996 s 117 (now repealed) (suspension of financial delegation for mismanagement etc) or the School Inspections Act 1996 s 28 (now repealed) (suspension of right to delegated budget), and that suspension had not been previously revoked with effect from that or any earlier day: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 144(7), Sch 32 para 5(1). For the purposes of Sch 32 para 5, references to a school having a delegated budget or to a governing body's right to such a budget are to be construed in accordance with s 49(7) (see the text to notes 3-5 infra): Sch 32 para 5(7)(b). Such a school must, however, have had a delegated budget as from the day with effect from which that suspension is revoked: Sch 32 para 5(2). The Secretary of State may by order determine that a relevant school does not have a delegated budget as from the day on which s 49 (as originally enacted) came into force where he considers that it would not be expedient for the school to have such a budget as from that day for reasons connected with the financial position, or the financial management, of the school: Sch 32 para 5(3). Such orders are not to be made by statutory instrument: see s 138(2) (as amended); and PARA 82 note 15 ante. For these purposes, 'relevant school' means a maintained school which immediately before the day on which s 49 (as originally enacted) came into force was a grant-maintained or grant-maintained special school within the meaning of the Education Act 1996: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Sch 32 para 5(7)(a). As grant-maintained schools see PARAS 102 note 16, 104 et seq ante. As to grant-maintained special schools see PARAS 102 note 17, 104 et seq ante.

Where the Secretary of State makes an order under Sch 32 para 5(3) in relation to a school:

- 82 (1) for the purposes of Pt II (as amended) the right of the governing body to a delegated budget must be treated as if it had been suspended by the local education authority under s 51, Sch 15 para 1 (as amended) (see PARA 322 post) on the day on which s 49 (as originally enacted) came into force (Sch 32 para 5(4)(a));
- 83 (2) the provisions of Sch 15 paras 2-4 (as amended) (see PARAS 323-325 post) (but not Sch 15 para 3(1)(a) (see PARA 324 post)) apply to any such suspension (Sch 32 para 5(4)(b)); and
- 84 (3) the school must have a delegated budget as from the day with effect from which that suspension is revoked (Sch 32 para 5(4)(c)).

At the date at which this volume states the law, no such order had been made under Sch 32 para 5. As to the making of orders under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. Any reference in any of ss 54-57 (in force in relation to Wales only) (see PARAS 354-380, 385, 392 post) to any suspension of a school's delegated budget under Sch 15 (as amended) (see PARAS 322-325 post) includes a reference to any suspension of a school's delegated budget by virtue of Sch 32 para 5(1), and (in accordance with Sch 32 para 5(4)) any such suspension by virtue of Sch 32 para 5(3): Sch 32 para 5(5). Where the day on which s 49 (as originally enacted) came into force is earlier than the day appointed under s 20(7) (see PARA 102 ante) any reference in Sch 32 para 5 to a maintained school is a reference to a school which is (within the meaning of the Education Act 1996) a school maintained by a local education authority, or a grant-maintained or grant-maintained special school, and to which the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 49 (as amended) applies in accordance with regulations under s 144(1) (transitional provisions): Sch 32 para 5(6). See also the transitional arrangements made by the Education (References to Delegated Budgets and Revocation) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/711 (revoked).

As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.
